He Remembered The Lady.

The Mauch Chunk Democrat says:
Franklin B. Gowen received part of his education in the widely known Beek academy at Lititz, Lancaster county.
Whilst there he was sick for a length of time, and later, after he became the president of the P. & R. R. Co., he remembered the kind nursing he received from a lady during his illness, and forwarded to her a free pass over the road from time to time which she duly appreciated. The time which she duly appreciated. The lady referred to, well advanced in years, now resides at Bethlehem.

That lady, says the Little Record, was Mrs. Francis Rauch, and the incident is remembered by some of our older citizens.

Pigeon Shooting at Middletown. At Middletown a shoot at live pigeons was held on Thursday afternoon. The attendance was the largest that has been at a shoot at that place in a long time. Quite a number of gunners from different parts of number of gunners from different parts of Lancaster county, as well as from Harrisburg, Lebanon and other places, were present. Ficies, the well-known gunner of Christians, won the match, killing ten straight birds. Krneger, of Wrightsville, and Kinsey, of Harrisburg, tied for second money, killing nine. Brewster, of Harrisburg, killed eight birds and took third prize.

Arrested for False Pretense.
From the Littiz Record.
Samuel Geyer, of Rome, was arrested by a Lancaster officer last week on a charge of false pretense, and was taken before Equire Reidenbach, where he entered buil for his appearance at court. The facts of the case are these: John Sener, of Lancaster, purchased a goat from Weidler Bender, which Geyer promised to deliver at Sener's house at Lancaster, for fifty cents. When Geyer reached Sener's home the latter was not in, but his wife received it, when Geyer under false representations managed to get a dollar and a half from Mrs. Sener for his services. The case was afterwards settled between the parties.

Exorbitant Express Rates. From the Littis Record. As an instance to show up the unjustness of the express company which has charge of goods passing over the R. & C. R. R. we mention that of a fowl, costing the purchaser 80 cents, which the express company charged 60 cents to ship from here to Lancaster—almost as much as the cost of the fowl. If that isn't wholesale robbery we'd like to know what is.

Mænnerchor Officers Elected. Last evening the semi-annual meeting of the Lancaster Mænnerchor was held in the hall of the society and the following officers were elected: President, Jacob Seibert; vice president, Frank Hammell; secretary, Henry Schmitt; corresponding secretary, Prof. Carl Matz; librarian, Valentine Seibert; trustees, John Ochs, Frederick Hoefel and Christian Gitlich.

Change of Bridge Viewers. Wm. P. Haines and Silas Herr, who with P. Haines and Shas Herr, who were appointed as viewers to report as to the advisability of changing the location of a bridge near Woods' Mill, cannot serve, they being petitioners for the proposed change. The court to-day appointed James M. Paxton and Benjamin Furniss, of Little Britain, as the viewers.

They will meet on January 10th, in the morning.

They're Good.

Grocer Clarke's crackers, (Marvin brand), extra English cheese and sweet cider are the best in the market. Samples of these sent to the INTELLIGENCER to-day were greatly relished by the employes.

Bought 58 Cases of Tobacco. From the Ephrata News. Samuel B. Slote bought of David Mussel-nan, of Greenvine, fifty-three cases of fine sed leef tobacco, on private terms. The obacco was bought for the firm of J. hirk & Co., of Lancaster, and was shipped a Tue-day.

Court met this morning at 9 o'clock for transaction of current business and to car argument of the remaining cases on the list. The lawyers interested in the ar-numents were not present and there was a current business of public interest remarked.
