The worst treatment for a heavy cold is "letting it alone," and the next worse is dosing with drugs and crude mixtures. The great want then is, a particular specific to allay fever; arrest congestion and inflammation and prevent extension of the disease to the lungs. Now, since reports from various parts of the country are to the effect that the above disease is on the increase, and to prevent its assuming a malignant type if attacked, we would recommend two of the most highly endorsed remedies in the country. HE DID ALL THAT HE PROMISED. A Reading Young Man Tolls a Reporter How His Life Was Saved and Became a Strong, Healthy Man Again After Falled to Do Him Any Good.

Mr. Albert Moyer, of Franklin and Orange streets, Reading, Pa., tells a reporter a more remarkable story about his sufferlings. He said: "About three years ago my health began to fall and grow rapidly worse until I became so weak that I had to give up work. I consuited at least five physicians, who could not give me any relief, my appetite failed and sleep became very restless. I had pains in back, was languid and ultimately my nervous system became all shattered; from a healthy, robust young man I became a mere wreck of my former self and totally unfit for any kind of work. No cause could be assigned for the trouble; every physician had his own theory; some said it was malaria, others liver trouble, weakness, etc. About three years ago I consulted Dr. Theel, of Philathree years ago I consulted Dr. Theel, of Phila-delphia. He gave me a very thorough physical examination, taking special care to examine my urine with the inicroscope and chemical tests, for which I had to pay; then he expressed the opinion that my case was curable and feeling that if there really was anything in medicine I wanted the benefit of it, and so placed myself under his care. I tell you honestly that was ready for work again in four months' time. I was completely cured and did not lime. I was completely cured and did not lose two days' work on account of sicklose two days' work on account of sickness. Since the first two weeks of treatment I cannot help praising the Doctor. His scientific method of treating disease is decidedly superior to that of any other physician that ever treated me, and I believe of any other. He is very careful by a rigid examination, to find out what the disease really is, then he will tell you at once if it is curable. He does not charge a fee for a visit, but for to completely cure the disease. I found him honest and faithful to his promise and a great physician. Since being cured I have learned that the doctor's great success over all others is mainly due to his combining the science of the Aliopathic, Homosopathic and Eelectic, schools of medicine in his practice. I have sent him persons who were afflicted with some intractable disease and he never failed to give entire satisfaction in every case. The doctor charged me $200,00 for the treatment, and I never/spent money to a better advantage, as I consider my health of the most importance and first consideration." Mr. Albert Moyer is a strong, healthy looking man, much respected by all who know He is engaged with his brother, who has a feed store at Orange and Franklin streets. He says some physicians may feel hurt by him speaking so plainly as to his experience with them, but at the same time falls to see why that

them, but at the same time falls to see why that should keep him from speaking the truth and pointing out the way for some sufferer to a physician who can cure them when all others fall. Dr. Theel, his son and associates will be in Lancaster, to day, Saturday, Jam e, and remain until Monday, Jam e, at the AMERICAN HOUSE. Their office hours are from v.a. m. to ep. m. Evenings from 6:30 to 9p. m. We advice all sufferers to go and see these learned physicians and specialists, but not to forget to take a clean bottle of their urine with them. All those who can't make it convenient to call and see them during their stay should address Dr.G. F. Theel, 5:38 North Fourth street, Phila-F. G. F. Theel, 538 North Fourth street, Phila-
