WILKES BOOTH'S END.

A Diary of His Last Days and Last A Diary of His Last Days and Last Thoughts—An Interesting Document.
The department of justice has in its possession the diary which was found in John Wilkes Booth's pocket when he was killed. From it the following extract has just been made public:
"APRIL 14—Friday, the Ides.—Until today nothing was according to fear following

"APRIL 14—Friday, the Idea.—Until today nothing was ever thought of sacrificing to our country's wrongs. For six months
we have worked to capture, but our cause being almost lost something decisive and greater must be done. But its failure was owing to others, who did not strike for their country with a heart. I struck boldly and not as the papers say. I fwalked with a firm step through a thousand of his friends, was stopped, but pushed on. A colonel was at his side. I shouted sic semper before I fired. In jumping broke my leg. I passed all his pickets. Rode sixty miles that night with the bone of my leg tearing the flesh at every jump. I can never repent it. Though we hated to kill,
our country owed all our troubles to him,
and God simply made me the instrument
of his punishment.

"The country is not what it was. This forced union is not what I have loved. I

"The country is not what it was. This forced union is not what I have loved. I care not what becomes of me. I have ro desire to outlive my country. The night before the deed I wrote a long article and left it for one of the editors of the National Intelligencer, in which I fully set out our reasons for our proceedings. He or the South."

reasons for our proceedings. He or the South."

FRIDAY, 21.—" After being hunted like a dog through swamps, woods, and last night being chased till I was forced to return, wet, cold and starving, with every man's hand against me, I am here in despair; and for why? For doing what Brutus was honored for, what made Tell a hero; and yet I, for striking down a greater tyrant than they ever knew, am looked upon as a common cut-throat. My act was purer than either of theirs. One hoped to be great himself; the other had not only his country's but his own wrongs to avenge. I hoped for no gain. I knew no private wrong. I struck for my country, and that alone—a country ground beneath this tyrany—and prayed for this end. And yet, now behold the cold hand they extend to me.

"God cannot pardon me if I have done wrong. Yet I cannot see any wrong, except in serving a degenerate people. The little, the very little, I left behind to clear my name the government will not allow to be printed. So ends all. For my countries I have given up all that makes life try I have given up all that makes life sweet and holy, brought mysery upon my family, and am sure there is no pardon in the heavens for me since man condemns me so.

"I have only heard what has been done (except what I did myself), and it fills me with horror. God try and forgive me, and bless my mother. To-night I will once more try the river with the intention to cross, though I have a greater desire and almost a mind to return to Washington and in a measure clear my name, which I almost a mind to return to Washington and in a measure clear my name, which I feel I can do. I do not repent the blow I struck. I may before my God, but not to man. I think I have done well, though I am abandoned, with the curse of Cain upon me, when, if the world knew my heart, that one blow would have made me great, though I did desire no greatness.

"To-night I try to escape these bloodhounds once more. Who can read his fate? God's will be done. I have too great a soul to die like a criminal. Oh.

nate? God's will be done. I have too great a soul to die like a criminal. Oh, may He, may He, spare me that, and let me die bravely. I bless the entire world. I have never hated or wronged any one. This last was not a wrong, unless God deems it so, and it is with Him to damn or bless me. "And for this brave boy Harold with me, who often prays (yes, before and since) with a true and sincere heart—was it crime in him! If so, why can be pray the same? I do not wish to shed a drop of blood, but I must fight the course. 'Tis all that's left

These are the last words in the diary, and probably the last be ever wrote, as he was shot very shortly afterward.

"I wonder how it is that Lawrence Barrett always keeps his voice so clear and resonant?"
"Why I suppose, like every other sensible man, he keeps a supply of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrap.
Rheumatism had had hold of me for two or three years. I tried Salvation Oil: it quickly gave me relief, and I have not had it since.

Poor Humanity!

The common lot is one of sorrow say-at least the pessimists, they who look at the worst ide. Certainly what would otherwise be bright existence, is noten shadowed by some allment that overhangs it like a pall, obscur-ing perpetually the radiance that else would common one, is nervousness, or in other words, weakness of the nervousness, or in other words, weakness of the nervous system, a condition only irremediable where inefficient or improper means are taken to relieve it. The concurrent experience of nervous people who have persistently used Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is, that it conquers entirely supersensitiveness of the nervousness. light the path. Such an ailment, and a very that it conquers entirely supersensitiveness of the nerves, as well as diseases—so called—which are invited and sustained by their chronic weakness. As the nerves gain stamina from the great tonic the trouble disappears. Use the Bitters for malaria, rheumatism, biliousness and kidney troubles.

The usual treatment of catarrh is very un satisfactory, as thousands of despairing patients can testify. A trustworthy medical writer says: •• Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but most of the remedies in general to success, but most of the remedies in general use by physicians afford but temporary benefit. A cure cannot be expected from snuffs, gow-ders, douches and washes." Relief Instantaneous—Curos Rapid, Radical and Permanent.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, one or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and injures the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charistans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RaDical Curke has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell and taste, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver, and kidneys.

Mr. J. C. Jones, city marshal of Fulton, Arkansas, writes: "About ten years ago I contracted a severe case of blood poison. The leading physicians of the city were called in, and they prescribed medicine after medicine, which I took without affording me any relief. I also tried mercurial and potash remedies, with the same unsuccessful result, but which brought on an attack of mercurial rheumatism that made my life one of untold agony. After suffering four months, I gave up all former remedies and commenced taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) After taking several bottles, I was entirely cured and able to resume work. I consider Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) the greatest medicine for blood poisoning to-day on the market."

INHERITED SCROFULA.

Switch Specific (S. S. S.) cured my little boy of hereditary scrotula, which broke out all over his face. For a year he had suffered, and I had given up all hopes of his recovery, when at length I was induced to use S. S. S. After using a few bottles he was entirely cured. Not a symptom now remains of the disease. This was three years ago.
