A WEDDING AT COLUMBIA.

MISS JEAN M'CLUNG STRICKLER KAUFFMAN JOINED TO S. W. M'CUEN.

The Ceremony Performed In St. Paul's Episcopal Church Before a Large Assembly—A Reception at Night.

COLUMBIA, Jan. 8.—One of the most brilliant weddings that ever occurred in Columbia was the marriage last evening of Miss Jean McClung Strickler Kauffman, daughter of Hon. C. S. Kauffman, to S. W. McCuen, of Oil City, Pa. The marriage took place at St. Paul's P. E. church, on Locust street, and the ceremony was performed according to the simple rites of the Episcopal church service by the rector, Rev. Francis J. Clay Moran, B. D.

The wedding party entered the church at 8 o'clock to the strains of the beautiful wedding hymn, "The voice that breaths over Eden," sung by the choristers. After the choristers came the ushers separating at the foot of the chancel, forming two lines through which the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, and her attendants entered the chancel where they grouped artistically.

The bride was met at the chancel rail by the groom, attended by his best man and was given away by her father. At the close of the service the bridal party marched down the aisle to the joyous strains of the Lohengrin wedding march.

The bride wore an exquisite gown of satin regures-en-train, trimmed with Duchesse lace, with diamond ornaments, the gift of the groom. The veil was of tulle festooned with pearl pins. The maids of honor, Miss Catherine Belleville Ely, of Trenton, N. J., wore a gown of white crepe, and Miss Patterson, of Westfield, N. Y., wore a Worth gown of white poplin with corsage of pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Nell McCuen, of Oil City, sister of the groom; Miss Rabe Schryar, of Milton, Pa.; Miss Edith B. Kauffman, Mechanicsburg, Pa.; Miss Bell Young, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Effie Detwiler, Miss Elizabeth McCorkle Fitzgerald, Miss Anna Weatherby Parry and Miss Thomas A. Welsh, of Columbia, all wearing short gowns of white crepe and carrying hats filled with flowers. The best man was Mr. Charles R. Lamberton, of Oil City, and the ushers were Messrs. Willard Schide, Harry J. Beers, jr., C. J. McClintock, of Oil City; Martin Carey, Buffalo, N. Y.; George W. Darr, Pittsburg; John S. Willson, Columbia; Bruner Kauffman, Philadelphia; W. S. McCuen, Oil City; E. V. Sheldon, Oil City. A special feature of the occasion was the presence of the two lovely little children, Helen Jean and James Lee Kauffman, aged five and four years, and niece and nephew of the bride. Helen wore a Kate Greenaway gown of white India silk and Master Lee a sailor suit of white surah silk. The little couple carried baskets of rosas which they strewed before the bride as she left the church.

After the services at the church the bridal party were entertained at the home of the bride's father, on Chestnut street. The bride received many handsome and valuable gifts. Mr. and Mrs. McCuen left during the night for a wedding trip to New York and points East.

The marriage ceremony was witnessed by a large number of the society people of this and other towns. Among the most prominent guests were ex-Senator J. W. Lee, of Franklin; General J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon; H. H. Houston, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Ash, Oil City; Miss Muhlenberg, Lancaster; Miss Tresbin, St. Paul; Mrs. Elizabeth Kauffman, Mechanicsburg; R. W. Oswald, Bloomsburg; Judge and Mrs. Finletter, Philadelphia; J. M. W. Geist, of Lancaster, and Senator Watres, of Scranton.

The altar, chancel, window recess and other parts of the church were decorated in a beautiful manner with palms, ferns and other choice flowers. A floral monogram, "K. and M.," was a conspicuous part of the handsome decorations.

The anthem "O Perfect Love" by the choir boys was very finely rendered. The music of this anthem was composed expressly for the marriage of H. R. H. Princess Louise of Wales to the Earl of Fife, and this was the second occasion upon which it has been sung in this country. The recessional, "Faithful and True We Lead You Forth," was also well rendered. After the wedding the choristers were entertained at the Davis restaurant, where a fine banquet had been prepared by the instructions of the bride, at her expense.

Officers Installed.

The board of underwriters elected the following officers last evening: President, A. J. Kauffman; vice president, A. C. Bruner; secretary, F. X. Ziegler; treasurer, M. S. Shuman; executive committee Jacob Sneath, H. A. Fondersmith, H. S. Hershey, W. H. Moore.

A special session of the Select Castle of Knights of Mystic Chain will be held this evening for the purpose of conferring the mark degree on past officers.

Messrs. Stevenson, Bennett and Forry, of councils, with Solicitor Kauffman, went to Philadelphia this morning to confer with the P. R. R. officials in reference to an overhead bridge over their tracks at this place.

A new siding will be erected on the P. R. R. from Marietta to Shocks.

Children Start a Horse.

This morning Amos A. Shaeffer, liquor dealer on North Duke street opposite the court house, was delivering goods with his horse hitched to the light wagon which he uses for that purpose. He left the horse standing in front of Gunzenhauser's Seventh Ward hotel, on Rockland street. A number of children passed on their way to school, which is located on that street. Some of them were inclined to be mischievous and they struck Shaeffer's horse. He started to run, and as he felt good from the excitement of yesterday's fox chase, he made good time. He ran down Rockland street to Vine where he was going too fast to make the turn in time. He slipped upon the pavement and fell very heavily. The wagon was completely upset, and demijohns were scattered in every direction. One wheel and a shaft were broken from the wagon.

The Archdeaconry of Harrisburg.

The archdeaconry of Harrisburg of the Episcopal church met in St. John's P. E. church, York, last evening. The opening service was held at 7:30, when an excellent sermon was preached by Rev. T. S. Angel, of Harrisburg. This morning at 10:30 Rt. Rev. Nelson Rulison preached and this evening at 7:30 there will be a missionary meeting, which will be addressed by Dr. Langdon, of Bedford, Rev. J. Edgar Johnston, of Philadelphia, and Bishop Rulison. Among the ministers in attendance from this county are Rev. J. E. Pratt, of St. John's church; Rev. Chittenden, of Paradise; Rev. M. Karcher, Marietta, and Rev. F. J. Clay Moran, of Columbia.

A Wedding Reception.

At St. Anthony's Catholic church, yesterday morning, Miss Clara M. Sturk, of this city, and Mr. August Hirsch, of New Haven, Conn., were united in marriage by Rev. A. F. Kaul. In the evening a reception was given to the young couple at the residence of the bride's father, Adam Sturk, No. 321 East Chestnut street. A large number of guests were present and they were handsomely entertained. The presents received by the bride were many, costly and handsome.

Could Not Catch Him.

A lad entered Swope's store, at Beaver and Conestoga streets, last evening and after getting a grip on some of the goods ran away. The proprietor gave chase. He followed the thief over a square, and the few feet between the pursuer and pursued was maintained until the former shan loned the race.

Amos Albright Sent To Jail.

Amos Albright, an old offender, was arrested on Tuesday for his usual offense, drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The mayor sent him to jail for five days. Three lodgers were discharged.

Reappointed Notaries.

Jere Rife and Charles E. Long have been re-appointed notaries public by Governor Beaver. Their commissions were received at the recorder's office this morning.

Had a Small Audience.

Last evening there was a small audience in the opera house to see Odell Williams play the comedy of "The Judge." Mr. Williams played the part of Judge Felton, a fine old Southern gentleman, in capital style, and Joe Conlan, as Joe Carter, played the banjo well. The company is small, and the other people are weak. The business was enough to give the members of the company the grip.

Too Young for Court.

William Clinch and David Bryan were heard on Tuesday night by Alderman Barr on a charge of assault and battery on a young son of David Graeff. A case was made out against the defendants, but they were too young to send to court and the alderman dismissed the cases.

Death of a Colored Hod-Carrier.

Isaiah Smith, a colored hod-carrier, residing on North street, died this morning. It was first reported that he had died suddenly, and that a coroner's inquest was necessary, but that was not the case. The man had been suffering from typhoid fever for five weeks. His wife saw him about three o'clock, and when she awoke some time later, he was dead. Deceased was 21 years old and belonged to the well known family of Smith boys, who originally came from the country, but have lived in town for years.

Expelling Saloon-Keepers.

At a recent meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Nebraska, a rule was adopted prohibiting a saloon-keeper from becoming a Mason or remaining in the order if he continues in the liquor business. Under this rule three prominent members of a lodge in Lincoln have been expelled.

Messrs. Raymond & Whitcomb's California Excursions.

One more opportunity remains in January and two are offered in February to cross the continent under Messrs. Raymond & Whitcomb's guidance. California is very attractive just now. Flowers and ripening fruit take the place of the snow and ice of the East. The "rainy season" is akin to a balmy eastern spring, and is in reality the most charming part of the year. The great Raymond Hotel, at East Pasadena, is the centre of much life and gayety, thronged as it is with guests from all sections of the country. The Hotel del Coronado, at San Diego, the Arcadia, at Santa Monica, the Vendome, at San Jose, the Hotel Rafael, at San Rafael, and other resorts are also attracting a due share of attention, while the famous Palace Hotel, in San Francisco puts on a decidedly eastern appearance, as it is made the headquarters of the Raymond tourists who visit that city. All the parties go to California in magnificent vestibuled trains of Pullman palace cars, and in every train is one or more Pullman dining-cars. The second Mexico excursion party will leave Philadelphia February 10. The Mardi Gras festivities in New Orleans will take place February 18, and both the California and Mexico parties leaving Philadelphia February 10th will include the carnival in their round of pleasures. Descriptive circulars of all the trips may be obtained of Raymond & Whitcomb, 111 South Ninth street, under the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia. 1td
