NIET DOOR TO THE COURT ROUSE.

A SYBABITE. I I dared to beg a boom.

I dared to beg a boom.

White the gods good gifts were giving, would know the joy of living, would have it always June.

I will with ecstacy.

I over-bells should ring in tune;

I wanting insects should be winging ireling flight from flower to flower, areless of the passing hour: ging insects should be ding flight from flower to flower,

eless of the passing hour;
ly brooklets should be flowing,
entile breezes always blowing om the hazy hush of noon ill the day drew near its ending—ill the rising of the moon,
lit the day and night was blending,
in a conch with blossoms strewn
Would I lay me down to rest,
Heedless of the coming morrow,
Thinking naught of pain or sorrow,
Not a care should thrill my breast,
E'en my slumbers should be blest;
For a lethean draught I'd borrow
From the poppies blooming round me so no evil should I fear,
E'en while dreamland's fetters bound me,
Woodland spirits would be near,
Bliss for me would never cease;
If the gods such gifts were giving,
I should know the joy of living,
I should know the joy of peace.

Waked Up Effectually. Waked Up Effectually.

A lethargic, dorraant condition of the liver is hardly to be overcome with drastic cathartics and nauseous chologogues. A gentler, pleasanter and far more effective means exists of arousing the organ when somalent. This is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, vouched for by the medical fraternity, tested by the public for many years. A resumption by the billiary organ of its secretive function, with the settivity attendant upon health, a return to biliary organ of its secretive function, with the setivity attendant upon health, a return to regularity of the bowels, and a renewal of digestion, are the no less happy and certain results of using the Bitters systematically. Its inxative effect is never painful and drenching, its tendency being rather to perpetuate regularity than to produce a copious action. Malaria, nervousness, debility, kidney troubles and neuralgia it subdues effectually.

Whatever tends to diminish strength should be removed from the system. For these weak-ening diseases of babyhood-colle, diarrhese, etc., use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup which always For functional disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels use Laxador, the safest and surest remedy that can be employed. Price only 25 cents.

The usual treatment of catarrh is very un-satisfactory, as thousands of despairing patients can testify. A trustworthy medical writersays: "Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but most of the remedies in general use by physicians afford but temporary benefit. A cure cannot be expected from snuffs, pow-ders, douches and washes." Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy which combines the important equisites of quick action, specific cur

Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh.

Relief Instantaneous—Cures Rapid, Radical and Permanent.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, one or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and injures the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and chariatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffling and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the senses of smell and taste, and neutralising the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver, and kidneys.
