The fire was discovered by a daughter of Abram Hummel about 8:15 o'clock and an alarm was at once given. The building belongs to George S. Redecker and has been unoccupied for several weeks.

The fire originated on the third story and commenced burning between the partitions. It must have been burning for the past few days as the partition on the upper side of the house is almost entirely burned out.

FIGHTING IN RIO.

Significant Action of the Warriors During the Revolt.

The steamer Henschel, from Rio de Janeiro, which arrived in New York yesterday, brings news of an encounter between soldiers in Rio de Janeiro.

It was on the evening of the 18th of December when we heard musketry and artillery firing on board. It continued for three or four hours. Captain Grimes was on shore at the time, and when he came on board he said the trouble was caused by a revolt of the Republicans against the government on the part of the second regiment of artillery.

They had raised the old imperial flag on the barracks, and many of the officers who were in the ranks of the imperial form of government had joined them. Evidently they expected other regiments would join them.

In this they were disappointed, and the other troops in the city, under the command of the Republican government officers, were at once got together and the insurrection quickly stamped out.

The streets were lined with soldiers and no one was permitted to pass in the neighborhood. The streets were closed and looked up, together with a number of leading citizens who had joined the demonstration. None of the papers were allowed to circulate.

A correspondent of Mr. C. R. Flint writes from Rio Janeiro under date of December 23: "The outlook here just now is not reassuring. Last evening parts of two regiments of artillery were ordered to the Republican flag and hoisted the old imperial flag, and it required all the other regiments, cavalry, infantry and artillery to subdue them. They fought at Sao Cristovao artillery quarter till after 12 o'clock, and one hundred of the rebels were killed and wounded before the surrender of twenty-one of the regiments. The rest were shot. None of the commissioned officers were in the unit, but all the non-commissioned officers were. The result was the total satisfaction of the soldiers with their pay.

THE COLORED VOTERS. Republican Bosses Denounced For Their Treatment of the Colored Race.

A meeting of the colored voters of the city called for Tuesday evening at Love and Charity hall was attended by about fifty colored men. The object of the meeting was stated to be a conference on the coming municipal election.

Speeches were made the tenor of which was that the Republican party has been profuse in its promises to the colored voter but very slow in keeping the promises made. The case of Joe Lebar's son, who was refused a position in the postoffice on account of his color, was cited as the latest evidence of the love of Republicans for the colored man.

Another meeting will be held on Thursday and definite action will be taken as to their intention in the coming election.

Centre Square as a Street Car Depot. EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: While city councils are arranging matters with the New York system, it wouldn't be well to compel the new management to cease from using our public square as a depot? No private individual would be allowed to surround our beautiful monument with all the paraphernalia of his business as is now being done by the various horse car companies.

Another meeting will be held on Thursday and definite action will be taken as to their intention in the coming election.

Simon Book Committed for Trial. Simon Book was heard by Alderman A. F. Donnelly on Tuesday evening on charges of feloniously entering the beer bottling establishment of George Weber, at Green and Rockland streets, and stealing several cases of beer.

Mrs. Nevins' Funeral. The funeral of Mrs. Martha J. Nevins took place this afternoon from the late residence of the deceased at Carnarvon Place, on the Columbia turnpike. Kirtland, Charles J. Snow and W. C. Hensel. The interment was made at Lancaster cemetery.

Surrendered Himself. At the last term of the quarter sessions court Samuel Shirck, of Hahnstown, was directed to pay his wife $2.50 per week for her maintenance. He was directed to give bond to comply with the court's order and went among his neighbors to secure it. He was unsuccessful, and on Tuesday afternoon he surrendered himself to the sheriff and went to jail. Mr. Shirck has failed since his prosecution, and his property will be sold by the sheriff on Saturday.

Freezing in Wyoming. Twelve to eighteen inches of snow has fallen in the western end of Wyoming recently. The snow has crusted, and, with the freezing of all the water holes, cattle, sheep and horses are suffering all over the range. An owner on Tuesday received word from his ranch that scarcely an animal that could not be fed would survive through the winter. Game has been driven from the mountains, and animals killed with the cold. Two men were frozen to death.

A Case of "C. O. D." Staley Macye's company was to have played the comedy "C. O. D." in Fulton opera house last night, but they did not show up. Some days ago a bundle of advertising paper for the troupe reached the city. On the outside of the package were the letters C. O. D., with
