PREPARING FOR A CONCERT.

THE CHORAL SOCIETY TO ENGAGE A QUAR-TETTE OF NEW YORK YOCALISTS.

Charles P. Wilson, a Reading & Colum in Official, Marries Miss Emily Meyer, of Lebanon, Thursday.

COLUMBIA, Jan. 17 .- The Choral society held a meeting last evening in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church and de-sided to give a grand concert in the opera bouse on Friday evening, February 14.
The society is composed of about fifty of the most prominent young ladies and gentlemen, and their first concert is still remembered as of a high order. On this remembered as of a high order. On this occasion four celebrated vocal artists from New York will be engaged to assist. The quartette will be Mr. Wm. Courtney, tenor: Mr. Perry Averille, basso; Miss Haitie Clapper, contralto; Madame Hallenbeck, dramatic soprano. This quartette have been singing before the most select audiences of the large cities and the musical treat will be of a high order.

uel Hogentogler, brakeman on crow No. 22, of the P. R. R., was coupling cars in the yards last night, and had his right arm painfully squeezed. The injury is not serious, and will keep him off duty for a short time. The oyster supper in Trinity Reformed church last night was a decided success, and will be continued to-night. Arthur Zinn was sued by his step-father, Peter Goverver, living on Lawrence street, for assault and battery. He had a hearing last night before Squire Solly and gave ball for $200 for trial at court. Caarles P. Wilson, assistant trainmast r on the Reading & Columbia railroad, was married yesterday in Lebanon, to Miss Emily Meyer, of that city. The wedding was attended by only the family and their immediate friends. An unfortunate feature of the pleasant occasion was the absence of the groom's family, caused by the la grippe. Superintendent Wilson and other members of his family have been keep in doors for several days past.

John Watson has accepted a position with L. W. May and will succeed F. G. Johns, who will become manager of W. A. King's branch store in Lancaster. The Aurora social club will attend a grand ball in Reading to be given by the Order of the Goats."

The Pennsylvania Railroad company has purchased all the property of the Reading reliroad company lying west of their tracks on Front street. This includes the coal schutes, wharves and approaches. The in-formation, though lacking details, comes from a P. R. R official from this place.

The viewers to assess damages caused by the proposed opening of Prospect street filed their report this afternoon, awarding by county. The following to be paid by county: Anthony Lump, $50; Henry Nickel, $200; August Liebach, $135; George Walter, $150; An-thony Lump, $50; Stephen Yeager, $75; Anthony Klose, $150; John Speidel, $150; Anthony Renner, $60; Course Reineer, $125; Jacob Benner, $60; Courad Reinser, $125; Mary Eireman, $225; Joseph Erline, $200

ments and necessities of the nighborhood do not require immediate opening, except between Manor and St. Joseph street, which part is recommended to be opened.

Martin Snyder, formerly of Lancaster, and now proprietor of the Washington hotel, Manheim, had a live coon which has figured quite prominently in the Republi-can parades. On Tuesday night the animal made his escape, the chain by which he
