Contramia, Jan. 25.-The remains of less E. McManus, who was killed on the fouth Amboy division of the P. R. R. on Phirwing night, will be brought to town this afternoon at 245 o'clock. The fur.oral arrangements will be made after the rearrangements will be made after the re-mains arrive. He met his death by fall-ing from a train at South Amboy Junction and was ground to pieces. A wife and young child survive. The sawmill of N. Byers & Company has closed for the winter, and the men are leaving for their homes at Williamsport.

om has been cleared of logs and all

The wreck in the west yards of the P. R. R. on Thursday evening happened in front of the C. D. office, and badly frightened the employes in the office. They ran out the back door and jumped through the win-dows. The car came near striking a semaphore signal post, and the employes hought it was going through the office. The funeral of Louis Loudenberger was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains of Louiss Reiner, daughter of Charles Reiner, will be brought from Reading on Sunday, and funeral services beld at Salem Lutherau church. The wife of Dr. C. B. Hunter came to town yesterday and gave a gold watch as security for the board bill at the Franklin use. The doctor was then released from Lancaster jail.

Squire Evans sent John Hook, a colored tramp, to jail this morning for ninety days for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. A fair sized audience witnessed "The Biack Diamond" in the opera house last

The Society of Christian Endeavor of the Prosbyterian church held a social moeting at evening at the home of P. S. Brugh, on Locust street. The programme con-sisted of music, zinging, readings and the serving of refreshments. The sgent of the Globe Brewery company has left town without paying the rent of the store room or for painting the place. Company C will resume drill on Monday evening. Lutheran day of prayer for colleges will be observed at the Second street Lutheran church on Sunday. In the morning there will be a sermon on "Higher Education," and a collection for the contingent fund of Gettysburg college. The second anniversary of the consecration of St. Paul's P. E. church was observed by full service and holy communion this morning at 10:30 o'clock. There is ice a few inches thick on the basin of the Pennsylvania canal. The small boy is taking advantage of this and is enjoying the skating.

D. K. Rettew, select commander of K. of . C., has returned from a visit to lodges Johnstown, Pittsburg and other places. Last evening he gave an account of his trip at Chippeta Castle, K. O. E. He visited Johnstown and the members of lodges there expressed their gratitude for the assistance given to them by the lodges throughout the state.

York's Deputy Collector Chosen. Sam. Matt. Fridy. collector of the Ninth internal revenue district, to-day appointed thernal revenue district, to-day appointed Charles W. Myers chief deputy at York, to succeed A. G. Geesey, Democrat, who has been removed. There has been a great deal of delay in mak-ing this appointment, as there were a number of applicants and each one thought be should be subset of Ma Market he should be selected. Mr. Myers is well monded, and Mr. Fridy says he is a good man. Hart Gilbert has been appointed division deputy for Adams county.
