

ABUSED A CHILD.

JAMES CRESSWELL, OF COLUMBIA, BENT TO JAIL TO ANSWER THREE CHARGES.

Mrs. Sarah Thomas, the Prosecutor, Alleges that He Maltreated Her Family—Several Other Cases.

COLUMBIA, Feb. 3.—James Cresswell had a hearing on Saturday afternoon before Judge Sully, for felonious assault on the minor child of Mrs. Sarah Thomas, his housekeeper; also surety of the peace and disorderly conduct, preferred by Mrs. Thomas. Cresswell is a worthless fellow and has been ill-treating the family for some time past. In default of bail he was committed to jail for trial at court.

Benj. Randall was before Judge Sully for surety of the peace on Geo. Costly. He furnished $100 bail for trial. The parties are colored residents of town.

Squire Evans sent George Davis, colored, to jail for twenty days this morning for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Miller was before Squire Sully this morning for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The man was arrested on Saturday night by Officers Wittick and Schill. They were sent to jail for ten days each.

A young son of his home this morning. The boy struck on his head, and was rendered unconscious. A doctor was hurriedly summoned and attended to the boy. No bones were broken, but severe bruises were the result of the fall.

A lot of ground on Locust street, above Duane, was sold at public sale on Saturday night at the Franklin house. The ground was bought by Amos Borch for $2,000.

The funeral of Mrs. Isabella Dolan was held this morning at 9 o'clock, from St. Peter's Catholic church.

The Red and Green club will hold their annual banquet to-night at Warren's restaurant. A number of well known railroad officers will be present as guests of the club.

J. C. Stewart, in the "Fat Men's Club," will be in the opera house on Thursday night. The company should have a large audience.

Hyers Co. are making an inventory of their stock of lumber on their wharves. They estimate that they have between four and five million feet in stock. The mill was closed recently for the winter, and the firm are beginning to ship some of the lumber. When in operation the mill averages about 80,000 feet of sawed lumber daily.

Tickets are now on sale for the concert of the Franklin and Marshall Glee club on February 11th. The singers will be accorded a flattering reception in town.

AN INVESTIGATION OF THE ACTS OF A PRISON OFFICIAL FRUITLESS.

This morning the regular meeting of the board of prison inspectors was held and all the members were present. The usual number of bills were presented and approved.

Inspector J. W. Nisley was somewhat excited over the charge which was made against him the day after the last meeting of the board, when it was said that he had sold vinegar to the prison. Mr. Nisley stated that there were some other things that he wished to explain. He said he understood Undersecretary Caldwell had sold to Charles Gibson, a convict, and that Baker Eby had sold lumber to another. He also said that he understood Andrew H. Randler had given Keeper Smith a check for $5.85 to pay costs, but only $2.00 of that sum was ever paid.

After these charges were made Mr. Caldwell called to the meeting and explained that Gibson merely gave him the money to purchase the watch for him and he did so. In regard to the charge against Eby the baker testified that he merely purchased a piece of walnut wood for a prisoner, with the latter's own money, and gave it to him. In regard to the charges against Randler and Smith, the commissioners have made a reduction in Randler's bill. He paid them what they asked and gave Randler the balance. From what the solicitor stated he seems to have gotten a fee out of it also.

The explanations of the different parties seemed satisfactory. The report and on motion of Mr. Woods the investigation was dropped and the keeper was instructed to be vigilant in the enforcement of the rules in regard to sale and exchange with prisoners and officials.

A CLOSE GUESS.

F. W. Stevens Only Two Fifths of a Second From New York's Time.

A great many of the people took a guess in the New York World's contest over the exact time taken by Nellie Bly in her trip around the world. The judges have finished their work and they find that F. W. Stevens, of 123 Second avenue, New York, is the lucky man. The actual time consumed by Nellie Bly in making the trip was 72 days, 6 hours, 11 minutes and 14 seconds. Mr. Stevens' guess was just two fifths of a second more than this. His guess was made before Miss Bly had reached Chicago, on the return trip. The next nearest guesser was Thomas Halton, of New York. He put it at 72 days, 6 hours, 11 minutes and 14 seconds. More than one hundred and fifty contestants came within fifteen seconds of the time. The winner will get a trip to Europe on a first-class ocean steamer with a week's board in Paris and London each. He will also receive a check for fifty pounds which he can expend as he sees fit.

Miss Bly has decided to enter the lecture field, under the management of J. M. Hill, the well known theatrical man. She refused a number of flattering offers from different managers all over the United States. She considered Mr. Hill's offer the best.

Runaway Cars.

On Saturday evening a car runaway, which is something unusual, occurred on the Quarryville railroad on Water street. There is a very stiff grade in that street from the Stevens house to the Mulberry street bridge. At 7 o'clock Saturday a freight train was passing up the road, and near Lemon street five cars and a caboose broke loose. They ran down the road at a high rate of speed, and were not stopped until they had reached a point near the cotton mills. The cars give no one of the people along the route any warning of their coming, and it was a wonder that there was no mishap. Two brakemen who were on the cars could not control them, as the brakes would not work.

Forty Hours' Devotion.

The forty hours' devotion was opened at St. Anthony's Catholic church on Sunday morning at 7 o'clock, with a mass of exposition celebrated by Father Kaul. There were several services Sunday evening, and there will be services this evening and tomorrow evening when they will close with a procession. Several clergymen from a distance will take part in the closing exercises.

"COONEY" SCHAFFER'S TROUBLE.

A Number of Suits Against Him and His Goods to Jail.

Conrad Schaeffer, who keeps the Western hotel, has had a number of charges brought against him during the past week. On last Tuesday he was arrested by a Scotchman who was a boarder at his hotel and twice as big as himself. On Thursday night he hit his son Joseph on the head with a washboard, and whipped the hired girl. This morning he got drunk and beat his wife, threatening to shoot her with a revolver that he possessed in the air. He also had a knife and fork stuck in her hand badly cut while trying to take it from him. The result of this was more suits at Alderman McConomy's. This afternoon was the time set for the hearings of Mr. and Mrs. Schaeffer, the son Joseph and the hired girl met at McConomy's "Cooney" trial, and to talk to his wife and this engaged the son that he was about making an attack upon the job man. Officer Helas interfered, when Joe turned upon him.

After a great deal of resisting and struggling the officer, assisted by Officer Hogue, took the young man to the station house for being drunk and for his wife's imprisonment. The old man got a similar term.

The other charges against the latter were laid over for a time.

SECOND WEEK OF COMMON PLEAS.

Over One-Half of the Cases Continued or Settled.

The first week of the February common pleas court was opened at 10 o'clock to-day. Judge Patterson is presiding in the upper court room and Judge Livingston in the lower court room.

Of the 20 cases on the list, 16 were continued or settled.

In the suit of David B. Shirk vs. S. Y. Heisy and J. A. Ulrich, trading as Heisy & Ulrich, judgment by consent was entered against Ulrich for $422.55. Some time ago judgment was entered against Heisy, A. E. Heiser, for plaintiff; W. T. B. White, for defendant.

In the suit of Susan Mitchell and husband vs. Elizabeth and Samuel Bushong, Robt. McClure, guardian of minor children of Mary Ann Hunter and George Hunter, terre tenant, summons in partition, a verdict was entered in favor of plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs are interested in the estate of John Graham, deceased, who left a farm of 70 acres of land. When a petition was presented for partition the defendants objected and the case was framed. The farm will now be partitioned among the heirs, James M. Walker, for plaintiff; George Nauman for defendants.

In the estate of Henry Shelly vs. Reuben M. Koser, the rule to show cause why condemnation of defendant's property should not be set aside was made absolute.

The tavern license of Charles Cox, Fifth ward, city, was transferred to Walter Myers.

Dedication of a Dunkard Church.

The Dunkard or Old Brethren church at Ephrata was dedicated on Sunday, in the presence of a very large congregation. Preliminary services were held Saturday evening, which were conducted by Bishop Saml Harley, of Ephrata. Rev. Isaac B. Kellie, of Ephrata, and Rev. Samuel R. Zug, of Mastersville. The dedication sermon was preached on Sunday by Rev. Zug. Services will be held this, to-morrow and Wednesday evenings. On the latter evening Rev. Stoner, of Maryland, is expected to be present. The new church is a substantial one by structure 75 by 40 feet, and in accordance with the customs of this denomination is without ornamentation.

Digging For Copper.

Isaac G. Pfautz, of Litz, has for some time been digging in the hills a mile east of the town. He is searching for copper, and in the three twenty-foot holes he has made found stone and earth usually in the presence of that mineral. Encouraged by surface indications he proposes to go deeper, and will sink shafts at intervals over the eighty-five acres of land that he has leased for mining. A colored miner, who believes the project may "pan out."

Hall Insurance Officers.

The directors of the Lancaster County Mutual Hall insurance company met in the orphan's court room this morning and organized by the election of Peter S. Heist, of Litz, for president; M. D. Kendig, Manor, vice president; Dr. P. J. Roebuck, Litz, treasurer, and Johnson Miller, Litz, secretary. W. K. Hender, of Strasburg, and J. A. Stober, Shaebeck, were elected auditors.
