RESULT OF AN EXPLOSION.

THREE HUNDRED MINERS IMPRISONED IN AN ENGLISH COLLIERY.

Two Hundred Rescued and the Remainder Believed to be Beyond the Reach of the Parties Hunting Them.

LONDON, Feb. 6.--An explosion occurred today in a colliery at Abernethy, in Monmouthshire, ten miles northwest of Newport.

Three hundred miners were imprisoned, and for several hours no communication could be had with them. An opening was finally effected and at noon 200 of them had been rescued.

A number of those taken out are severely injured. Rescuing parties are still searching for those remaining in the mine. It is feared that it will be impossible to rescue them.

Forty bodies recovered. Up to four o'clock this afternoon forty bodies had been taken from the mine. Fifty miners are still imprisoned. It is not known whether they are dead or not.

Owners of the colliery estimate that 120 persons have lost their lives by the explosion. ANOTHER MINE DISASTER.

An Explosion Bursts Four Workmen and Causes Great Loss of Property.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 6.--The explosion in the Pettobone shaft of the D. L. & W. Co. late last night proved to be a more serious matter than was anticipated in the earlier dispatches.

The fire department was summoned at midnight, and an attempt was made to pump water down the shaft. There are two shafts 1,150 feet deep, and one of these is completely burned out as to its timber linings.

In order to prevent the fire attacking the coal it was necessary to flood the mine, which is a new one, and has no underground workings except the connection between the bottoms of the two shafts, which are about 400 feet apart.

The company is pouring two five inch streams down and the firemen are pouring in a heavy stream from the river, which is a half mile distant. Fortunately the wind was away from the new breaker valued at $20,000.

With the exception of the four men burned in the explosion, nobody was injured. The damage will reach many thousands dollars and months will be required to make the necessary repairs.

FOUR ROASTED TO DEATH. Fatal Outcome of Drunken Revolver Party Among Polish Miners.

In the village of Marshwood, near Colonsdale, Pa., where houses are built of blocks of ten by the Moosic Coal company for the residences of their miners and laborers, four lives have been sacrificed in a party resulting from the carelessness of drunken revellers, and ten houses were destroyed.

It was a christening at the residence of a Polish miner named Pulaski, Monday night. It was largely attended by the Poles of the community, who had gathered in from the surrounding villages.

Whisky flowed freely. A dance was inaugurated, and during the drunken frolic, a keg of dynamite was overturned, which fell on the floor and exploded.

There was no one sober enough to immediately extinguish the flames and the fire spread rapidly through the building. In a few minutes the building was in flames.

From one dwelling to another the flames leaped, and in less than ten minutes the entire block was in flames. In a few minutes the building was in flames.

REPUBLICANS REVOLT.

Business Men Want to Run a Candidate on the Platform of Free Raw Materials.

About twenty-five Republican business men who favor the admission of free raw materials have petitioned William M. Ayres, of the Thirty-second ward, Philadelphia, to become a candidate for the congressional vacancy in the Fourth district election vote for President Harrison.

The following is a copy of the request made to Mr. Ayres: PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 4, 1890.

William M. Ayres, Esq., 514 North Broad Street: Dear Sir--We, the undersigned, business men, have always in the past affiliated with the Republican party, and at the last presidential election voted for President Harrison. We now believe it would be to the interests of Philadelphia to have raw materials put on the free list, so our manufacturers could secure them at the lowest possible rate, and our workmen have more work and the public generally cheaper goods.

The death of the late Mr. William D. Kelley leaves a vacancy in the Fourth congressional district which is to be filled at the election February 13. The peculiar conditions surrounding this election offer the citizens of Philadelphia an opportunity to vote on this question aside from party prejudices.

We request you to accept the nomination for the office of inexperienced but honest efforts in favor of free raw materials, together with the fact that you have large mercantile and manufacturing interests in our city, and would be a fair and honest candidate to place the issue fairly before the voters of the district distinctive from party politics.

KILLED WITH ONE BLOW. A Negro Murdered by His Fellow Workmen at a Dance at Haddonfield, N. J.

Just beyond Haddonfield, N. J., a murder was committed on Wednesday. John Hardon and Henry Rawlins, colored men from Haddonfield, were engaged in a dance at the bank. He sat there more than an hour, and then at the suggestion of his fellow workmen, walked into Haddonfield to give himself up. He was arrested and taken to Camden, where he was held in jail.

RIOT IN A CHURCH. A Pastor's Personal Remarks Cause a General Fight.

During services in a Virginia church, last Sunday, the Rev. Joseph M. Stroker, during the reading of the scriptures, said: "There is a man in this congregation who is so mean and unfaithful to his wife that it is a wonder God does not rain down fire and brimstone upon his head and consume him."

The preacher pointed his finger towards Thomas Coleman, who occupied a seat near the front of the church. Coleman jumped to his feet to inquire if the parson meant to be personal in his remarks. No sooner was Coleman on his feet than half a dozen other members of the church were on their feet, and a general fight ensued.

Everything was in an uproar and an attempt was made to eject Coleman. Coleman resisted, and, seizing a stick of wood, he struck the pastor on the head. The pastor fell to the floor and was fatally wounded. The injured man was taken to the hospital, but he died shortly after.

AN OHIO "JAILING" CLUB. Farmers Take the Execution of the Law Into Their Own Hands.

For several months Point Township, Ohio, has suffered from an epidemic of crimes. It seemed impossible to apprehend the offenders, and the people were desperate. As a last resort it was decided to hold a public meeting. Last Thursday night over 100 of the best citizens of the township met in the school house at Spout Springs, near Chillicothe, and with Attorney Wilson and Irwin, of Greenfield, as legal advisers, formed what is, in fact, a vigilance committee. They were
