Neffeville Hunters Start One Up and

William W. Grosh, the well known fox hunter, of Neffsville, and Amos Stark had a fine hunt after a wild fox on Tuesday. They were on their way to Ironville in the morning. It was before daylight when it began raining and the men went into an old shed before reaching their destination to keep dry and await daylight. The dogs were left outside of the building and it was not long until they had started up a fox. The men were soon upon their horses and they at once started after Reynard. The chase lasted until two o'clock in the afternoon and it was very exciting, although participated in but by a few. The fox ran towards Rebrerstown, thence to Landisville and made a very crooked ate which must have been at least 30 miles in length. He was finally killed by the dogs near a farmer's house between Petersburg and Macheim. Mr. Grosh was unable to get up in time to save the animal's life. When he reached the place he found the logs all there. A woman, who was the only person at home, then showed him the fox, which she said had been killed by the dogs but a short time before.

DEATH OF JOHN ST. CLAIR.

A Native of Languager But for Many Years a Resident of Georgia. Alderman Halbach received a letter this morning announcing the death on last Thursday of John St. Clair, of Columbus, Georgia, a brother of his wife. Mr. St. Clair was in his usual good health on the day previous to his death. In the evening he was stricken with paralysis and died the next morning.

Mr. St. Clair was born in this city and was 53 years of age. He went to Columbus in 1858 to work at his trade of painting. He soon relinquished that business to accept a elerkship, which he held until the outbreak of the war. He enlisted on the Terrell Artillery and all during the war was in charge of gun No. 2, with the rank of sergeant. A Columbus paper states "that he was one of the bravest and most valiant liers who fought for the lost cause." After the war Mr. St. Clair returned to Columbus and became a member of the police force in 1887 and was on the force face then, except during three sessions of the Georgia Legislature, when he held the office of assistant door-keeper.

His funeral was largely attended and the services were conducted by Mr. Geo. J. Burns, in the absence of Futher Schlenke. His associates on the police force acted as pall-bearers.

A HEAVY FAILURE.

Shindle & Stehman, Leaf Tobacco Dealers, Confess Heavy Judgments. Shindle & Stehman, packers of leaf bacco, Mountville, failed on Wednesday evening. The members of the firm are M. G. Shindle and John B. Stehman. Until recently they were considered to be in good standing financially. A few weeks ago there were rumors of their being embarrassed. On Wednesday Judgments were entered against them for $29,800 and executions issued on them. Those who issued were the Columbia National bank for $16,100, the Mountville National bank for $7,200 and the Union National Mt. Joy bank for $6,500.

The members of the firm own the warehouse in which they stored their tobacco. It is valued at $3,000, and there were in the warshouse '81 cases of tobacco when the levy was made. This will pay the amount of the claims held by the above named

It is said that a New York tobacco man, for whom they bought leaf tobacco, will be a heavy loser.

The cause of the failure is said to be the inability of the firm to sell their stock of tobacco, which has been held for the past two years. It was bought at a high price and did not turn out well.

Its 18th Anniversary.

The 18th anniversary of Empire council, No. 120, Jr. O. U. M., will be held to-morrow evening. After the business meeting the members of the council and invited guests will go to E. C. OPERA HOUSE CHANGES. Jacobs Gives Up the Reading Academy of Music-Will Mishler Take It? II. R. Jacobs and F. F. Proctor, who leased a number of theatres in different leased a number of theatres in different parts of the country, are becoming sick of a few. Their business in some small cities was not what they expected it to be, and there are numerous reasons for it. Yes-terday Mr. Jacobs agreed to give up the Academy of Music in Reading, after the first of April next. The owners of the house have arranged to take it off his hands again. Who will manage the theatre in the future has not been decided by the owners. There has been talk that John D. Mishler, the former manager of the house and Mishler's circuit, but now with Bartholomew's horses, would come back but that is not certain. The ettizens of Reading would like to see him back in his old place and they think business would be better.
