Not One in Ten Not One in Ten Of the people you meet from day to day has perfectly pure, healthy blood. The hereditary scrotula taint afflicts the large majority of peo-ple, while many others acquire discusses from impure air, improper food and wrong indul-gences. Hence the imperative necessity for a reliable blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla which conductes avery impurity and gives the remain blood purper like from a baseparine which cradicates every impurity and gives the blood vitality and health. It cures scrofula, sait theum, humors, boils, pimples and all other affections caused by impurities or poison-ous germs in the blood. All that is asked for Hood's Sarsaparilla is that it be given a fair trial.

The Living Wonder of the Age. Ralph Bingham, the boy orator, humoris and violinist, who is said to have no equal or the American stage, will appear in the Court Honse next Tuesday evening, under the aus-pices of the Young People's Society of St. John's Lutheran church. f8-4td

PROF. C. U. HORE, DEAR SIR :- About three months ago 1 was persuaded to wear one of your Medicated Electric Abdominal Supporters, and now, after giving it a complete trial, I can say it is the best arrangement for delicate ladies to wear. I suffered with female weakness for years and all the remedies I used only gave me temporary relief, in fact some even ir-ritated what they should have cured. Since I began wearing your Supporters I can call my-self a well woman. Any one desiring further information can call on C. U. Hoke, who will give the number of my residence. feb7-ftd

Nervous Prostration. HARRISDURG, PA., June 29, 1887.-C. U. Hoke -Dear Bir: Several years ago 1 was broken down in health from nervous prostration, con-stantly having pain throughout my body. No medicine did me any good. 1 read of the good results of your Electric Belis and resolved to try one, Did so on June 30th. I can recommend them to any and all sufferers, it being the best remedy in my estimation for any and all dia-ases in the nervous system. Wishing you con-stant success, I am, Yours respectfully, Mrs. Albert Redman, 618 North Third street. Itd

The case against own was called, but they could not be found. It was learned that they had come to Lan caster, and it was generally understood that they did not wish to attend the trial. An officer was sent for them and found them, as above stated.

Funeral of Daniel D. Hess.

The funeral of Daniel D. Hess took place from his late residence, at Quarryville, this forenoon. Notwithstanding the very bad weather the attendance was very large and mong those present were members of Quarryville lodge of Odd Fellows and North Star Council of American Mechanics. The funeral services were conducted at the house by Rev. J. M. Souder, and the pallbearers were Robert Montgomery, Lewis M. Peters, Daniel Bair, Adam Keen, Henry H. Aument and James Collins. The interment was made at the Quarry ville cemetery.

A Trip to Florida. W. F. Hambright (ticket agent for the Pennsylvania railroad here) and wife will eave to-night at 7:50 to attend the railway ticket agents' convention. They will return in a week or two. The convention will be held in Jacksonville, Fla., on Tuesday. Ticket agents of the United States and Canada and Mexico will attend. The meeting is intended to complete the organization of the agents for mutual assistance in business and the promotion of sociability, with an insurance department against death, disability, or cases of necessity arising through misfortune.

Death of an Aged Woman. From the Marietta Times.

Mrs. Allen Ruby died yesterday of heart trouble. Deceased was a highly respected woman, and was a member of the Methodist church nearly all her life. Today would have been the anniversary of her 67th birthday. A husband and five children survive her, one daughter and four sons. The faneral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clok.

The Last Day For Licenses. This was the last day for persons desiring to keep hotels in this county to file their applications, and at 3 o'clock this afternoon thirteen had not been heard from by the clerk of quarter sessions. Six of these are city stands. Deputy Urban will be in the office from 8 to 9 this evening to receive those that may come in.

Henry Lossnor's Trouble Not Over. Henry Lossner was heard last night be fore Alderman Hershey, for assault and battery upon Margaret Fritz. The evidence showed that the parties had some words and Lossner tried to strike Mrs. Fritz's son. She interfered and he struck her with a knife which he had in his hand, injuring her quite severely. The case was returned to court. That of carrying concealed weapons was dismissed and the drunken and disorderly barge was settled.
