ALWAYS RIGHT.

- pon't take on so, Hiram,
 But do what you're told to do;
 It's fair to suppose that yer mother
 A heap sight more than you.
 I'll allow that sometimes her way
 Don't seem the wisset, quite;
 Butlithe casiest way,
 When she's had her say,
 Is to recken yer mother is right.
- Courted her ten long winters—
 Saw her to singin' school—
 When she went down one spell to town,
 I cried like a darned oi' fool;
 Got mad at the boys for callin',
 When I sparked her Sunday night,
 But she mid she knew
 A thing or two
- A thing or two
 An' I reckoned yer mother was right.
- I courted till I wus aging
 And she was past her prime—
 I'd have died, I guess, if she hadn't said yes
 When I popped I'r the hundredth time;
 Baid she'd never have took me
 If I hadn't stuck so tight—
 Opined that we Could never agree,
 And I reckon yer mother was right!
 —Eugene Field in Chicago News.

A Haunted House.

This body of ours has been likened to a tenement. It often has a haunted spartment—the stomach. Scared by the eldrich sprite, dyspepsia, digetion files and refuses to return. What can break the spell, what can raise the ban laid upon the unhappy organs? We answer unhesitatingly. Hostetter's Btomach Bitters, and we are warranted in the response by the recorded sestimony of myriads, covering a period of over a third of a century. A course of the Bitters, begun in any stage of the affliction, and persistently followed, will terminate in cure positive, not partial. The Bitters restores tone to the epigastric nerve, renews and purifies the julcos exuding from the cellular tissue that act upon the food digestively, expels bile from the stomach and blood, and promotes a regular habit of body. Maiaris, kidney complaint, nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia give way to this medicine. A Haunted House.

For the cure of the inflammation and congestion called "a cold in the head" there is more potency in Ely's Cream Baim than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh and hay fever. Used in the initial stages of these complaints Cream Baim prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on resord of radical cures of chronic catarrh, after all other modes of treatment have failed.

HOODS BARBAPARILLA

able Cure.

A "white swelling " is one of the very painful forms of scrofuls and most difficult to cure.
The remarkable effect of Hood's flarmsparilla in the case described below, illustrates the power of this medicine over all diseases of the blood.

"In 1887 my son, 7 years old, had a white swelling come on his right leg below the knee, which became very much swollen and painful, and contracted the muscles so that his leg was drawn up at right angles. Physicians lanced the swelling, which discharged freely, but failed to help him materially, and I considered him

A Confirmed Cripple,

I was about to take him to Chechnati for an operation, expecting his leg would have to be taken off, and began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla in order to get up his strength. The medicine woke up his appetite and soon pieces of bone were discharged from the sore. We continued with Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it seemed to be doing him so much good, and the discharge from the sore decreased, the swelling went down, the leg straightened out, and in a few months he had perfect use of his leg. He now runs everywhere, as lively as any boy, and apparently is as well as ever." John L. McMuraat, Notary Public, Ravenswood, W. Va.

MERCURIAL RHEUMATISM. Mr. J. C. Jones, city marshal of Fultos, Arkansas, writes: "About ten years ago I contracted a severe case of blood poison. The leading physicians of the city were called in, and they prescribed medicine after medicine, which I took without affording me any relief. I also tried mercurial and poisan remedies, with the same unsuccessful result, but which brought on an attack of mercurial rheumatism that made my life one of untold agony. After suffering four months, I gave up all former remedies and commenced taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) After taking several bottles, I was entirely cured and able to resume work. I consider Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) the greatest medicine for blood poisoning to-day on the market."

INHERITED SCROFULA. Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) cured my little boy of hereditary acrofula, which broke out all over his face. For a year he had suffered, and I had given up all hopes of his recovery, when at length I was induced to use S. S. S. After using a few bottles he was entirely cured. Not a symptom now remains of the disease. This was three years ago.
