HANNAH M'CARTHY DIES.

Suffers a Long Time From Dropsy. Rev. Moran Called to Annapolis. COLUMBIA, Feb. 13 .- Mrs. Hannah Mc-Carthy, living on Union street, near Fifth, died at her home yesterday afternoon, aged 40 years. Her death resulted from pneuments and dropsy after four months' illness. She was the widow of Dennis McCarthy, who was killed on the Pennsylvania railroad seven years ago, She was born in Ireland and has lived in town for many years. Two daughters survive, Miss Elien McCarthy, at home, and Sister Anna Thereas, at the Foundling asylum, New York. The funeral will take place on Sat-urday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Peter's Catholic church.

Rev. F. J. Clay Moran, rector of St. Paul's P. E. church, has been called by the bishop of Maryland to the office of arch-descon of Annapolis.

table S. Morrison has been notified the clerk of the court, under instructions from the judges, to notify borough and township constables that their election last year was for three years.

C. C. Kauffman, esq., will address the Franklin lyceum, of East Donegal township, on Thursday evening, February 20. John Reidinger, a four-year-old son of George Reidinger, living on South Fourth street, took an overdose of laudanum this morning. The bottle was standing on a sewing machine and was picked up by the boy and some of the contents swallowed. Dr. Markel was summoned and prescribed the proper antidotes.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN. William McCombs Passes Away After an Attack of La Grippe. m. McCombs died on Wednesday at his home near Drumore Centre. He had not been in good health for some time and had an attack of la grippe, which was the immediate cause of his death.

Mr. McCombs was a native of Ireland and came to this county when quite a young man; at the time of his death he was about eighty years of age. He was a shrewd, careful business man, of strict integrity, a good practical farmer and succeeded well in life. He gave all his children the adventures of a good chestical. dren the advantages of a good education, and had reason to be proud of his family, which is as follows: Mrs. Dr. Cooper, of Cleveland, Ohio; W. J. McCombs, who is a teacher in Pequea; Miss Bella, who teaches in Drumore; John, who is farming for his father; Miss Annie, a teacher of Drumore; George, who is in Philadel-phis attending a medical college, and who was formerly with John Wanamaker. He vill be buried at Chestnut Level of which shurch he was a member.

Another Freight Wreck.

At Falmouth station, which is on the Columbia branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, a wreck occurred about 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, An axle in a west-ern bound train, drawn by engine No. 1172, breke and caused eight cars to leave the rails. The trucks were torn out from each, and although they caused a great blockade, they are not broken. The south track was blocked for an hour, and it was found necessary to run the Harrisburg ac-commodation due here at 6:45, back to Midtown and down the Mount Joy track. It was over two hours late reaching Lanester. An extra train was made up at Columbia and run to this city to make conns. The north track was not cleared until four o'clock this morning.

Boys Complained Against Complaint was made yesterday before Alderman Hershey against John Lauer, Lyman White, Harry White, Harry Stevens, C. Stapf, A. Doersom, Harry Bransby, Harry Fasnacht and Ivy Dart The boys have a bouse rented on Dorwart street which they occupy as a place of meeting, and the neighbors complain that they are a nulsance, and Constable May brought suit. They will have a hearing

D. B. Case, attorney for I'lly Coble, of Marietta, issued execution late on Wednesday aftersoon against John W. Coble, merchant of Marietta, for $3,500. The udgment on which execution was issued a dated January 1, 1883, but was only enced in the prothonotary's office late on Wednesday.

Case Continued.

The hearing of Paul Hoke, of York county, charged by Henry Binkley with suberplanent, will be held on the 27th.

Defrauded a Landlord. W. W. Whitehead has given ball before lderman Halbach to answer a charge of frauding John Neff out of a board bill.

The Highes Memorial Fund.
County Superintendent Brecht has received contributions from a number of schools in the county for the Highes memorial fund. Up to Monday returns were made to him from 153 schools. The amount was $135.65, making an average of 80 cents from each school.

A Grand Rally.

Rev. Seth D. W. Smith has made arrangements for a final grand rally at his church, on Strawberry street, on Sunday evening. The money realized will be applied to the payment of the debt contracted by the purchase of a parsonage.

A Trip West.

On next Thursday evening J. H. Habecker, of Philadelphia, will lecture in the Court House on "A trip West to drive away dull care," for the benefit of Emmanuel chapel and the Choral society of St. Paul's Reformed church.

A social and literary entertainment will be held this (Thursday) evening at Emmanuel mis-sion, Cor. Pine and Walnut streets. Admission free.

The Business Men's Jubileo.

An entertainment known as "The Business Men's Jubilee," is in course of preparation by the Young People's society of 8t. John's Lutheran church, and will be presented to the public in the near future.

Corporal Tanner to Lecture.

The Veteran Union Legion has engaged Corporal Tanner to deliver a lecture in the court house on the evening of February 18, for the tenefit of its relief fund. His subject will be "The soldier's life, grave and gay." It will be Corporal Tanner's first appearance in Lancaster, and the desire to see this much-talked-of person will attract a large audience.

A Grand Concert.

The musical event of the season will certainly be the first performance in Lancaster of Ros-sini's "Stabat Mater," on a scale of magnitude sini's "Stabat Mater," on a scale of magnitude and with the accessories that will not only draw a large house, but make it a memorable occasion in the musical history of Laucaster. A large, selected and well-drilled chorus will assist in the choral work, while the soloists engaged stand in the front rank of American artists. Mr. William Courtney, the eminent tenor, whose success in England was only equaled by the sensation he created in America, will sustain the tenor colos and has charge of the quartet. In the rendition of oratorical like the quartet. In the rendition of oratorios like "Judas Maccabaeus," "Messiah," and espe-cially the "Stabat Mater," this quartet has cially the "Slabat Mater," tots quarter has earned a most enviable reputation. At the Worcester musical festival Carl Zeroahu, the veteran leader, declared that the quartet's performancs, of the "Stabat Mater" was the best he ever conducted. Miss fallenbeck and Miss O'Connell (alto of Plymouth church), are names familiar to all musicians, and figuring most familiar to all musicans, and figuring most prominently at all our great musical festivals. In a miscelfaneous programme, forming the second part of the entertainment, the quartet will be heard in their best selections, as well as in the new national hymn, "Banner of the Sea," which will be heard for the first time in Lancauter, the native house of the converger. paster, the native home of the composer.

Messrs. Raymond & Whitcomb's California Tours.

Messrs. Raymond & Whitcomb, the popular secursion managers, announce three more tours to the Pacific Coast in connection with their winter series of trips, the dates of departure being March 6, 10 and 20. Two of the parties (March 6 and 20) will go via Chicago and the Rock Island and Santa Fe lines, and the Southern Pacific company's "Sunset Route" from ern Pacific company's "Sunset Route" from the Crescent City. All three parties will travel in magnificent trains of Pulinian palacediningin magnificent trains of Pullman palace dining-cars. No greater comfort or luxury can be ob-tained in raliway travel than these superb-trains afford, and the transcontinental journey becomes in a Raymond & Whitcomb tour a most delightful experience. Many well-known names are already booked for the several trips, and the March tours promise to be among the pleasantest and most successful of the season. The closing Mexico tour is assigned for March 10. The annual sight-seeing tours to the Pacific Coast are announced for April 28. Descriptive Coast are announced for April 28. Our efforts the first year have been crowned with wonderful suc-cess. W. D. MOSSER, Prin., tridw 16 North Queen St., Lancaster, Pa. Unequalled for Service!

Ten Thousand Pieces of the Celebrated Eng-lish Varnished Tile Papers, English Washable and other Sanitary Papers.

For a number of years we have imported directly from Manchester, Eng., large involces of Paper Hangings of a quality unequalled for service and finish; and after having fully tested, we thoroughly recommend them.

They are made of a superior quality of paper and are finished to be WASHARLE when soiled. Many of the patterns are choice Tile and Natural Wood effects, and are frequently used instead of real tiles and wainscoting.

These goods are unsurpassed for Hallways,

Restaurants, Offices, Dining Rooms, Bath Rooms, Kitchens, Passage Ways, in short where ever a serviceable wall is desired. We are selling this Line of Papers at prices which make them them the most economical Wall Faper sold.
