A FATAL DOSE.

THE LAUDANUM TAKEN BY JOHN REIDINGER

He Breaths His Last on Thursday Afternoon-Rolling Mill Boys Fight With Clube-Several Sets of Harness Cut.

KILLS NIN.

COLUMBIA, Feb. 14.—John Reidinger, the young son of George Reidinger, who took a large dose of laudanum on Thursday morning, died at his home during the afternoon. Dr. C. F. Markel was summoned by the parents and did all in his power to save the suffering child, but without avail. He remained in a comatose out avail. He remained in a comatose condition until he died. This morning Deputy Coroner Hershey empanelled the following tury to hold an inquest: Z. Taylor Gable, W. F. Lockard, John S. Taylor Gable, W. F. Lockard, John S. Maxton, Geo. W. Young, S. Morrison and Chas. L. Filbert. After hearing the testimony of the parents and attending physician, the jury decided that death was due to an overdose of laudanum, taken in an accidental manner. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his parents.

The concert of the Choral society will be given in the opera house this evening and will be a fine musical entertainment. The celebrated Courtney quartette, of New York, will assist and render some fine music, especially a part of the "Stabat Mater." Mr. Bausman has spared no pains to make the concert a success

A large audience was in the opera house last night to witness the performance of the Cleveland Minstrels. The performance was one of the best ever given in the opera house, and every person was well pleased. The acting of the Japanese troupe was simply wonderful.

Two rolling mill boys indulged in a brutal fight at the Reading freight station yesterday afternoon, witnessed by a number of men. Both were badly used up, and instead of fists used clubs to batter each other. John McAllister, a Reading brakeman, compelled the boys to stop.

The January statement of the Reading relief fund shows that $504 was paid for death, $12.80 for sickness and $3 for acci-dent benefits to Reading & Columbia employes.

ington borough, had their teams at Desch's hotel last night, and Jacob Witmer, of Manor township, had his team at the Central. While the men were at the opera house some miscreant went into the stables and deliberately cut the harness. The blanket on Wertz's horse also contained several large cuts. The work was done by a sharp knife, as the harness was clean cut. The men discovered the work before they started for home, and thus prevented an ac-

"THE MAIN LINE."

After Playing to a Small House the Company Is Stranded. Last evening there was a very small audience at the opera house to see "The Main Line" as produced by Maud Harris and company. The people seemed to be pleased with the show.

To-day the members of the company are stranded in this city, and are unable to get out of town. At an early hour this morning two members left for Altoons, where they were to have appeared to night and are said to have a large advance sale of seats. All day long the remaining actors have been trying to get away, but so far they have failed. They have been telegraphing to New York for money, but it has not yet come. The company were at the P. R. R. station for three trains to-day, but they could not get off. Fast Line was the las in which they could reach Altoona in time to play to-night, but they could not make it, so they returned to their hotel. One of the actors stated this afternoon that he thinks the manager of the party has money enough to take them out of town, but he does not show it.

Funeral of C. B. Herr.

The funeral of C. B. Herr, late president of the Lancaster County bank, took place this afternoon. There was a brief funeral service at the residence of the deceased, No. 421 West Orange street. The body was then taken to the Duke street M. E. church, where Dr. S. M. Vernon, the pastor, preached the sermon. The interment was made at Woodward Hill and the pall-bearers were: W. H. Bateman, S. M. Myers, Dr. B. S. Kendig, George W. Marshall, Isaac Stirk and D. P. Bitner. The bank with which deceased was connected was closed this afternoon and the clerks attended the funeral.

Went To Harrisburg.

This afternoon the Glee club of Franklin and Marshall college, to the number of twenty people, left Lancaster for Harris-burg, where they give a concert to-night. The club will be received by a number of the leading society people of that city and the wife of Governor Beaver will be one of A Wolf Chase, From the Littz Record.

Last week George B. Kofroth, proprietor of the Sturgis house, received a prairie wolf from Kansas, which he has secured to a chain in his stable. He is of the gray species and not more than six or eight months old. He is ferocious-looking and wild. It is the intention of the owner to have a chase on the 25th inst., and he should certainly make a lively chase and an unusual contest for the dogs that undertake to attack him.

College Notes. L. T. Lampe, '90, has been elected dele-gate to the Delta Tau Delta convention to be held in New York city next week.

The Goethean poetical contest will take place to-morrow in Goethean hall. The contestants are Messrs. Griffith, S. H. Rank and A. R. Craig, and the judges are Dr. J. H. Dubbs, Prof. G. F. Mull and Rev. Dr. J. Max Hark.

The prize debate, instituted by the Glee club, will take place February 21. Invitations will be sent out, and everything done to make the affair a success.

Had His Foot Mashed.

Harry Pickel, a young man who resides at Gap, met with a painful accident at Pomeroy. He is now and has been for some time employed in a gang of repair-men, over which John Blair is foreman. While assisting to handle a lot of ties yesterday one of them fell upon his foot, smashing it terribly. The young man was taken to his home after his injuries had been attended to.

Not Fully Insured. The Doersom building, on East King street, which was on fire on Wednesday night, was not fully covered by insurance, as the newspapers stated, but the whole amount upon it is $4,000.

The Last Assembly. The last of the season's assemblies was held on Thursday evening in Eshleman's ball and remarkably well attended. The grip and other causes have affected the attendance this winter, but the brilliant throng of dancers at the last assembly made the most of it, and the music did not cease until nearly two a. m. The following ladies received: Mrs. B. Frank Eshleman, Mrs. Altick, Mrs. Dr. Rohrer, Mrs.

Another Shanty Boy.

Interesting Games of Pool.

Last evening John Hensel and Newton Levan opened a series of games of pool at the pool rooms attached to the Keystone house, on North Queen street. They played fifteen games, and of that number eleven were won by Levan. A large crowd witnessed the games, and a great deal of interest was manifested.
