in and Marshall's Club Before cores of the Frankili and Marshall Glee club to end?" That is a hard question to seaver. Last Friday night the club made in first appearance in Harrisburg before an extience of three hundred of Harrisburg's but society people. The task set before the F. & M. boys on that occasion was an extremely difficult one, when it is taken into consideration that glee clubs innumerable have visited Harrisburg, Yale, Princeton, Lafayette and Dickinson, all having song the prafece of their alma mater in that city. In the comparison of merit everybody accorded the Lancaster singers equal standing with any of the above, while not a small number of enthusiasts declared "our boys" the most successful of all the clubs in pleasing their audience. This happy result was due in great measure to the fact that the F. & M. club, in contrast to most college clubs, does not attempt le most college clubs, does not attempt world of cellege jingles and melodies for the greater part of its repertoire.

The Harrisburg audience, like that at Co-lumbia a few evenings before, was appre-ciative but cold during the rendition of the first part of the programme, only two songs receiving encores. The second half opened anapticiously with the bugle imitation and its two encores. This was considered the hit of the evening by virtue of its novelty. After the concert Mr. Irvine was requeste by a number of ladies to open a class in Harrisburg to teach the accomplishment of bugling. Mr. Greenawald has an excellent roice, and the selections at the Mandolin were well received, though they would have been more appreciated had the time been a little less ragged. The F. and M. medley was pronounced above par and Mr. Irvine's "Pullman Train" was encored four times. The stage of the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, where the concert was sung was decorated with blue and white, the F and M. colors, and potted plants from the

The most enjoyable part of the evening. and in this particular Harrisburg surpassed all other places visited by the clubs thus far, was the reception held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors, immediately after the concert by the following ladies, who had been the patronesses to the concert and their friends: Mrs. James A. Beaver, Mrs. J. Z. Gerhard, Mrs. Frances Jordan, Mrs. G. E. Kunkel, Mrs. Clarles L. Bailey, Mrs. J. W. Simonton, Mrs. Ellen N. Kreiner, Mrs. Gilbert M. McCauley, Mrs. Geo. A. Gross, Mrs. Hugh Pitcairn, Mrs. Spencer Gilbert, Mrs. Chas. A. Kunkel, Mrs. E. Z. Gross, Mrs. Chas. H. W. Simonton, Mrs. Ellen N. Kremer, Mrs. Mrs. Robt. Snodgrass, Mrs. Chas. H. Small, Mrs. Henry A. Kelker, Mrs. A. J. Herr, Mrs. Rudolph F. Kelker, Mrs. L. A. Hickok, Mrs. Geo. W. Snyder, Mrs. H. O. Witman, Mrs. W. H. Egle, Mrs. M. W. In the afternoon, upon their arrival at Harrisburg, the clubs were driven out to the state asyulu m. Here they sang to the inmates, who were gathered in the chapel, matinee of about one hour's duration. This was a queer experience for the boys. The effect upon both the singers and the auditors, will never be forgotwhen a lively college medley was sung, and on the other hand seemed to interpret a good joke in the pathos of the glees. After the reception the boys started on an extensive serenading tour. The following adies were favored: Mrs. Gilbert and Miss Anna Nauman, of Lancaster; Miss Finley, of Plainfield, N. J.; Judge Simonton and Miss Simonton, Miss Seiler, Miss Foster and Miss Wash-ington, of Philadelphia; Miss Gross and Miss Wingerd, of Greencastle; the Misses Witmer, the Misses Egle, the Misses Grittinger, of Cornwall; Mrs. and Miss Hallenger, of Philadelphia; Miss Keller and Miss Baum, of Philadelphia: the Misses Kunkel, Mrs. Bailey and Govvernor Beaver. The governor was one of the most en thusiastic auditors at the condelighted with the songs and the soulstirring way in which they were rendered.

The committee to which is due the entire success at the Harrisburg concert, financially and socially, consisted of Messrs. Harry Kelker, H. A. Gibson and Paul A. Kunkel, F. & M. '86. The clubs were accompanied by Messrs. John and Will Hagen, and O. C. Joline, at the Yeates institute.

A Brakeman Injured.

Robert McClaren, a brakeman on freight going east, met with an accident last evening, which would have caused his death had his train been running faster He was attending to a brake near the end of the train and did not notice the low end of the depot, by which he was struck. He was knocked down upon the car and for a time he was scarcely able to breathe. The train stopped shortly afterwards to put off cars at the stock yards and McClaren recovered. The man has been a brakeman for twenty-six years and it seems strange that he should be injured in the way that he was, as a man of that experience is supposed to know the overhead obstructions.

The oldest member of Empire Council No. 120, Jr. O. U. A. M., is Joseph R. Trissler. He was one of the charter members and was the first presiding officer. For seventeen years past he has held the position of treasurer. At a meeting of the council on Friday evening Mr. Trissler was presented with a large and handsome picture, the title of which was "The Spaniel and Pheasant." J. R. Shelito made the presentation speech. Mr. Trissler is well known as a dog fancier and always owns the finest stock.

An Old Pin Cushion.

Jere Vondersmith, while looking around his garret recently, came across an old relic. It is a pin cushion which was made in 1799, by an old lady named Moore. It bears the inscription in worked letters which are plain yet to-day: "Health, wealth, prosperity and joy attend the little girl or boy." The cushion was made for Henry Leonard, who died in this city a number of years ago and it was made by Mrs. Moore for him before his birth.

Sent to Jall. The only case of interest before the mayor this morning was Edward Mullen, a tramp-He was in the northern part of the city last night very drunk and noisy. The officers heard him when several squares distant. Policemen Samson and Flannard arrested in at North Queen and Lemon streets. He was sent to jail for five days.

Returned To Court. Eli Goda was heard by Alderman Halbach last evening on a charge of larceny. Gods's furniture was levied upon for rent, and after the levy the allegation is that he removed it, which offense under the law is larceny. The case was returned to court, and Goda gave ball for a hearing. Made an Assignment.

John W. Coble, merchant, and wife, of Marietta, made an assignment to-day for the benefit of creditors to Theophilus Hiestand, of the same place. An execution was issued a few days ago against Coble. The Thieves Got $1,000. The Salem, Ills., National bank was robbed Thursday night of $10,000 besides some securities. The burglars drilled through the vault door and then entered the vault and blew open the burglar-proof as and took the contents. There is no clue to the thieves.

Death of Edward Hamilton. Edward Hamilton was buried at the Vengelical church, near White Horse, on Vednesday. He was a brother of H. H. milion, a well known citizen of Gap.!

In Common Pleas Court. The jury in the suit of Carcy Bros, and Grevemyer vs. A. Hershey & Bro. re-tired to deliberate on Friday at noon and had not agreed upon a verdict up to noon

Shortly afterwards the jury agreed upon a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $323. B. Frank Eshleman and Wm. T. Brown for plaintiff; H. C. Brubsker and Geo. E. Lane for defendant.

Tom James Meets His Death In Trying to Earn $25 With the Kilrain Troupe.

Jake Kilrain and his sparring troupe exhibited at the opera house in Dallas, Tex., on Thursday. It was announced to be only a sparring and wrestling match. After some uneventful sparring by others, Tom James, of Dallas, encountered Banzia, the champion light-weight of the combination, for $25, conditioned that he (James) should stay four rounds. Banzia had it all his own way from the first. In the fourth round Banzia struck James in the neck, knocking him limp on the stage, and he was unable to rise. James was sponged and restoratives applied and the show continued, no one supposing that he was seriously hurt. When the entertainment had about concluded, Muldoon announced that James was unconscious and called for a physician. Banzia was searched for by officers, but had fied. James died at 12:30 Friday morning. Kilrain cried like a officers, but had fled. James died at 12:30 Friday morning. Kilrain cried like a child. The entire combination are held for murder. It is supposed James' neck was broken. One doctor says it was paralysis of the heart.

Banzia returned and surrendered to the officers, and the whole party appeared in court for examination.

Disinherited if Not Democratic.

The will of George Wilcox, late of West Franklin, Pa., just filed in the Bradford county court, contains some peculiar provisions. After bequeathing to his wife and children property of considerable value he leaves to his grandsons a stated amount and to his grandsons a stated amount and to his grandsons a stated amount the Democratic ticket, both state and national, and that his grandsughters marry Democrats or remain single.

Any one of them failing to comply with these requirements his or her share is to be divided equally among the others. All failing to comply, their interest in the estate is forfeited, and the entire amount is to go to the Democratic national com-

Prosecution Withdrawn. The false pretense case against D. Z. Det-wiler, of Mifflin county, preferred by Henry Binkley at Alderman Halbach's, was amicably arranged this alternoon. Friends of Detwiler paid the claims against him and all costs, and Detwiler was discharged from prison.

Charged With Surety of the Peace. John Sherff has brought a suit before Alderman McConomy against William, better known as "Toodlor," Richardson. Sherff has been frequently annoyed by Richardson, who has made threats against him.

Renewed Their Bail. F. W. Hull and Ellis Bard renewed their bail bond at Ephrata on Friday afternoon in the sum of $20,000 for their appearance for a hearing on February 25, before U. S Commissioner Kennedy.

The Mænnerchor Masquerade. The Mennerchor will give a grand masked ball in their hall on Monday evening next, and it will undoubtedly be a grand affair. A leading Philadelphia costumer will bring the costumes to Lancaster on Monday.

Liberty and the Nations. Next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the Junior Missionary society will give a charming musi-cale in Trinity chapel, of which the central cale in Trinity chapel, of which the central feature will be a character portrayal of Liberty being tendered an invitation of welcome to each of the dominant nations of the world. India, China, Russia, Mexico, the various European powers and the United States will be personified in turn, in its own native dress, and introduced by the music of its respective

The Concert To-night This evening a grand concert will be given in Fulton opera house for the benefit of St. Joseph's Catholic church. Rossini's "Stabet Mater" will be given. The rendition of this will take up three-fourths of an hour. The solo parts will be sustained by the Courtney quartet of New York city, and there will be a chorus of 125 voices. The second part of the programme will be made up of a number of miscellaneous pieces. Of Mr. William Courtney, leader of the Courtney quartet, the New York Herald speaks in the highest terms, as follows: "He sang with sweetness and delicacy several German lieder and Italean canzoine and was vigorously
