Willing, both may win while Chicago has not begun to dispair of the world's fair, and we may have all three undertakings on hand in 1892.

MAINE Philadelphians will be heard from in a gradual way when Ayres makes a strong run for Congress.

The acceptance of the dynamite cruiser has been delayed until the guns should be tested with loaded dynamite shells, a trial to which the contractors were naturally loath to subject the vessel, because any carelessness of handling or trifling defect in the guns might wreck the whole concern.

The indifferent voter had no weather excuse to-day and the heavy vote polled shows that the local contest has been short and sharp, although apparently quiet.

THE INTELLIGENCER awaits the result of the balloting for mayor with confidence that if the city knows its man a graduate of this office will again be chosen.

MRS. REBECCA WAY TAYLOR, the aged mother of the late distinguished author, traveler and diplomat, Bayard Taylor, is seriously ill at her home in Saint Square, and her recovery is doubtful, on account of her advanced age.

SIB ARTHUR SULLIVAN in an interview expressed himself rather bitter at the treatment his opera had received in America, and added that in future he will not take the trouble to secure an American copyright.

SENIOR HEARST, of California, worked on his father's farm in Missouri before he went to the Golden Gate, forty years ago. His name is to some extent suggestive of the reputation he bears as that one of the best listeners in the United States Senate.

COMPOSER MORONT, director of the opera at Smyrna, Austria, having recovered from an attack of the grip, has expressed his gratitude to Hygeia in a symphony, the melody clearly indicating the course of the malady from the first sneeze to the doctor's bill.

DOX PEDRO's nervous disease increases, and partly unhinges his mind. He lives in daily expectation of being recalled to rule Brazil, and does not realize the preparation which he has to make.

BUFFALO BILL had an interesting experience at Barcelona. As he was about to leave that city he was accosted by an envoy of the Spanish government, who asked him if he would accept a certain decoration.

CHILDREN FIGHT A DUEL. Two Boston Lads Engage in Deadly Combat For a Girl—One of Them Likely to Die.

Boston Dispatch to Philadelphia Times. Francis Cunningham, aged 8, and James Dowd, aged 7, cousins, living in the Roxbury district, last night indulged in a savage duel. The trouble was over a little girl in the neighborhood whom both boys admired. Their hostility was the one amusement of the neighborhood and thus encouraged the rivalry grew intense.

As a horse and cattle lotion Salvation Oil has proven itself an infallible remedy. It has relieved the hearty indowment of many old and well-known horsemen. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Colleges in great cities need to have their approaches guarded by gateways or monuments, which will give a strong impression of the dignity of learning.

Eastern civilization appreciated this, and built at Samarkand those huge gateways or "madresses" which stand to this day towering above the city, brilliant with glazed tiles and flashing in the sun—worthy of rank among the wonders of the world.

Many of our colleges, with sweeping open landscape around them, impress the eye at once by the natural beauty of their approaches and need many other things in the artistic line more than they do gateways, but the University of Pennsylvania would be benefited by a massive archway, and others will surely follow the building of the one now contemplated, until these arches may become as famous as the college gateways at Oxford.

Washingtonians are chuckling very audibly among themselves over the probable failure of the world's fair project which they were long ago forced to admit could not be brought to Washington and which they are therefore quite satisfied to find expiring.

WASHINGTON has a peevish, fretful, convalescence during which the recovering city seems to take particular pleasure in the discomfiture of its former rivals. But Washington has been long out of the race and is now particularly gratified because there seems to be hope that the collapse of the fair scheme, when it occurs, will clear the ground for a dash on the surplus in a bill to commemorate the discovery of America by the building of a great memorial of some kind in Washington. But Philadelphia, with Quaker thrift, is already on the ground as a rival in the memorial business, and wisely refrains from making it a memorial of Columbus or conditional upon the failure of the fair.

MEMORIALS AND THE FAIR. The story is that a meeting of great guns is to be held in Philadelphia next Saturday to boom a plan for the erection of a five-million dollar monument in Fairmount park, to mark the centennial of the establishment of the republic. Philadelphia is strong on national externalities and she sticks to them.

What does she care for Columbus and 1492—for Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain—there is no date greater than 1776 and no hero more worthy of honor than Washington, Franklin and Robert Morris. So Philadelphia and Washington will scramble for their monuments, and as the surplus is big and Congress

Wanamaker's.

Music of the Tyrol; wierd, wild, free; crystal as the song of bobolink; joyous as the shouts of the gay mountaineers. Hear it and memory never ceases to hand the echoes back. The picturesque beauty of the Alps and the swelling cadences of the song-picture live together in your thought.

There's a hint of all this, and more, in the lovely Tyrol Robes. Songs in drapery; the witchery of warbled happiness caught in the folds of a dress stuff.

These Robes are not for dull, slow-pulsed people. Out of place there, incongruous. There's life and spirit as well as music in every thread.

Plain and chere grounds, with knotted bright silk-and-wool threads forming border and broad up-and-down stripes. That's the prosy story. It suggests nothing of the bubbling, buoyant beauty of the stuffs.

Twenty-four styles and colorings, $12.50 a dress pattern.

There are handsome new comers in troops at every dress goods counter. Three at random: All-wool Melange Twills, with 2-inch stripes of lighter shade, splashed with bright colors. Six styles. And about as many more with cluster instead of splashed stripes. $1.25. Plain to match, $1.

Twilled Silk Striped Melange in a variety of new shades. 42 inches, $1.25. Cachemire Vigoureux, light weight, fine, and done in a surah twill. A new candidate for your favor. Thirteen new mixtures—grays, browns, tans, blues, and greens, 48 inch, $1. All around the Main Floor.

Women's Muslin Underwear is again a centre of special interest. Unusual value in every item. And not a bit of trash in any of the lots.

Muslin Gown, V-shaped yoke, 8 rows Hamburg insertion between plaids and heading on yoke, edge on neck and sleeves, $6. Muslin Gown, Mother Hubbard yoke with 4 rows Hamburg insertion between plaids and heading on yoke, edge on neck and sleeves, $6. Square Necked Cambric Gown, yoke and neck trimmed with Trenchon lace, $6. V-shaped Cambric Gown, yoke, trimmed with fine white Hamburg edge, exceptional value at $6. Muslin Underskirt, with wide cambric ruffle, $1.25. Long Muslin Skirt, with wide hem and 4 plaits, $6. Muslin Drawers, with cambric ruffle and 9 plaits, $6. Faintly Hand Embroidered Underskirts, $1.50. Second floor, Juniper Street side.

Oriental Laces. Four hundred pieces that we thought you'd be interested in. Cream and white on fine net and in choice patterns, 2 to 10 inches wide. Ten to sixty-five cents a yard. About a third under the regular.

Gauzes for evening wear. Filmy stuffs as if made by fairy fingers. Graceful, tasteful, and at half or third of the ruling rates.

$1.50 Imitation Crepe in cream at 50c. $1 white Satin Stripes, 50c. $1.50 Stripes with Tinsel, 50c. cream silk white pistache turquoise blue.

$1.50 Stripes with Picot Edge go to 75c. white and blue, white and yellow, white and pink, white and orange.

$1.50 White and Silver Tinsel and Cream and Gold Tinsel go to 75c. $1.25 Satin Stripes go to 75c. pink and beige, cream and milk white and coral.
