Colored Labor. John R. Lynch, the colored ex-con-gressman of Mississippi, addressed a large audiencesof his race in the Philahis Academy of Music on Thursday sight, and among other forcible resould be given to mechanical indus-" as all negroes cannot be lawyers, lectors, preachers and barbers." He he feared that the force of his argument ald be weakened as all seem to be would be weakened as an be waiters, and they easily excel in that profession.

There is a good deal in this observa-f Mr. Lynch, and if the colored people of the South were given industrial training the race problem would be made much more easy of solution. Their labor needs to be diversified. There are too many ordinary laborers, and those who have ambition to seek another kind of employment usually aim at the "pro-fessions" referred to. Industrial train-ing is becoming the hobby of those who are constantly seeking with admirable energy to improve the system and extend the scope of education, and it is a very wholesome reaction from the tendency to excessive mental cramming by which we en-deavor to give school children mand of oppressive masses of dry fact, exhausting their youthful energy and unfitting them for active life. As the education of the colored people of the South is now claim-ing the attention of thoughtful men, the experience of Northern public schools should be there applied and industrial training should be first attempted. Every citizen should know how to read and write, but it is even more important that every citizen should be taught how to make the most of his capacities as a bread winner. Some educated men lack intelligence, and some illiterate people show strong common sense and quick comprehension. The illiterate peasantry of some parts of Europe are noted for intelligence, industry and thrift. The red flag mobs of European capitals are made up of people who have ot been made good citizens by education. There is a great deal of top heaviness about our educational system, and a great deal of nonsense in the talk of elevating the negro. The negro may his boot straps, even under the stimulus of education. The improvement of his

A remark of Senator Blair is attracting considerable attention from the newspapers throughout the country. This fact is mentioned because the senator has made so tiresome a hobby of the Blair educational bill that his remarks have long ceased to be quoted and it is refreshing to find him saying something of interest. The notable saying referred to is a fierce arraignment of the newspapers of the country, for neglecting to print his speech on the educational bill. The senator cannot restrain his indignation at the failure of the American press to publish to the world the facts with which he has " laid this most startling matter before the Senate."

It is rumored that some wealthy enterprising journal will employ a strong corps of readers to explore the sixtyseven pages of the Congressional Record occupied by Senator Blair's recent facts therein the papers want them by all means, and Mr. Blair has himself to blame for their failure to appear in print. Newspapers cannot publish learned and heavy essays, however great their value and the startling matter should not have been buried out of sight in long and tiresome addresses. Mr. Blair's attack upon the press is so bitter that it is in itself a startling matter, but it is in brief and interesting form and the prompt notice it is receiving is a sufficient refutation of the charges of press unfairness to him. Be interesting. nator, and you will be printed and How unhappy he now is is proved by his strange declaration that the press is in corrupt league to prevent consideration of the facts he offers, and, he adds : "I am not without evice to justify my belief that there are cles in this country at the bottom of the fell and infernal work."

Clearly, the scuator is excited. His educational scheme is proving too heavy, even for his own intellect, and he seeks healthy diversion in hunting the deadly newspaper man in the very act of prose-cuting "fell infernal work."

The German Elections.

In spite of his bid for popularity by the proposal of a Labor Congress the emperor of Germany has been beaten at the polls by the loss of fifteen seats in the Reichstag, or popular branch of the German Parliament. As there three hundred and ninety-n members of this House and the supporters of the government n overwhelming majority, this loss of afteen may not seem alarming, but there is grave significance in the fact that the Socialist vote throughout the empire has been doubled, and also in the defeat of Eugene Richter by Singer a Socialist matter tor by Singer, a Socialist candi-date. Singer recently won a libel against a paper devoted to e support of the government, but emperor used his royal prerogative tot aside the verdict and remit the therefore a direct rebuke to Emperor William and is particularly marked because of the fact that the Socialist candidate was opposed by one of the most distinguished of Germans and the leader of the Liberal pariy. It is as though James G. Blaine should ran for Congress against an un-known man on the issue that trusts are private affairs beyond public interfer-

The election of Singer gives notice to the emperor that a large majority of his subjects in that section don't consider the unjust exercise of his royal prerogative a private affair. The sensation of election day in Berlin was provided by the emperor, who seems to take particular pains to do something startling every now and then. He effectively achieved this on Thursday by suddenly ordering the garison of the city to march at once towards a neighboring town, and the wild excitement occasioned by the rapid passage through the streets of thousands of roops, horse, foot and artillery, bent upon an unknown errand, may be readily imagined. When they reached their destination the soldiers were pompously reviewed by the emperor and three generals in full uniform accompaneed by a bodyguard carrying the imperate purple standard. The troops were put through a few manœuvres and ordered back again, while the explanation was given that the proceeding was only a test of the readiness of the garrison to meet a sudden emergency.

It may strike the citizens of Berlin that the time chosen was intended as a hint that "the war lord," as William has called himself, may find the emergency on some election day when things don't go to suit him at the polls.

MINNEAPOLIS and St. Paul are to have an electric street car system operated by over-head wires hung as it is proposed to hang them in Lancaster. The company expect to spend two millions on the plant and chose this system after examining a storage battery car. The trouble with the latter seems to be the cost.

THE brakeman who warned the Pacific Express on Thursday morning and prevented it from plunging at full speed into the big freight wreck at Pomeroy, should be given credit for saving many lives by acting promptly. His act was very simple and natural under the circumstances, but there are many who can't act quickly even in great emergencies, and others who lose their heads and do the wrong thing. This man appears to have taken in the situation instantly and at once started to run back over the track swinging his lantern. The lelay of a fraction of a second might have sealed the fate of the express train, for as it was the engineer only brought it to a stop after it had plunged into the wreck.

THE Yankee is going to run locomotives along the banks of the rolling Jordan. The New England Land company of Egypt has been organized in Boston for the building of a two hundred mile railroad from Port said, at the Mediterranean entrance of the Suez canal, to Jerusalem, the Dead Sea, and by the valley of the Jordan to Damas-cus. General Butler, Senator Frye, of Maine, and other prominent men are interested in the scheme. When American locomotives go booming through Palestine there will be a great waking up of ancient

JOSEPH GILLIS BIOGAR, the eminent Irish member of Parliament, who died suddenly of heart disease on Wednesday, was famous chiefly as an obstructionist in debate. He would speak by the hour, meeting all impatient attacks with good humored but firm persistence, and when the Irish membors were few in numbers he helped to make them strong enough to command consideration by sheer stubborn obstruc-

But not even in the British Parliament did the majority try to suppress the minority, as the Republicans under Speaker Reed are trying to do in the House.

Miss Mamie Robinson, of New Orleans, cousin of Miss Celeste Stauffer, will soon a married to Mr. Louis Staenger, of New York and Paris.

DR. KNAPP, the German consul who made all the trouble between America and Germany at Samoa, has been dropped from the consular list just published by Germany.

Over one hundred thousand free tample bottles of Kemp's Baisam, we learn, were given away in this state last year. The corresponding sale on the Baisam has never been equalled or approached by any other remedy. This medicine must have great merit or the free sample would injure, rather than help the sale. If you have a congat or cold, or oven consumption, we would certainly advise a trial. The large bottles are 50c and $1.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

Rheumatism

Is believed to be caused by excess of lactic acid in the blood, owing to the failure of the kidneys and liver to properly remove it. The acid attacks the fibrous tissues, particularly in the joints, and causes the local manifestations of the dis case, pains and aches in the back and shoulders and in the joints at the knoes, ankles, hips and wrists. Thousands of people have found in Hood's Sarsaparilla a positive and permanent cure for rheumatism. This medicine, by its purifying and vitalizing action, neutralizes the acidity of the blood, and also builds up and strengthens the whole body.

Wonderful Properties "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilia and found it excellent for rheumatism and dyspepsia. I suffered for many long years, but my complete recovery is due to Hood's Sarsaparilia. I re-commend it to every one because of its won-derful properties as a blood medicine." John Kulliman, & Chatham Street, Cleveland, Ohio.

Inflammatory Rheumatism "I just want people to know that we think Hood's Sarsaparilla the best remedy for inflammatory rheumatism in the world. My husband had this terrible affection for two years and Hood's Sarsaparilla heiped him more than any thing else. I am always glad to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done." Mas. F. JAPANESE GOODS, Go to ERISMAN'S, No. 42 West King Street.

PHILADELPHIA, Friday, Feb. 21, 1800. Chine-warp printed. One of the newest effects; one of the prettiest. Surprising what pictures can be wrought by so scattered with autumn leaves that are foggy as to outline but clean cut as to beauty, $2; plain to match, $1.25.

Another: Blotched stripes

tween, $2.50; plain, $1.

Still another has the broad OUR UNEXPECTED LINEN SALE stripes peppered with dark specks, and the narrow streaks are mostly black. Color contrasts all through are peculiar; light changeable melange ground every time with stripes apple green 42 inches wide, $1.50; plain to match, $1. A Baby Coach at $18 that we never had the like of before under 21, and that is the equal of any Coach we know of outside at $23 to $25. Our special of specials-rattan body of fancy scroll work, side pockets, coil springs, flat spokes, plush upholstery, and satin parasol neatly lined. As comfortable as a Coach need be; as handsome and dashing as the fond-est mamma will be likely to care for. Richness without extravagance.

We will get up any sort of a Coach you say, and on short notice too, but not one in a hundred will care for anything better than this $18 special.

All our Baby Coaches are on the same grade relatively. Neat rattan body, satin cushion and parasol, $9; fancier body, satin upholstery, $10.50; silk plush upholstery, and satin parasol, $12.

Precisely the same Coach (a little less upholstery) that was $6 last season is $5 now. Safe, serviceable, sightly. Almost all the old styles have been dropped. Prettier, daintier work-the choice from all the leading body makers. Good judges, disinterested, say we have the finest assortment of Baby Coaches to be found in America. Basement, Thirteenth and Market streets

HIGH PRICES

WON'T TAKE.

High Prices won't take these times It's a common saying, and it's a fact too, Good prices and light values are common to these times. We've put down the prices and kept the value up. This is not common; it is customary to put down prices and quality with the prices. Not so here, Examine our Line of Suits at $10, $12, $18, $14, $15, $16 and $18 and see by comparison if such values are found elsewhere. Here everything must be Honest, Reliable and Good. It will pay you to buy Overcoats now for next winter's use. The prices are lower now than they have been for years.
