g and Machinist's Tools, Valued and a Daughter of E. B. Smith.

Columnia, Feb. 21.—A robbery was comsitted sometime during last night at the scotto of the Wilson Laundry Machine company. The thieves succeeded in securing a set of drafting tools and fine tools belessing to the employes. The entrance rus made through a window of the office, which had not been securely fastened.
The drafting tools had been in use during the day, and were lying on the table. The tobbers then visited the machine shops and part the machinist's tools. The former rece owned by the company, and the there by Edward Lilley, John Dolan and Mward Richards, employes. The loss rill be about $50.

of illness. The funeral arrangements
e not been made.

Officer Samuel Morrison, of the First ward, took his bond to Lancaster this morning to be approved by the judges for sonstable for two years. He was elected constable last year and claims that according to the law his term was for three years. At the borough election F. R. Hasselbach blican, and Robert W. Keech, Demowere candidates, and the latter was ded. Morrison will not give up the Moe, and will make an attempt to conone to be constable for two years.

Officer Morrison arrested two tramps last night for disorderly conduct. Squire they have one 3 days and the other 5 days Harry Albright and Cyrus Walker roturned from Mexico this morning, where they had been the last few months working as bricklayers.

range on Saturday afternoon.

A car jumped the track at St. Charles' farnace, yesterday afternoon, causing a slight delay to trains.

Stole a Fellow Boarder's Watch. John Buchanan and Henry Krow are fellow boarders at the house Mrs. M. R. Smith, on Ann street, and both are emn the Penn rolling mill. Yesterday Krow was at work and Buchanan was not. When the former came home he found that his eliver hunting case watch, chain and a charm had been taken from a pocket in his pantaloons. He made inquiry in the house about the missing property, but no one knew anything about it. He then suspected Krow of taking it and made complaint against him before Alderman rrier. Constable Price took the wart and found Krow at Plum and Chestmut streets, and a search of him brought out the stolen watch. He was committed for a bearing.

pointed chairman of the committee on next place of meeting and among the other ap-pointments on committees, of local interest are: A. J.Kauffman, H. Carpenter and Dr. George R. Welchans. The next meeting of the Grand Council will be held in Pittsburg in 1891.

Three Deaths in One Family. There is great cause for sorrow in the family of the late William McCoombs, of Drumore township. Last week Mr. McCoombs died, and while his burial was taking place his wife expired. At the time their son John was very ill and he died to-day. The deaths of all three was the re-sult of la grippe. John was 30 years of age and his funeral will take place on Monday, with interment at Chestnut Level. The remaining members of the family have the sympathy of the entire community in their

An Entertainment of Song.

At Louis Pfaeffle's concert garden, on Prince street, a fine entertainment is now being given each evening. There are three first-class singers and the audiences nightly are very large, including the best people of the city. Ed. Parker, the tenor singer, who is in his second week, is making a great hit with Cunard's new song "Only a Year," and his encores are numerous. Miss Sophie Carro, who is a very pretty young lady with a sweet voice, re-ceives a hearty welcome every night, which she surely merits. Miss Webb, a colored singer of ability, is also pleasing the people.

They Drew a Crowd. Between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning Officer Crawford and Sheriff Burkholder et at the corner of Vine and Duke streets. They engaged in conversation which ended in quite a row. Crawford accused the sheriff of having voted the Democratic ticket at Tuesday's election. The sheriff mied the accusation. Their vigorous guage soon drew a crowd. The disputa were at one time on the verge of pummeling each other. Crawford with clenched ast got pretty close to the sheriff, but they both concluded a mouth fight was as much as the occasion demanded. Their blood was at a temperature not differing a degree in heat from that of many Republican polilcians, who learned of the teturns from Tocoday's great battle. Sheriff Burk-tolder says that Crawford was under the influence of liquor and he intends reporting his conduct to the mayor.

Relations in Law.

The Mr. Hickey, of Altoons, who died suddenly as described in Thursday's Introducer, was not a brother-in-law of Mayor Edgerley, as stated, but a brother-in-law of his daughter-in-law.

A Carpenter injured.
Charles Dill'ch, a carpenter in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad, met with a painful accident. A twelve-inch beidge beam fell upon his foot, bruising and in fact almost crushing it. He was laken to his home at 607 St. Joseph street.

THE STEAM ENGINEERS

The STEAM ENGINEERS.

They Hold a Preliminary Meeting to Establish a Local Council.

There is a movement on foot at present to start in this city a council of the Order of Steam Engineers and on Thursday evening a preliminary meeting was held in the room of Admiral Reynolds Post. Henry G. Connor, of Philadelphia, deputy suprems chief of the American Order of Steam Engineers, and C. Glasser, of Kensington Council, No. 3, Philadelphia, were present and delivered addresses.

Candidates for membership must have had at least one year Sactive service as an engineer, and where a license is required must have one. They must also be citizens of the United States, of good health and moral character.

The temporary officers elected were as sens of the United States, of good health and moral character.

The temporary offiners elected were as follows: President, John Ursprung; vice president, Harry Shaub; secretary, Thomas Deen; treasurer, Thomas Anderson.

The object of this order is as follows: To promote a more thorough knowledge in its members of theoretical and practical steam engineering; to assist members to obtain employment; to help the sick, injured and distressed and bury the dead; to establish a widows' and orphans' fund; to help members who shall become incapacitated from following the profession, for employment suited to their affliction; to extend the license law throughout the United States; to establish schools whereby members can learn the highest branches of engineering. Another meeting will be held at the house of G. W. Simons, 435 South Prince street, Saturday evening, March 1st.

The Work of Horse Thieves The team stolen from Jonas Brubaker's barn near . Huber's school house, on Sunday night, was found a short distance south of Lititz, on the farm of Joseph Bol-linger, on Monday. The thief, it is sup-posed, feared arrest and abandoned the

On Sunday night Jacob M. Baker's horse was removed from the stable in rear of Broad street, Lititz, as well as the harness. The latter was found in pieces scattered near the stable next morning, while the horse was found at Reist's farm three miles west of Litiz. The horse is a frac-tious one and cannot be handled by any-one, and it is supposed that he ran away from the would-be thief.

On Monday night the team of Benjamin Leaman was stolen from his barn in Warwick township. It was recovered at Mt. Joy, where the thief abandoned it.

Insolvent Debtors Discharged. John Francis, Jacob Fisher, Susan Sweeney, Charlotte Dorsey, Horace P. Adams, Dan Stanley, Amos Slater and Rose Stump, were discharged from prison to-day as insolvents. They served terms for costs imposed on them in cases tried at the January quarter sessions court.

Hogs Chanced Off. David Pleam, of Intercourse, chanced off a large hog, which is said to weigh 900 pounds, last night. Between four and five hundred tickets had been sold and there was a great deal of interest manifested tickets or their numbers were The tickets or their numbers were placed in a box. It was decided that a blindfolded person should draw six tickets from a box and the last one should take the hog. This was done and the winner was Miss Ella Bowers, a prominent young lady of Gordonville. She had no idea of drawing such a monster prize, bu: merely purchased the ticket for fun. She was greatly surprised when told of her good luck, and several gentlemen offered er good prices for the big porker. After the main drawing four hogs, weighing about 150 pounds each, were chanced off and won as follows: A mos Bair, Bird-in-Hand; John M. Eckert, Christiana; John Murphy, Intercourse and William Klauss, Intercourse.

The Lititz Electric Railway. Another meeting to take some action in regard to the building of an electric railway from Lititz to Lacaster will be held on Saturday evening at the Springs hotel, in Littiz. Johnson Miller went to Philathe construction of electric roads and he will report at the meeting.

The Lititz Record says: "Many capitalists have taken an interest in the proposed electric road from this place to Lancaster and it is believed there will be no trouble to raise the required amount of money."

Wm. Proctor Prosecuted. William Wiley, who was so brutally beaten by William Proctor, on Wednesday, has entered suit against him before Alderman A. F. Donnelly. The charges brought are aggravated assault and battery and George book has also preferred a charge of disorderly conduct against Proctor. He has given bail for a hearing.

Visiting Old Friends. James H. Reigart, formerly of Lan-cister, and his wife are here on a visit to Mr. Reigart's sister, Mrs. W. P. Brinton, of South Queen street. Mr. Reigart is at pres-ent a resident of Fluvenna county, Virginia.
