TWO RAILROADERS HURT.

KENAN JOHN MELFRICH BRICKED BY A TRAIN AT VINEHOUT.

of His Logs to Crushed That Ampu-lation is Noccessary—John H. Beaver Breaks His Arm at Resement.

Dania, Peb. 24.—John Heifrich, a man on the Reading & Columbia d, met with a horrible secident on redirend, met with a horrible accident on interchy night about 12 viclock, at Vinement. The trainmen were throwing a draft of cars and Helfrich stepped to the end of a car to put on a brake. He made a misstep, falling to the ground in front of the moving train. As the cars passed over him he caught the brake rigging and held on until the train stopp M. He dragged himself from under the tr 11 and was picked as by the trainmen. He was brought to his boarding house here and his left leg was found to be so terribly crushed that amputation was necessary. Dra. Hinkle and Miffilm amputated the leg three inches below the hip. Helfrich is 27 years of age and has been in the employ of the company but two menths.

John H. Beaver, brakeman on crew No.

n H. Beaver, brakeman on crew No. the P. R. R., had bis ankle broken t night in a wreck at Rosemont. The k was caused by a broken axle and cars were wrecked. Beaver was ken to the Presbyterian hospital, Philaiphia. He is a resident of town, living a Cherry street. The third grand concert of the Mænnerchor was given in the opera bouse on Saturday evening when a large audience was present. The programme was well ren-dered and the audience highly pleased. The Law and Order society will organize nch league in town this evening. The New York Theatre company will open a week's engagement in the opera house this evening when "Our Wild Cat"

The order of Railway Conductors chanced off a gold watch on Saturday afternoon. It was drawn by G. W. Paules, who held ticket No. 462.

The management of the Daily News en-ertained their force at a removal lunch at Warren's restaurant on Saturday evening. John Walker, the young man who made sttempt on Sunday and Squire Evans caused his arrest. He was committed to ail, pending an investigation whether he subject for jail or asylum.

Officer Wittick arrested Wm. Lockard, stranger, on Sunday night, on suspicion of iltting a robbery at Gettysburg. He was sent to jail for a further hearing.

On Saturday three colored and one white man came to town and landed in Tow Hill. soon found company with several dusky maidens, and one or the crowd sent a local darkey to get rid of several watches. One of them was disposed of and on the proceeds the crowd got gloriously drunk. The gang was arrested by Officers Wittick, prrison and Schill, who committed them for disorderly conduct. The men were held for a further hearing for larceny. They gave their names as Richard Hull, John W. Grey, James J. Johnson and Charles Sawyer, colored. They were very impudent and had several pawn ets for clothing pawned in Philadelphia. Seven tramps were arrested by the local police and sent to jall by Squire Evans for

The Liffe club ended their yearly contest in a match on Saturday afternoon, and the medal was won by Martin H. Smith. An alarm of fire was caused this morning by the burning of the casting house at St. Charles furnace. The fire department was out, but not in service, as the flames were put out by the employes without much trouble.

The Injunction Was Dissolved.

Court met specially to-day to dispose of motion of City Solicitor Brown, restraining B. F. Shanb, J. V. Vondersmith, Aaron W. Wechter, David Lentz and David H. Miller from erecting an alleged frame structure in the rear of the carpet store of Shaub & Vondersmith, Nos. 18, 20 and 22 East Orange street, because it was a violation of city ordinance. The defendants put in an answer denying all the allegations of the plaintiff. The court dissolved the preliminary injunction. The case will now go to a master and testimony will be taken and reported to the court. J. L. Steinmetz and John E. Malone, appeared for the defendants and W. T. Brown for the city.

A Slight Fire.

This morning when Mrs. John B. Bissinger, of the Manor hotel, on West King street, went into the bar-room she found that there had been a slight fire during the night. Against the western wall of the bar-room there is a small electric fan which stands upon a platform. Behind it was a paper. The insulated wire connected with the fan burned through and ignited the paper. A picture above was covered With tirletan, and it was burned entirely ff. That was the only damage, although it might have been much more serious.

Tenant House Destroyed by Fire. The tenant house of Marshall Hastings, in Colerain township, was destroyed by fire on Saturday morning between 12 and 1 o'clock. The location of the house was two miles south of Kirkwood and about half a mile from the residence of Mr. Hastings. It was unoccupied since November and the fire was beyond question the work of an incendiary. The house was part log and part frame and worth about $400. It was insured.

Many Deaths in One Family.

Mrs. Elizabeth DeHart, of No. 1614 Mineral Spring road, Reading, died on Saturday, aged 86 years. This is the fifth death in the family during the past eight weeks.
