THE POSTOFFICE MATTER. alt of the Meeting Held In the Bus Besult of the Meeting Held In the Bur-gees' Office-Resolutions Beferred. COLUMNA, Feb. 25.—A meeting was held in the chief burgess' room last evening in the interest of the postoffice question. Chief Burgess Koch acted as chairman and Dr. C. F. Markel was chosen secretary. The chairman mid the meeting was called for the purpose of giving the clinens of Columbia an opportunity of publicly ex-pressing themselves and their feelings upon the outcome of a failure on their part to secure a suitable location for the post-office of the town. The chairman then read a lengthy communication, which appeared in the Dady News of February 25th, giving a history of the movement, the visit of In-spector Moore, etc., stating that it was a fair representation of the movement.

Jubiles Singers. This evening the famous Richmond colored ubiles singers will give a concert in the Court House, under the auspices of Ladies' Aid sc-dery of the First M. E. church.

THE Junior Department of the Y. M. C. A. will hold an entertainment in their room on Guesday evening, March 11.

Tuesday evening, March 11. His Eyesight Saved. Joseph Rickert, No. 60 North Thirtsenth street, Rending, Fa., has a little son sity years old who has suffered terribly with an awful affliction of the eyes. His eyes watered con-tinually, and were so weak that for the last three years he was competied to wear a ban-dage over them at all times to keep out the light. After wearing Hoke's Belt aix weeks he could dispense with the bandage. The boy's mother, some years ago, sufferel with a simi-lar affliction, and lost the sight of one eye. This considered a most wonderful result brought about by Hoke's belt. Itd The following preamble and resolutions The following preamble and resolutions were then presented: WHEREAS, The great majority of busi-ness men and citizens of Columbia having prayed the government by their petition and all other fair means at their command for most reasonable and necessary requi-site, which request has been ignored and denied them; therefore, be it Resolved, That the pairons of this office do very keenly feel the sting of what we deem unfair, unjust and a great disappoint-ment.

No More Nervous Span

Williami Nicom, 140 Penn street, Norristown, Pa., was subject to nervous spasms frequently. Three months ago he applied Hoke's Electric Belt, and from the day he put it on has not had the slightest attack of spasms. THE Fulton Bocial club's package party will be held in the Heinlish building to-morrow evening. There will be plenty of entertainment.

An Old Goose.

Geese, likes mules, live to be very old, but probably the oldest one in this county if not in the state, is owned by John Slasn, who resides at Chestnut Hill. Th fowl is a gander, and Mr. Slusman knows to a certainty that he is twenty-four years of age. The old gentleman seems to stand his age well, and for three years past he has been voting with great regu-larity for Constable Christ Kline. He is to chew grass with the youngsters and is perfectly happy. Mr. Slusman has another goose, which is eleven years old, and he intends keeping them until they die, in order to see how old they will get.

Two Fox Chases Next Week.

On Thursday of next week George N. Worst, proprietor of the Leaman Place hotel, will hold a fox chase. On Friday Brisbine Skiles, the veteran bunter of Gap, will hold his chase. At present Mr. Skiles as twenty-one foxes in his possession. As both of these chases are on the line of the railroad, and are easy of access, many Lancaster people will attend.

A Commissary Robbed. This morning a telegram was received by Chief of Police Smeltz from H. C. Druckenmiller, clerk for Riley & Keller at Conewago, that their office and commismary department had been robbed last might of a blue striped overcoat, black cheviot suit, a lot of blue shirts, and overalls, and an eighteen inch yellow valise. The officers were notified by the chief to be on the lookout for the parties who are supposed to be tramps.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.

Edwin Clark Dies After An Illuess of Several Months. Another well known citizen of Lancaster has passed away. Edward Clark died on Thursday evening at the home of his son-in-law, L. B. Herr, at No. 128 North Lime street. His health had been failing for some time past. He contracted a severe cold in the fall and this led to heart and ung troule, which caused his death.

Mr. Clark was born in Chester county on November 15, 4813. When young he learned the milling trade and during his life time he invented a number of improvements on mill machinery. He placed the first machine for making flour in the Pillsbury mills in Minneapolis. He also had a mill of his own at Hollidaysburg for a number of years. Fifty years ago last March he was married. Last year he and his wife celebrated their golden wedding. Mr. Clark resided rie Inds. in Lancaster for about forty years and leaves a large acquaintance and many Lou. & N friends. He was a brother of the late James Clark, who lived on the Philadelphia turnpike just east of this city. Besides a wife, the deceased leaves the P. Pref. following children: Edwin, who is a wholesale dry goods merchant in New York; Mrs. Alice Hibshman, wife of Rev. Hibshman, of Tiffin, Ohio ; Mrs. Olivia R. Franke, widow of the late Edward Franke: Benjamin S. Clark, of New York; Mrs. Annie F. Herr, wife of L. B. Herr, of this city, and Mrs. Mary Gillain, wife of James Gillain, of Shamokin.

He Was Disorderly.

He recently returned to Lancaster and is again in trouble. This Reading. Leh. Nav Hestony. morning between 2 and 3 o'clock he was at P. & R N. Cent. the Pennsylvania railroad depot when Officers Samson and Glass came by. He Roples Pass. was disorderly, and when the officers told him to keep quiet he became abusive to them. They finally were obliged to lock him up. Alderman Deen gave him 5 days in jail this morning. He began abusing the officers, and the alderman increased February March the sentence to 30 days, but reduced it again, leaving it stand as before. April...

Zecher is a Good Man.

Billy Zecher, who has been in Lancaster for several months, will leave for Altoona on Monday to get his base ball club in ape for the coming season. The Philadelphia Press in speaking of him says: "'Tut' Zecher is not only a great fielding shortstop, but his stronghold is in captain-ing a club. He is a good bit on the Comiskey order in this respect, and it is pretty safe to presume that after he has the men under his control no club in the Inter-tate Learne will show better team work state League will show better team work.

Death From Consumption.

Mrs. Sallie Youtz, widow of the late George Youtz, formerly of Speed-well farms, died suddenly on Thursday morning at her residence in North Cornwall township. She was the second wife of Mr. Youtz, and before her marriage resided at Lincoln, Lancaster county.

The uppers are of gossamer calf, a fine grade of calf skin, clean, smooth and well finished, made as light as possible to give the wearer all the case and com fort of genuine Kangaroo leather. The bottom stock, heels and counters, are cut from superior oak-tanned leather the wearing quality of which is unsurpassed-the uppers are scamless. These shoes we have in Bals and Congress, and in four different widths. It's an ili-shaped foot we cannot fit perfectly from them. This is the cheapest line of Fine Dress Shoes sold in Lancaster. Like qualities have never been sold for less than $3 per pair. Examination suffices to convince the most skeptic that they are goods of
