Two Drunken Men.

Two Drunken Men. Issae Jackson, a colored man who says he has a barker shop at Willow Street, came to town to-day with B. F. Bishop, a white man. They had a good horse hitched to dog cart and both became very drunk while driving about town. They began giving exhibitions of speed at dif-ferent places. They passed up North Queen so fast that two ladies at the corner of Quenne attent parcowly second being run ange street narrowly escaped being run er. The third prize was a silver caster and Mrs. James Nimlow's icket, No. 719, got it.

Making an Inspection.

On Tuesday afternoon the water com-mittee of councils, of which Mayor Edgerley is chairman, with Mayor-elect Clark, vis-ited the city water works. The committee as a body made their last inspection and found everything in the best of condition. After partaking of a lunch the committee returned to the city.

Brovity in Speech.

Brovity in Speech. If there be anything in the idea that short apseches are the most impressive, the following personal and direct testimony respecting Hum-phreys' Family Specifics are to the point and convincing: Cresco, in. Plain Dealer. Hum-phrey's Specifics are almost as staple in the family of the editor as meat or flour. Nothing can excel their Nos. 1 and 7 for coughs, coids and sore throats. Burlington, i.e., Sourday can excel their Nos. 1 and 7 for coughs, coids and sore throats. Burlington, In., Saturday Evening Post: We are never without Humphreys' Specifics. Why 7 Their No. 10 for dyspepsia and billous stomach, and No. 16 for malaria have saved us hundreds of dollars in doctor's bills. Schenee-tady, N. Y., Gazette: We desire every member of our family to use the Specifics. They are safe, sure and economical. Hampton, Va., Home Bulletin : Thousands of our leading fami-lies are using No. 16 for malaria and No. 10 for Home Bulletin : Thousands of our leading fami-lies are using No. 16 for mutaria and No. 10 for dyspepsia. Shasta, Cal., Courier: We doctor all our friends along the coast with these Spe-cifics and find Nos. 27 and 30 infailible remedies for kidney discasse.
