EPHRATA'S FIRE.

A Hardware Warehouse Destroyed at an Early Hour sunday Morning.
At an early hour on Sunday morning the town of Ephrata was enlivened by a fire which did considerable damage, although it might have caused a great deal more. It was in the warehouse of Isase G. Sprecher & Son, extensive hardware dealers. The building was in the rear of the store aliding was in the rear of the store, allough not connected with it, and it was sed for storing goods, such as stoves, bodwork, etc.

two o'clock by the family of Albert Bow-man, whose house is near the warehouse. The firemen of the place responded very promptly and they were assisted by a large number of citizens who worked like trojans with buckets. The warehouse was troyed, but a number of buildings in the daity, which were owned by John Sel-mridge and others, were saved, although sey made very narrow escapes. The aliding was of frame, and in size 85x16 set. The loss on it will be about $500, and is insured in the Penn Township comcompany and that loss will be about $1,000.

It is not known exactly how the fire started. It is believed, however, that it originated in a pile of wood ashes in a pig sty, on the premises of Albert Bowman, which was situated next to she warehouse.
