COLUMBIA, March 18.—Abram Hogentialer and David Miller, charged with shaling poultry, were given a hearing before Squire Evans yesterday noon. #### DANDY UNIFORMS. The Iroquois Band to Be Clad in Buff and Gold. The new uniforms of the Iroquois band, which are probably the handsomest ever worn by any musical organization of this etty, are now on exhibition in the window of Henry Gerhart, on North Queen street, who manufactured the uniforms. The sterial in the uniforms is French cloth. The color of the coats is buff and they are rimmed in blue. They have gold lace upon the front connecting the buttons and on the shoulders are gold knots. The pantaloons are of light blue with white stripes down the sides. The uniform of the leader is something different from that of the men bers, as the coat is trimmed in red and the stripes on the pantaloons is of the same color. The caps are of the same material as the coats, and they are also trimmed in gold lace; across the front is the word "Iroquois" worked in gold. The band will surely present an admirable appearance when they don those beautiful clothes, and they will no doubt make a parade shortly to show the citizens how they look.

A New Order. C. H. Buckman, representing the Order of Pents, has arrived in this city and is now engaged in organizing a lodge here. Quite number have already enrolled then ager a as members, and this evening King will be held at the American house at 7:30 to take some action

LUTHERAN CHURCH TROUBLES.

The Epidemic of Religious Rows Reaches Manheim.

Rev. J. Peter, pastor of the Lutheran church at Manheim, has tendered his resignation and it is to be acted on at a church council on Monday, the 17th Inst. All Manheim is interested in the dispute.

Mr. Peter says that his resignation was due to dissatisfaction of a portion of the due to dissatisfaction of a portion of the congregation and that he had hoped to leave them united as a Christian body. The trouble seems to be over certain principles pertaining to the service. The dissatisfied believe that a change would benefit the church and say that that is their only object. Fifty-nine members signed a peti-tion for a congregational meeting to con-sider the matter, although protesting great respect for the paster. For the present Rev. Peter will centinue his ministrations

Divorced Here

From the Lebanon Times. Judge McPherson, at the September se sions of 1885, sentenced Benjamin H. Mease to pay to his wife for the support of his child, Alice Mease, the sum of one dollar per week. Security in $100 was entered to carry out the sentence.

Howard C. Shirk, esq., yesterday made a motion for revocation because the defendant secured a divorce in Lancaster with this exception: "This order to be without prejudice to any future application for support on behalf of the same child."

The Legislative Candidates. There has been a stir among the Republicans this week over the rumor that there will be several candidates for the nomination for Assembly from this city. W. W. Frankfin, the present member, wants to be his own successor in the House, and he hopes to become the candidate of the anti-Quay people. It appears, however, that he is not to have a walk-over, as the candidates so far named in opposition to him are F. B. McClain, Harry A. Schroyer and David

He Got His Brass Baud.

Charles Rindskopf, a New York drummer, on Tuesday telegraphed to a Detroit firm that he would call on Wednesday, and added as a joke that he expected to be greeted by a brass band and fireworks. The firm took the tip, hired a mud-gutter band, a boy with firecrackers and marched one hundred men to the depot, each one bearing a large placard reading "We meet Mr. Charles Rindskopf by his request." Rindskopf was dumbfounded at the reception and when the crowd called for a speech all he could say was, "This is a horse on He Got His Brass Band. all he could say was, "This is a horse on me." He is still setting up the champagne to keep from answering questions.

"Nellie Bly" To-Night.

All the indications point to a packed house for "Nellie Bly" at Fulton opera house to-night. Her wonderful trip as well as her remarkable personality invests her coming with a charm quite unique. The ladies in particular will turn out to see her. It has been so everywhere. In Pittsburg, the newspaper women of the city have decided to give a dinner in honor of the young lady, whose brilliant career is reflecting so much credit on that town where she made her first newspaper venture.

This work was done by Robrer Bro's, the florists, and shows they thoroughly understand the art of decoration. The fine weather of to-day attracted a large crowd to the store rooms, and the ladies particularly were enthusiastic in their praise of the

This mammoth store room is well worth visit, and those who have not been in it since the new building is completed will be surprised at the extent and variety of the stock, and above all, at the low prices which goods an offered. A description of the goods in stock would be almost an impossibility and will not be attempted here. As noted above, the goods must be seen to be appreciated. must be seen to be appreciated.
