SWEPT BY A LANDSLIDE.

TWO DWELLINGS AND THEIR OCCUPANTS ARE BURIED AT TROY, N. Y.

Bank of Earth Fifty Feet High Strikes the Houses, Killing Three Persons, Two Widows and a Girl.

TROY, N. Y., March 15.—At 3 o'clock this morning a landslide on the west side of Warren's Hill swept away the two-story brick residence of Patrick Canfield and demolished the one-story frame dwelling of John Lawrenson.

Four families resided in the Canfield house. Mrs. Margaret Noonan and her daughter, Mrs. Johanna Hogan, both widows, and Annie Burns, 11 years old, were killed. Mrs. John Ahearn and infant, Thomas Lawrenson and Mrs. Pat Canfield, jr., were injured, but not seriously.

The fire department was called out and the bodies of the dead were taken from the ruins.

A mass of clay and earth fifty feet deep slid down from the hillside. The progress of the slide was stayed by a new brick house on the opposite side of Haverman's avenue and against which the slide swept the ruins of the Canfield house.

Trustees Visit the Normal.

MILLERSVILLE, March 15.—On Thursday a committee of the board of trustees visited the school. It consisted of Senator A. H. Mylin, J. B. Martin and John S. Mann. They spent the day visiting class rooms and observing the work of the school.

The regular term examinations have begun, and the accompanying anxiety and nervous strain is beginning to be felt.

Aunt Lizzie, who has been matron in the ladies' building for twenty-one years, will, to the great sorrow of all the lady students, at the end of this term resign her position. Miss Jennie Thomas is to take her place.

To-morrow the first game of base ball for 1890 will be played on the school grounds. The game will take place in the afternoon, and is to be between the Normal school nine and the Lancaster Actives.

Rev. William H. Hartzler, for many years a prominent teacher in the Normal school, is at present paying his alma mater a visit.

The winter term closes on March 20. The summer term begins March 31.

The Actives to be Admitted.

This morning President Voltz, of the Interstate Base Ball League, was in Lancaster and he had a conference with Manager George Goodhart, of the Active club, William Zecher and others. It was agreed that the Active club should apply at once for admission to the League and there is no doubt that they will be admitted. Mr. Goodhart already has his team at practice in Rothweiler's hall. Mr. Voltz went to York at 11 o'clock and he will boom a club there.

He Left the Town.

Sometime ago Albert Jones, a colored man, was sued by Wm. Proctor, for false pretense. Harry Schenk, the furniture man, went Jones' bail before Alderman Halbach, and to-day Jones moved back to Newark, where he originally came from, taking his family with him. He will be sent for.

Rev. Mansell Guilty of Lying.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 14—Rev. Dr. T. B. Mansell, of the McKeesport, M. E. church, who has been on trial on charges of lying and defamation, was found guilty this morning on the first count and acquitted on the second one.

Liabilities of $40,000.

George Grossman, horse-dealer, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors to-day to Henry Baumgardner.

His lien indebtedness is $35,650, and there are other claims that are not secured.

Sued For Slander.

John A Coyle, attorney for Crescentia Dangler, living on Poplar street entered a suit for slander this afternoon against George Neumiller, a neighbor. Plaintiff charges that Neumiller circulated reports that affected her reputation, and she claims $5,000 damages.

The Neffsville Fair.

The ladies' fair at Neffsville is still in progress, and notwithstanding the very disagreeable weather the attendance has been large each evening. A great deal of interest is manifested in it by everybody, and will no doubt be a financial success.

To Be Closed.

In order to stop all uncalled for and in most cases false and malicious reports concerning the management of Maennerchor hall and hotel, the officers of the association have decided to no longer rent the hall for a Saturday night dancing school. The officers of the association would also embrace this opportunity to express their entire satisfaction with the management of the hotel by Louis Pfaeffle, the popular land lord. It

Our opening will be continued on Monday with additional floral decorations.
WILLIAMSON & FOSTER.

A Fair Opening.

The fair of the United Knights will open in the Heinitsh building, North Queen street, this evening at 7 o'clock, to continue ten days.

A New Store.

The Atlantic & Pacific Tea company have taken possession of another room on North Queen street. It is one further south than the old store, but in the same building, that of Moses Geisenberger. The room has been handsomely painted and papered and it presents a very fine appearance. It is filled with a large stock of choice Teas, Coffees, &c.

A Liberal Insurance Company.

Recent death-claims paid by the Prudential Insurance company in Lancaster: Jacob Goodman, formerly of Lancaster, who died in Reading, $122; Howard E. Reider, of 315 Concord street, $10. In the latter case the child was only insured eight weeks, which speaks volumes for the liberality of the company.

LOCAL HOUSEHOLD MARKET.

LANCASTER, March 15, 1890.

There was not a large attendance at market this morning. Eggs were made scarce early in the morning by hucksters buying them up. Dealers have been forestalling the market for months, and there does not appear to be any effort made to protect the citizens by the police officers on duty on market days.
