MON COUNCIL ORDINANCE, NO. &

A TERRIBLE MURDER.

ored Woman's Head Cut Off-H loven-Year-Old Boy Accused.

A colored Woman's Head Cut Off-Her Eleven-Year-Old Boy Accused.

A singularly atrocious murder was committed in Somerville, Tenn., on Sunday morning, the victim being Mrs. Sally Hobson, colored, and the murderer ber il-year-old boy. Mrs. Hobson with a servent in the family of the Episcopal minister, and lived with her four children in a small house in the rear of the parsonage.

Sunday morning her husband, who had been in the country at work, called at the house, in company with another negro, and, after a short stay, started out for a walk. Returning half an hour later, a terrible sight met his eye. On one side of the door key the decapitated remains of his with and several feet away the head.

A stick of wood on which her neck had been placed when the outling was done showed three distinct cuts of an axa. The boy was found playing with the other children, his cle hing saturated with blood. He at first chained that the blood came from a shieken which he had killed, but at the corener's inquest admitted that he had committed the crime. He said his mother laid her head down on the block, and told him if he did not cut her head off she would kill him. The boy's story is not believed, and he was placed in jail pending further investigation.

Frank P. Miller, manufacturer of binders and box board. Downingtown, Pa., has failed with liabilities amounting to $35,000. Efforts have been made to secure an extension of time from his creditors, but these have failed and the property is now in the hands of the sheriff. About one-half the paper is held in Downingtown.

C. H. Whitaker & Co., who owned a retail hardware store, in Toledo, Ohio, have made an assignment. The firm was one of the largest in this line of business in Northwestern Ohio and did a large business. The liabilities are $100,000; assets unknown.

We'll Suppose a Case.

You are nervous and dyspeptic, your appetite flags, your slumber 1s broken or disturbed by uneasy dreams, or you court the sleepy god in vain. What shall you do? Try an alcoholic excitant to attuulate appetite, deaden the nerves at bed time with a narcotic? Neither of these. Try Hostetter's Stomach Bluters. It will, believe us, be more than a trial. You will continue to use this justly renowned nerve in vigorant and stomachic. It is in the exigency supposed just what is wanted. It is a healthful stimulus to appetite and digestion, does not excite, but quiets the brain and nerves, is an excellent diuretic and a speedy reformer of a disordered condition of the stomach and bowels. It counteracts a tendency to rheumatism, nuitines the prostrating effects of overwork, mitigates the infirmities of age, and hastens convalencence. Persons exposed to rough weather should use it as a preventive, as should also tired students and business men. mistoms
