New York Sun. the New York Sun.
well-known politician recently gave musing secount of the diplomatic for in which James Buchanan disof office seekers and sent them away well-known who tells the story was to secretary, during the four years of aman's administration, to one of the York senators. His most intimate t was private secretary to Buchanan, a spent many hours with the presisecretary in the president's private in company with Buchanan. Bum's manner with the office seeker nvariably the same.

"Yes, sir."
"How is Mrs. Smith?"
"Very woll, thank you, Mr. Buchanan,"
"Any children, Mr. Smith?"
"Yes, sir; three."
"How are the little ones?"
"Very healthy, sir."
"Glad to hear it. Have you seen Jones tely? Yes? How is Mr. Jones?"
"In perfest health, sir."
"Ah? Do you know Mrs. Jones?"
"Yes, sir."

"Ah? Do you know Mrs. Jones?"
"Yes, sir."
"How is Mrs. Jones? Charming woman, charming. How are the little Jones "Aren?"
"Ah! Do you know Mr. Hopkins, an old friend of Mr. Jones'? Yes? Splendid man, splendid. I've held Mr. Hopkins as a warm parsonal and political friend of mine for more than twenty years. How is Mr. Hopkins?"

nine for more than twenty years. How is Mr. Hopkins?"

"Nicely, the last time I saw him."

"Do you know Mrs. Hopkins?"

"Yes, sir."

"How is Mrs. Hopkins?"

All this time Mr. Buchanan was holding Mr. Smith's hand and patting him on the shoulder, and Mr. Smith was thoroughly appy at the interest displayed in him by o great a man. Then Buchanan would ay:

so great a man. Then Buchanan would say:

"I am delighted—delighted to have met you, Mr. Smith. Any friend of my old friend Jones is welcome, and I will pay especial attention to your request, Mr. Smith. If you will leave your papers, Mr. Smith, I will look them over. "Mr. Secretary," turning to his secretary, "take Mr. Smith's papers—this is Mr. Smith, introduced by my dear friend Jones—and put his papers where I shall see them; in fact, mark them so that I shall be sure to see them. Delighted to have met you, Mr. Smith. Remember me to my old friend. Good morning, Mr. Smith." And Smith went out to make room for some other man to come in immediately after, when Buchanan would go through the same scene with him. Each man felt sure he had carried his point with the president, and neither ever heard from his papers.

It doesn't do a bit of good to take a twelve mile promenade in a fourteen foot room with the baby, and sing or declaim: "Hootchie, pootchie, pudden and pie," Use Dr. Bull; Baby Syrup and be done with it. Any druggist will sell it to you for 25 cents.

It is convenient to have always on hand some simple remedy for bowel complaint and pain in the stornach. Those affections yield readily to a few doses of Laxador. Price 25 cents. At all druggists.

Don't Go Off Before You Are Ready, Particularly on a long Journey. Be fully prepared. You couldn't be permit us to say, unless you are decompanied with the traveler's and touris's tolic lineum, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, most genial of appetizers, accilimatizers and promoters of digestion. Against sea sickness, malayz, cramps and colles begotten of badly cooked or unwholesome food and brackish water, nervousness increased by travel, chronic biliousness and constitution, the Bitters is a sovereign preventive. It imparts a relish for food not altogether to your taste, and prevents it from disagreeing with you. Never was there such a capital thing for the unfortunate dyspeptic who stands in dread of the best cooked meal. Stomachic trouble caused by ill prepared viands aboard ship, or steamboats, and rations hastily bolted at rallway restaurants, is soon remedied by the Bitters, which a quictus also to rheumatism, kidney troubles and insomnia.

Don't give up, there is a cure for catarrh and Cream Baim has entirely cured them. It is a safe and pleasant remedy. It is applied into the nostrils. It is not a liquid or snuff. It cures y cleansing and healing. Price, 50c m27-2wd
