A CHURCH WEDDING.

MISS MARY E. HERSHEY AND MR. FRANK H. STEACY MARRY AT NOON.

The Ceremony Performed In the Methodist Church By Rev. Geo. Gaul—The Groom Manager of Aurora Furnace.

COLUMBIA, April 3.—A very pretty wedding occurred in the Methodist Episcopal church of this place at noon to-day, the high contracting parties being Miss Mary E. Hershey, daughter of Mr. H. S. Hershey, of Columbia, and Mr. Frank H. Steacy, of York, manager of the Aurora furnace at Wrightsville. The officiating clergyman was Rev. George Gaul, pastor of the church. The ceremony was with the ring and in accordance with the ritual of the Methodist Episcopal church. The ushers were Messrs. W. H. Fendrich and Houston Mifflin, Columbia; Walter Myers and Robert Ault, of York. The best man was Mr. William Miller, of York, and the bridesmaid was Miss Annie B. Hershey, sister of the bride. There were a number of guests present from York, Lancaster, Marietta, Philadelphia, and other points. The newly married couple left at 12:25 p. m. for New York.

The banks and public schools will be closed on Good Friday. The churches will observe the day with special services. Services will be held in the Lutheran and Reformed churches, morning and evening. At St. Paul's P. E. church services at 10 a. m., and from 12 to 3 p. m. The Catholic churches will observe the day in the usual manner.

Jno. F. Linderberger, brakeman on shifting engine No. 1,258, had his right arm caught between two cars yesterday while coupling. The arm was bruised but not seriously.

Susan Sweeney, colored, was committed to jail this morning on the charge of robbing. Jacob Haney, living in the country, sued her before Squire Evans for stealing money from him. Haney was taken to jail as a witness.

Squire Evans sent Ann Dorsey, colored, to jail this morning for five days for being drunk and disorderly.

A slight fire happened yesterday at the house of John Stuard, caused by a cloth catching fire from the stove. The presence of mind of a daughter, who promptly threw water on the fire, prevented serious damage.

The officers of the Orion Lodge were installed last evening, and the members afterwards entertained at Warren's restaurant by E. F. Fager, a member.

The Methodist Mite society will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. John Shenberger.

William C. Fox, artist, of Harrisburg, has placed a crayon portrait of the late Thomas B. Dunbar in the show window of J. C. Pfahler's store. It is an excellent likeness of Mr. Dunbar, who was at the time of his death one of the oldest Free Masons in this section, and for many years tyler of Columbia Lodge.

On Wednesday 4,787 cars were sent east and west on the P. R. R. at this place, it being the heaviest movement for one day on record. It required 102 trains to move these cars.

Harry C. Bruner has been admitted to an interest in the coal business of his father, H. F. Bruner.

Hugh North, jr., is home from Reading for the Easter holidays.

Misses Bessie Fitzgerald and Irene Bachenheimer are home from Carlisle for the Easter festival.

Mrs. Ella Hess Weiser, of Harrisburg, is the guest of Mrs. Mary E. Hess.

Received an Ice Machine.

F. M. Teufel, proprietor of the Lion brewery, this morning received from New York a thirty-two ton ice machine, which will be used not only for manufacturing ice, but also for cooling the brewery. The water to supply the machine will be taken from a well of the best water, which is on the premises. This well was dug by Dr. Benjamin Mishler. It is very strong and at times Mr. Mishler proposed to run water from it to Centre Square to supply a fountain. On numerous occasions attempts were made to pump the water from the well with engines, but they were unsuccessful.

THE DOCTORS MEET.

Delegates Elected To The State And National Associ[ation]

[Lan]caster City [to be] held on [the] members [of the] [Black]-[Hance], [Roe]-[Mill]er, J. L., [Rohrer] T., [Livingston], [Miller], [Welchans], [Overfield], [Musser] J. H., [Craig], [Bryson], [Detwiler], [Thompson], [Kline], [Helm] and [Blackwood].

[delegates] [to the] first week in June: Doctors J. L., Rohrer T., Livingston, Miller, Welchans, Overfield, Musser J. H., Craig, Bryson, Detwiler, Thompson, Kline, Helm and Blackwood.

The following were chosen to represent the society at the meeting of the American association the first week in May at Nashville, Tenn.: Doctors Deaver, Roebuck, Zell, Hance, Craig, Ziegler J. P., Miller and Bucklus.

Interesting cases were reported by Doctors Craig, Musser, Roebuck, Miller and Deaver and discussed by all the members.

The reports presented showed that there is very little sickness prevailing.

Struck By a Pole.

John Bailey, a sixteen-year-old son of the foreman of Downey Brothers' bending works, on Harrisburg avenue, met with an accident this morning. He was shifting a belt which runs the circular saw. The pole that he was using was caught in the belting and it struck him a terrible blow in the face, cutting it very badly. Dr. M. L. Herr dressed the wound.

He Must Give the Horses Laudanum.

The will of Robert Sprott, of Pittsburg, was admitted to probate by the register of Allegheny county on Wednesday. The document is much out of the ordinary, but legal. It was written in a memorandum book in lead pencil. Among the bequests is one of two horses, Jim and Lucy, to J. R. Sprott, conditioned upon his not allowing them to be sold. "When he must part with them," the will reads, "he is to give them laudanum."

Chiefs Raised.

Last evening the chiefs of Metamora Tribe, No. 2, of Red Men, of this city, whose names have already been published in the INTELLIGENCER, were raised up by Great Senior Sagamore John M. McCully, assisted by W. G. Rapp as great junor sagamore, and Lorenzo Quigley as great prophet.

This tribe is the second oldest in the state, having been organized in 1848. It now has a membership of 160, and is worth $5,000, besides the paraphernalia. During the past six months $951 were paid out for benefits.

Broke the Tongue Off.

This morning John Speidel was driving a two-horse team, with which he was hauling bark, near the Harrisburg turnpike crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad. The horses in turning suddenly broke the tongue from the wagon.

School Board Meeting.

The Lancaster city school board will meet statedly in common council chamber this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Trustees Reappointed.

L. W. Hall and F. Asbury Awl, of Harrisburg, and James P. Wickersham, of Lancaster, have been reappointed trustees [of the state lunatic hospital at Harrisburg].

Charitable Bequest.

The will of the late Anna Maria Keller was admitted to probate this afternoon. She bequeaths $1,000 to the Grace Lutheran church, to be applied to the payment of the church debt if any, and if no debt, to be used for repairs.

A Challenge.

I challenge any medicine of any school of practice or any other appliance to produce results equal to those of Hoke's Electric Magnetic Supporters in female weakness. The above sounds big, but I mean it; there is not a remedy on earth to-day that can show the results accomplished by the use of my Electric Magnetic Appliances. C. U. Hoke, 343 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa., every Wednesday and Saturday. A lady is in attendance. If requested will call upon anyone in the city.

The Common Sense Shoe Store.

The Common Sense Shoe Store, at No. 40 East King street, was opened to-day with a big stock. A large crowd thronged the spacious store all day examining the stock, and each one was presented with a growing flower as a souvenir. About noon the crowd was so great that there was scarcely room to move about. The gentleman in charge has been in the business for many years in neighboring cities and starts in Lancaster with bright prospects.

Religious.

St. Stephen's Reformed Church: Services preparatory to the holy communion will be held in the College chapel to-morrow morning at 10:30. Sermon by Rev. Dr. E. V. Gerhart.

THE Great Atlantic and Pacific tea and coffee store (North Queen) customers are receiving a fine Easter panel picture.
