THE EASTER FESTIVAL. IT WAS OBSERVED IN THE CHURCHES ON SUNDAY.

ervices Well Attended-Fine Music and Protty Decorations-School Childron Receive Easter Presents.

The weather was all that would have desired for an Easter day. The air sel enough to be bracing, but not too for comfort. The churches were ed on this great festal day, observed er years with as much ceremony Christian denominations as the Restival Christmas. The manner in hich it was observed will be found noted

St. James' Episcopal. At SL James' Episcopal church the full faster morning service, with commu-tion, was conducted by Reva. Hooper and Shroeder, with a sermon by former on "Christ's Work former on "Christ's Work to Days in Hades," The following musical programme was a fine one and Prof. Matz: Venite, Tours; Te Deum in B. Danks; Benedictus, Wilson; Kyrie, Mendelssohn; Easter Gosper, Steiner. The cloists were G. Geiberson, Willie Reed, Daniel H. Sensenig, C. Vatter. The decorations were unusually fine. On the baptismal font, on a base of greens storwined with hyacinths and tulips, was cross of carnation roses. This floral deign was the gift of Richard Jenkins, esq., a memorial to his mother. In front of he loctern was a beautiful arch surmounted by a floral star of white and red carnation roses. This was the gift of B. Frank ian, esq., as a memorial to his decased sister. On the altar were handsome uets of flowers, the gifts of Mrs. Samuel I. Reynolds, and in the chancel were plants and palms. At 6:15 there was evening prayer and several fine musical selections. St. John's Episcopal

At SL John's Episcopal church the musical programme on Easter morning was: "Christ the Lord is Risen To-day," "Christ Our Passover," "Gloria Patris," "To Deum." Hely communion was ad-ministered and a sermon preached in the orning by Rev. J. E. Pratt on "The esurrection." In the afternoon the chil-ren's festival was held and the programme was made up principally of carols and responsive readings. In the evening the regular service was held with special ic by the choir. The decorations were sty at this church. Rising from the font, which stood in the midst of plants, was a loral and evergreen cross. The altar and shancel were decorated with calls lilies and

Trinity Lutheran.

At 6:30 o'clock, on Easter morning, there was a special service of song at Trinity Lutheran church, participated in by 200 members of the Sunday school. The ex-precises ended with scripture reading and an address by Rev. Fry. The regular service was held at 10:30 o'clock, at which over 700 received comnion. The musical selections consisted of "Praise Ye the Father," Root's " Festal TeDeum and an Easter carol at the offertory. There was no sermon at this service. Rev. J. H. Rumple assisted the pastor in the communion service. In the afternoon the Sunday school had ts Easter service. It was entitled "The Victor's Triumph," and was made up of mrols appropriate to the day ; scriptural readings and an address by Rev. J. Max Hark. The Keystone Social club will hold ball in the armory to-night. Easter Day was a bright and beautiful one, and the streets were well filled. The churches held appropriate services, accord ing to the programme previously pub-lished, and were largely attended. The floral decorations in all the churches were very beautiful and the music of a special character. There is general regret at the closing of the shirt factory, which occurred on Saturday afternoon, and the small stockholders are very indignant over the matter. The matter will most likely be fixed up, and the works are expected to be in running order on Tuesday. Squire Evans sent Wai. Dow and Henry

Reed from Matthew 28: to 8; after which holy communion was dministered. In the evening the Easter Sunday school festival was held. It was entitled "The dawn of glory," and was made up of responsive readings, singing and addresses by Rev. Reed and Supt. Buchrie. The anthem rendered by the oir at this service was "Hark, the Songs of Jubilee."

Zion's Lutheran Church.

There were no decorations at Zion's Lutheran church on account of the communion service. The exercises on Easter morning opened with an organ duett by Charles Whitmer and Harry Mayser, two very spt pupils of Prof. Benkert. The ction played by these young men was a difficult one, from Dr. Volkamer. The cial selections by the choir were "Praise the Lord" and " Hallelojah," in which the sts were: Bass, William Wohlsen, Charles Schlotzhauer; soprano, Misses Mary Achmus and Kate Dinkelberg; alto, Miss Annie Hess: tenor, Jacob Seibert and Fred. Musicale at Christiana CHRISTIANA, April 7.- A grand musicale and literary entertainment was given in the M. E. church on Saturday evening. It was under the auspices of the choir of the church. The house was quite well filled and the exercises were appreciated. Miss Emma Fraim recited "The Lightning Rod Dispenser," which was well rendered and elicited considerable applause. Recitations were also rendered by a number of little girls representing the nations. Their singing was excellent. The music was under direction of Mr. Anson Simmons, who led with the cornet accompanied by the organ. He was assisted by Doctor Paxton with the violin and Mrs. Orr and Miss Dollie Gillespie presided at the organ. Mr. Hastings and Mrs. C. Lee Gaul sang solos Ductts were sung by Miss Skeen, Rev. C. L. Gaul, Mrs. Helm and G. W. Orendorf. A quartette, consisting of Mrs. C. L. Gaul, Miss Skeen, Mr. H. H. Hamilton and G.

W. Orendorf, sang "Nearer My God to Thee." The entertainment was a success.

Two Boy Thieyes.

William Clinch and Edward Harris, colored boys, were arrested on Saturday evening for stealing handkerchiefs from in front of Charles J. Stamm's dry goods store, on North Queen street. The boys took the handkerchiefs and were caught doing so. They went to Centre Square, where they endeavored to sell the handkerchiefs. Mr. Stamm has brought charges against them before Alderman Spurrier. The pair under arrest are very bad boys. Young Clinch has been in quite a number of scrapes, and only last week he was arrested for stealing soap. He blacks shoes and is impudent and saucy to everybody, while he will steal anything that comes his way. Many people of the city are complaining that this boy is allowed to run at large, as they think the House of Refuge the best place for him.
