COLUMBIA, April 9.—A pretty wedding control last evening at 6 o'clock at the midence of John Fendrich, when Miss male Frances Fendrich, daughter of Mr. andrich, and Mr. William H. Moore, paysudrich, and Mr. William H. Moore, payg telling at the First National bank, were afted in marriage. The baywindow had sen transformed into a floral bower in hich the bridal party stood. The cerebony was performed by Rev. George felle Ely with a ring, according to the lical of the Presbyterian church. They rere unattended by maid of honor or best ass. and were unbered into the rarior by on, and were ushered into the parlor by rothers of the bride and groom. The ride was attired in white faille, rocaded front with Duchesse lace en proceded front with Duchesse lace enterin. She wore a white veil without orange blossoms. The marriage was ritnessed by a number of people from the town and other places. Among the guests from other places were Mrs. Jacob Tome, Port Deposit: Miss Houser, Cadiz, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Smith, Miss Smith and Miss Harvey, Washington, D. C.; and Wm. Broderick, Baltimore, Md. The menu was prepared by Caterer Payne, o the Hamilton club. The newly married comple left for a tour through the Eastern and Southern states.

HELD FOR ROBBERY. William Stewart Required to Give $1,200 Ball For Court.

William Stewart and Clement Eckert were heard by Alderman Halbach this morning on serious charges. The testi-mony was that on the night of February 37, as Daniel E. Rice and his brother Villiam, were driving to their home, the cart in which they were riding broke en and while they were repairing the smage a team came down the road which were Stewart and Eckert. ewart asked what was the matter and as told by Dan Rice that he had a breakcown. Stewart then jumped from his rebicle and assaulted Rice, knocking him lewn and taking his purse from his socket. In the struggle Dan Rice's rooden leg was broken and he could not got up from the road, where he had fallen n struck by Stewart.

Dan's cries for help brought his brother, who was a short distance away, and Stew-art attacked him and also stolent the time book. Complaintages, but the warrants e before Alderman Halbach, Detec ive Barnhold was given the warrants and succeeded in arresting the defendants.

The testimony failed to connect Eckert with the offense and the charges against alm were dismissed. Stewart was held in $1,200 bail for trial at the April term of court, and his father ame security for his appearance. District Attorney Reincehl appeared for stewart and J. Hay Brown for Eckert.

Stewart went before Alderman Barr this scennoon and entered a complaint for assault and battery against Rice. The accused gave bail for a hearing. The Wilbur Opera Company.

At the opera house last evening there another large audience to hear the Wilbur opera company, although it was ot as great as upon the opening night. the opera was "Nanon" and it seemed to lease. Miss Kirwin had the part of Nanon. This afternoon "The Merry War" was The Grand Duchess will be given." The lks, under whose auspices the opera sempany is singing here, will give a beau-liful souvenir at this evening's performance. It is a programme in book form with a beautiful cover. Besides the cost there is other interesting reading matter in the programme, including a history of the order of Elks with a list of the officers of the local lodge.

Resignation and Appointment. William Butler, colored, who was apsoluted turnkey of the station house by sayor Clark, resigned that position last rening, when he turned his keys over to spied, and the mayor appointed Henry L.
