Now at the Rectory.

Rev. Percy J. Rowbottom, rector of St. James church, went to Philadelphia this morning and returned at 2 o'clock with his wife.

They went at once to the rectory, which had been fitted up, and a lunch, gotten up at the order of one of the lady members of the church, by Payne, the caterer, was served.

During the day many of the members called upon Mr. and Mrs. Rowbottom.

Concert and Social.

This is the thirty-second season of the Lancaster Mannerchor and on Monday evening next the society will give a concert and social in their hall.

The attendance promises to be very large.

A Grateful Woman.

A lady, who resides at No. 205 West Orange street, is willing to give her testimony at any time as to the benefit she derived from the use of Hoke's Electric Belt.

For ten years, she says, she was suffering from chronic diarrhea, and for three years from rheumatism.

She spent lots of money and swallowed a great deal of medicine, but obtained no relief.

At last she purchased last spring, at the suggestion of a friend, a Hoke's Electric Belt, and she has worn it since.

She says that the belt has done all that was claimed for it, and that money could not buy it if she could afford it.

C. U. Hoke, the inventor, may be seen at Herr's Furniture Store, No. 326 North Queen street, every Saturday and Wednesday, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Marriages.

GERLITZKI-SHAUB.—On Thursday evening, April 10, 1890, by Rev. Charles L. Fry, at Trinity Lutheran church, 621 North Queen street, Gerlitzki, Emil, and Shaub, Ella N.

BENNER.—In this city, on the 9th inst., Carolina, widow of the late John Benner, in the 54th year of her age.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from her late residence, No. 27 St. Joseph street, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Services at St. Stephen's church. Interment at Woodward Hill cemetery.

BROW.—April 8, 1890, in this city, Catherine A. Brown, widow of the late Hiram Brown, in her late residence, No. 57 Green street, on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Woodward Hill cemetery.

SUGGESTIONS FOR THE SEASON. [Medical Journal.] Be especially careful of draughts and sudden changes of temperature.

Do not overwork. Of what use is wealth without health? Keep your body dry, but do not wear over-tight clothing.

Remember that the pores of your skin, when in health, are always open, and that clothing which prevents the exhalation of the body to escape, is the best.

Do not call the doctor for every slight ailment. If you have a cold, feel depressed and lack appetite, and are not getting anything out of your food, take a drink of pure whisky at once. Duffy's Pure Malt is the purest and best and has the highest recommendation of the medical profession.
