Let Us Have Light. It is not easy to see why a city should furnish its own light as well as its water.

It is not easy to see why a city should furnish its own light as well as its water. It is a nearly universal idea for a city to erect its own water works for the supply of its people.

The Pan-American delegates are evidently worn out. They did not receive the proposal for a southern tour with enthusiasm and only thirteen accepted the invitation.

Our councils have secured expert opinion that the power of the old water works may be cheaply utilized to furnish the city's electric light.

Senator Vest has been amusing the country with satirical remarks about Chicago and its fair. The senator does not admire the windy city.

the prairie and abundant means of escape by water and rail, if the situation gets too perilous for the innocent stranger in the quadracentennial time.

The Naval Display in '90. The senators had plenty of fun over the world's fair bill, and as might have been expected, showed some irritation at being forced to admit the matter already decided by the action of the House.
