WHERE IS JOHN LEHMAN? He and Forty Dollars Disappear at the Same Time.

John Lehman, a well known news agent of this city, disappeared rather suddenly on Tuesday afternoon, and the impression is that he left for parts unknown, with the intention of remaining away for good. Since last October Lehman has been enged in the newspaper and book business a little stand on West Orange, near worth Queen street. His partner was J. Howard Welchans, a young printer, who is made the business. They dealt in all the delly papers, which John delivered to substrain on week days and Sunday. John lived with his mother on North Water treet. On Monday afternoon Mr. Welchans give him over $40, with which he was to pay a bill that was owing for newspapers in Philadelphia. Instead of settling this debt John put the money in his pocket and his partner has not seen him since. He was seen at the policemen's with a number of Jovial companions. He fet town, as was supposed, on Fast Line yesterday afternoon, but he must have paid his fare on the cars, as he did not purchase a ticket.

Before leaving home Lehman told his paid his fare on the cars, as he did not purchase a ticket.

Before leaving home Lehman told his mother that he intended going away. He told her to go to Mr. Welchans and tell him to conduct the business himself and try and got out of it what he had invested. He said if he got work he would try and pay back the money he owed him. The mother told this to Mr. Welchans after he had sent for her. His mother does not know what Lehman means, but she thinks he has left to stay. She says that he has been behaving rather badly of late. He was drinking and came home at all hours of the night. She tried to reform him, but it was of no use.

It is believed that Lehman went to Buffalo, as he spoke about going there to several different people. He asked a couple of young men to accompany him. Mr. Welchans will examine further into the matter and ascertain whether or not he collected any money that was owing the firm from subscribers. He owes small amounts at the different daily newspaper offices.

amounts at the different daily newspaper offices.

Lehman is a man that would be very easily recognized if officers were to get after him. He is about 29 years of age and has a defect in one eye which makes him almost blind. On this account he was unfit for anything but the news business. He usually wears a blue suit of clothing. Among strangers he is inclined to be quiet; if he becomes acquainted, especially when drinking he will talk anyone to death.

ALMOST A BIG FIRE.

An Actor Falls Asleep Smoking an Burns the Bed.

There was almost a very serious fire at the Franklin house, North Queen street, kept by Michael Burns, on Tuesday afternoon. It occurred in room No. 23, on the third floor, which was occupied by one of the male members of Martin Hayden's dramatic company. The man must have been lying in bed smoking when he fell asleep and the bed caught fire. He says that he lighted a match and in throwing it down the bed clothing caught fire. Whichever story is right it is certain that there was a fire. Nearly all the clothing on the bed was almost entirely destroyed, while the mattress was very badly damaged. The man who had the room called to fellow members of his company who were near by, and they succeeded in putting out the fire by the hardest hind of work and use of the water from the pitchers of their rooms. The bedstead was pretty well scorched. Mr. Burns' loss will be about $20, and he is insured with Bausman & Barns. The actors did not tell the proprietor of the fire until after they had extinguished it.
