THREE CANDIDATES.

THE RES WHO WANT TO CONDUCT THE POST-OFFICE AT COLUMBIA.

As Appointment Expected to Be Mad n-The Claims Of Those Who Want the Position.

The commission of the Democratic post-master at Columbia will expire on May 18, and it is believed by that time that his Republican auccessor will be appointed.
There has been quite a contest for the position and it has grown quite bitter. The candidates are Capt. John L. Wright, J. W. Yocum, editor of the Spy, and Robert Conklin. The last named has been in the merchant tailoring business, but he quit business some time ago, prebably ex-pecting to get the postoffics. He is a promi-ment politician of the First ward and a secretary of the Republican county com-mittee. He takes a great deal of interest in politics and was an ardent supporter of C. C. Kauffman for senator. The general belief in Columbia is that Conklin is not in the fight, which is said to be between Wright and Yocum. The latter is a well known editor and belongs to the Second ward. His paper is a staunch Re-publican organ and Mr. Yocum is usually a liberal contributor. Mr. Wright is said to have the best chance for the position. He is a retired farmer, and there is a great deal of sympathy for him because he is He is a prominent member of the Grand Army, as is Mr. Yocum and Congressman Brosius. Some people think that on account of the fight between Wright and Yocum Conklin may yet slip in. A WRECK ON FRONT STREET.

Three Cars Thrown From the Track and Onto the Street-A New R. & C. Time Table.

COLUMBIA, May 10. - A wreck occurred on the Pennsylvania railroad at the Locust street crossing about 5 o'clock this morning, blocking tracks for over two hours. The train of engine No. 1,138, east, broke se and the rear end ran back into engine No. 1.241, east. Two cars and the cabin of the former train were thrown from the tracks and badly wrecked. The headlight and pilot on engine No 1,241 were also much damaged. The cabin car was almost completely demolished and was thrown on side along the tracks. The wrocked cars were thrown on the pavement at Front street, tearing up the bricks and breaking down a portion of the fence of Jacob S. Snyder's yard. The wreck crew were in service and cleared up the debris in a few

A canal boat went adrift yesterday while running out of the canal outlet at the bridge. The boat was going down the river but was caught by the crew of the steamer. The steamboat had considerable trouble to tow the boat up the river.

A small audience was in the opera house to see "Held in Slavery." The performance was good.

A new time table will go into effect on nday on the Reading & Columbia railroad. The first train arrives in town at m. instead of 9:27. The train arriving at 2:05 p. m. has been changed to 2 p. m. The last train arrives at 7:55 p. m. instead of 8 p. m., as heretofore. The 7:30 a. m. outward will leave at 7:35 a. m There is no change in the noon train nor the 3:45 p. m. train for Reading. Two Sunday trains have been added connecting at Lancaster Junction. The train will leave at 5:05 a. m. and 3:55 p. m. Th arriving time is 9:20 a. m. and 5:10 p. m.

A surveyor of the Pennsylvania railroad was ir town yesterday, making a map o the lower portion of town in the interes of the proposed grade bridges.

Rev A. M. Buckley, pastor of A. M. E. church, closes his second year on Sunday.

He will attend conference at Carlisle on Tuesday. It is the desire of his congregation to have him returned.

The Vigilant fire engine was tested last night on Second and Chestnut streets, and was found to be in the same good condition as the other engines.

Man and Wife Murdered.

Man and wife Murdered.

Thomas Lynch, a detective, and a man named Samuel Stoddard had a dispute over a line board fence in Rochester, N. Y., on Thursday. Friday evening the dispute culminated in a bloody tragedy. The decentive shot and killed Stoddard and his and R.

The fence which caused the fatal dispute was built a few inches of Stoddard's house.

The fence which caused the fatal dispute was built a few inches of Stoddard's house. In the afternoon while Stoddard was cutting down the fence Lynch and his son went out to him.

The detective carried a revolver and a pair of handcuffs. He had some words with Stoddard, who struck at him with the saw. Lynch fired, but missed the man and killed his wife, who stood in the doorway. He shot again and killed the man. He walked quietly to police headquarters and surrendered.

The Juniata Sand Company. The Juniata Sand company was chartered by the governor to-day. The capital stock is $100,000, and the stockholders, Thos. Baumgardner, Geo. M. Franklin, John H. Baumgardner, Geo. S. Franklin, Edwin Eberman, Walter M. Franklin, The works are located at Granville, Mifflin county, and near Mill Creek, Huntingdon county, with the principal office in this city. The object of the company is to mine, grind, wash, sell and ship sand. Geo. M. Franklin is the treasurer of the

The Conestoga Stocked With Trout. From the Harrisburg Patriot.

Yesterday morning a couple of millions of salmon trout from the state hatchery were placed in the Susquehanna, the Conestoga and the Brandywine. Between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 were placed in the Susquehanna at Clark's Ferry and Harrisburg; between 200,000 and 300,000 were placed in the Conestoga at the Eden paper mill; the big bridge and Potts' Landing, and about the same number were placed and about the same number were placed in the Brandywine at Coatesville and Downingtown.

Considered a Good Deed.

From the Columbia Spy. During the winter the Lancaster INTEL-Ligences started a fund for the purchase of an ambulance for the comfortable conveyance of patients to the hospital, or from point to point. The ambulance is paid for, and contributions are still coming in to increase its usefulness. Our city contemporary has done a good deed worthy of the highest commendation.

FOREPAUGIES BIG DAY.

FOREPAUGH'S BIG DAY.

The Monster Show Will be at McGrann's Park Next Wednesday.

Forepaugh's big circus will be in Lancaster next Wednesday, and the indications are that the crowds will be very large. The last force of advertisers were here yesterday, and the town and county has been billed as well as ever before. Adam Forepaugh's trained animals are a big feature of the show. His pony "Eclipse" jumps from one trapeze to another while awaying in the air. "Eclipse," the brave little pony which performs this dangerous and thrilling feat, is endowed with aimost human intellingence. He seems to realize the danger of his maryelous act, and to enjoy the thunders of applause that invariably follow the accomplishment of it. The platforms, two in number, are about three feet square, and suspended 20 feet above solid earth. The equine aertalist ascends the inclined plane, and, without hesitation, steps upon one of the swinging platforms. Both platforms are then set in motion, and as they oscillate to and fro, now approaching, now reeding, the gallant pony, with eyes wide open and every sense alert, gathers his strength for the supreme effort, and at the proper moment leaps into the air, He always lands safely on the other platform and receives thunders of appliause. Scures of Indians and cowboys, headed by Capiain Bogardus, the famous scout and riffe shot, give realistic scenes of wild Western life; the sports of the Roman arens are reproduced on the quarter mile hippodrome track, and the world's greatest riders and aerialists perform in the rings and in midair. The great Custer Battle, Sheridan's Famous Ride, and the Mountain Meadow and in midair. The great Custer Battle, Sheri dan's Famous Ride, and the Mountain Meadow Massacre make up a collection of speciacies un

A New Drug Store. John C. Long, who for so many years was a member of the firm of John F. Long's Sons, druggists of North Queen street, has opened a new store at the corner of Chestaut and Mary streets. Mr. Long has just put in a new front in the store that he now occupies, and has re in the store that he now occupies, and has re-modeled the place so that it is equal to any of the drug stores of the city.
