ARVARIER ALLISON BORROWS MONEY AND PORCES A SMALL CHECK.

Also Mysteriousty Disappears to the Annoyance of Several People-Pretzols Likewise Disappear.

Columnia, May 16.—Wilson C. Fox, hotographer, of Harrisburg, has been being business in Columbia in enlarging shotographs, and employed a man named farry D. Allison as a canvasser. Allison was a fine looking fellow, a good talker and soon made plenty of friends. The laster part of last week Allison went into a sore on Locust street and showed the proprietor a telegram from Mr. Fox requesting Allis in to lift a negative. For this Dirpose he borrowed $2 from the store-keeper. He then went to another man and obtained $3.50 for the same purpose. On Tuesday evening he wept into the first store, and carelessly tearing open an envelope pulled out a check on the Farmers' astional bank of Harrisburg, amount $15, and signed by Wilson C. Fox. The check and deduct the $2, which was done. On Wednesday evening Mr. Fox came from Harrisburg and inquired for Allison. He was told by the storekeepor that he had not been seen since Tuesday evening, when he cashed the check. When Mr. Fox obtained the check from the bank where the merchant had deposited it he promptly declared it to be a forgery. Allison had also cashed a check at another place of business and had borrowed a sum of money from a gentleman boarding at the Franklin house. It has been learned place of business and had borrowed a sum of money from a gentleman boarding at the Franklin house. It has been learned that he hired a team from Redsecker's livery stable and went to Lancaster, where he took a train for Philadelphia. Allison dressed well, was a good talker and well calculated to make friends. It is author-atively stated that Mr. Fox will make an effort to secure the arrest of Allison as he has collected and pocketed instalments on nictures.

Henry Sheets, a well known resident of town, died on Thursday afternoon at the home of his son, Levi Sheets, near Lancaster avenue, aged 79 years. He was sick about two months and died from the effects of the grip. He was born near Sporting Hill, this county, and lived in town for 50 years. For 48 years he was a fisherman, occupying a place on the raft chute wall. Three sons and one daughter survive. The funeral will be held on Sunday at 2 p. m.

Samuel J. Seigfried, an employe of the transfer station, was pushing a car last night and fell from the platform across the tracks. He was badly injured and was hauled to his home in Grubb's Row. He will be kept in bed for some time.

A pretzel man came to town on Wednesday and on his rounds imbibed too much beer. On his way home he fell asleep in his wagon and his horse stopped at Bethel and Locust streets. A number of boys seeing the man asleep in his wagon made a raid on the pretzels and secured all they wanted without disturbing the slumbering driver. West Shore Bonds.

Mrs. Kate Bartholomew, of Pueblo, Col., is stopping at the Tremont house, and is on a visit to friends. The lady resided in town about 25 yeas ago, but now has ex-tensive mining interests in Colorado. POUR LITTLE BOYS BURIED ALIVE.

Bank of Earth Falls Upon Them and Three Are Taken Out Dead.

Three Are Taken Out Dead.

A party of small boys were playing at the foot of a bank about eighteen feet high on the east side of Seventh avenue, Brocklyn, on Thursday. They had dug out some of the earth at base of the bank, and while working away at it the upper part, located by the rain, suddenly caved down upon them. Four of the boys were caught beneath the falling earth, and three of them were buried out of sight, while the fourth was partly covered by the gravel. The boys who escaped gave an alarm, and four policemen and a crowd of people speedily set to work to set free the imprisoned children. Otto Bruyner, age nine, was rescued, suffering only slight injuries, but the other three boys when uncovered were found dead. They were Arthur J. Taylor, age eight, and his brother John J. Taylor, age eight, and his brother John A. Taylor, age three, and Percy Pearce, age eight. An ambulance surgeon who was summoned used every effort to resus-citate them, but without avail.

Three Bad Girls. Some time ago Lizzle Hoover, Katie Kennard and Fanny Franklin, three small girls, were arrested for stealing small saving banks, with money and other articles, from houses. Alderman Deen held these cases under advisement for some time. from houses. Alderman Deen held these cases under advisement for some time. The evidence was very strong against the girls and many thefts were traced to them. This morning the mother of the Franklin girl made complaint against her, charging her with being incorrigible. Sho was taken before the judges this afternoon and committed to the House of Refuge. The mothers of the other girls refused to make the same kind of complaints against their daughters and they were returned to court and committed in default of bail to jail. The result will be that the court will send them to the Refuge also.

Released on Habeas Corpus. Released on Habeas Corpus.

Colonel Robert Taggert, who was sent to jail for 30 days by Mayor Clark on Thursday was released to-day. Ex-County Commissioner Hartman appeared before Judge Patterson in behalf of Taggert and stated to the court that he had work for Taggert to do. The court States him from jail.

Withdrew His Name. Mr. Geo. N. Reynolds, who was placed in nomination as a candidate for president of the Young Men's Democratic society, withdrew his name to-day.

Arrested For Foreible Detainer. Anna Zell, of Breneman's court, was arrested this afternoon by Detective Barn-hold. The charge against her is the forcible idetaining ef a house leased from Abram Hirsh. She was too drunk to walk to the station house and was taken there in a cab. Alderman Halbach will dispose of the case.

Should Be Severely Punished Jacob Groff and John Hildebrand, resi dents of the Seventh ward, were drunk on Thursday. They had with them on their travels two young boys and they compelled the boys to drink until they were also intoxicated. Warrants were issued for their arrest by Alderman A. F. Donnelly. Groff was arrested and held for a hearing. Hildebrand has thus far eluded the officers.

Back from Europe. Miss Adele Matz, daughter of Frof. Carl Matz, returned to-day by the steamor Columbia, from a two years sojourn in the German capital, where she has been to finish her musical education. Her father went to New York to receive her and she will reach Lancaster this evening.

Out Inspecting.

The street committee of councils with their commissioner the mayor and clerk, went out again to take a look at the streets in a section of the town that they were unable to get over on Tuesday.

Missed the Ball.

Howard Nelius, of New Holland, was playing eatch with a young friend on Thursday evening. He missed the ball, it struck him on the eye and to-day he looks as if he had been in a prize fight.

Before Alderman Deen. Samuel Hass for being drunk and dis-orderly on circus day, was sent to jail for 15 days and John Skiles and Richard Livingston, for the same offense paid costs and were discharged.

and stylish makes here ready for examination during leisure shopping moments,
We have them in all kinds of leathers, bright and black, medium, fine, and very fine grades. Our Oxfords embrace all the newest, prelitiest and most winning styles; there's not an antedituvian shape amon*them that will go begging buyers at reduced prices—we're careful not to have them that way.

The finest Oxfords we have come in genuine French Kid leather, shaped, fitted and made over latest improved lasts;
do not gap at sides, do not slip at heels, Models of fine shoemaking—rarely everbetter. Hand-sewed and very flexible, Admirable shaped toes and beels. The price of these is $\mathbb{E}$. In the fine shoe
