

HOUSE MEMBERS EXCITED.

MESSRS. BAYNE AND BYNUM THE PRINCIPALS IN PERSONAL DEBATE.

The Letter Brought Before the Bar of the House and Censured For His Remarks About the Pennsylvania.

In the House on Saturday afternoon during the debate on the McKinley bill...

Mr. Bynum then claimed recognition on a question of personal privilege relating to the Campbell letter.

Mr. Bynum endeavored to proceed, but he was shouted down by the Republican side.

Mr. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, shouted out to the chair that it was not fair to silence the man who had been publicly attacked and let the other members make themselves sponsors of the slanderer and stand in the shoes of a slanderer.

Amid intense confusion, excitement, laughter and riot and rejoicing, since Mr. Bayne said that Campbell was the equal in every respect to the member from Kentucky; and Mr. Breckenridge asserted that he had been publicly attacked and let the other members make themselves sponsors of the slanderer and stand in the shoes of a slanderer.

Chairman Grosvenor protested that he had no objection to the gentleman from Indiana being heard, no matter what the rules might be.

After half an hour of uproar Mr. Bynum secured the floor, amid comparative quiet, and said that he had no objection to the gentleman from Indiana being heard, no matter what the rules might be.

Mr. Cheadle, of Indiana, made the point that the language was out of order.

The chair thought that the word "sewer" in this connection was hardly parliamentary.

Mr. Bynum—I withdraw it then and say "sewer" since the chair has said that it is out of order.

Mr. Bynum—I withdraw it then and say "sewer" since the chair has said that it is out of order.

WALLACE TREICHLER PROBABLY FATALLY INJURED ON SUNDAY.

White Leading M. J. Keller's Animal He Is Rendered Senseless By A Blow In The Face—In Critical Condition.

ELIZABETHTOWN, May 19.—Wallace Treichler, son of Dr. A. C. Treichler, met with a serious accident yesterday evening while leading a vicious horse, belonging to M. G. Keller, the animal suddenly turned on the lad, kicking him in the face and knocking him senseless.

The boy was taken home and medical attendance promptly given. He was soon restored to consciousness. His condition is considered critical, and there is a belief that he is fatally injured.

Hon. A. J. Siefert, of Beartown, will deliver the address here on Decoration Day. The comrades of the Army and Navy will attend, in a body, divine service on next Sunday morning at the Lutheran church.

Welsh Bros. have thoroughly billed the town for Monday evening, and will give a grand concert in Brubaker's park, near Court Square.

William Orman, of Washington borough, candidate for county commissioner, was in town yesterday, looking after his political fences here.

John R. Decker, delegate from Elizabethtown to the annual session of the Grand Council of Pennsylvania.

Frank Perkins killed Joseph Butcher, his brother-in-law, at Camden, O., during a quarrel over a mortgage.

Hon. John G. Carlisle was, on Saturday, elected United States senator by the Kentucky Assembly in joint session.

George Francis Train arrived in New York on Sunday on his return to Tacoma, on board the steamer "Albatross."

Robert R. Drake shot Charles H. Riggs at Syracuse, N. Y., while handling a peeing rifle, the weapon being accidentally discharged and the bullet going through a closed door.

At 11 o'clock Saturday night a fire broke out in Yeasli's hardware store in Havana, Cuba. In a short time the flames reached the powder in the building, and a terrific explosion followed.

There is a sad story behind the death of Robert Lindsay, who died in Camden, O., during a quarrel over a mortgage.

HIS CONVICTIONS CHANGE.

Rev. Gerant Renounces the Reformed For the Episcopal Church.

Allentown Dispatch to Philadelphia Times. The public in general, and church circles in particular, are excited over the resignation to-day of Rev. Edwin A. Gerant as pastor of Zion's Episcopal church.

It was known to some that he contemplated the step, but it was not looked for at this time.

At the conclusion of the sermon Mr. Gerant, in a voice which for a time trembled with emotion, declared his convictions had undergone a change.

Mr. Gerant will connect himself with the Philadelphia diocese, and will be at the disposal of the bishop for work.

That was the score of the Actives and York on Saturday.

On Saturday afternoon the Lancaster Actives were unable to solve the delivery of Malone, while the pitching of Sterling was very hard.

On Saturday afternoon the Lancaster Actives were unable to solve the delivery of Malone, while the pitching of Sterling was very hard.

On Saturday afternoon the Lancaster Actives were unable to solve the delivery of Malone, while the pitching of Sterling was very hard.

On Saturday afternoon the Lancaster Actives were unable to solve the delivery of Malone, while the pitching of Sterling was very hard.

On Saturday afternoon the Lancaster Actives were unable to solve the delivery of Malone, while the pitching of Sterling was very hard.

On Saturday afternoon the Lancaster Actives were unable to solve the delivery of Malone, while the pitching of Sterling was very hard.

On Saturday afternoon the Lancaster Actives were unable to solve the delivery of Malone, while the pitching of Sterling was very hard.

A POLE SET AT NIGHT.

THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY COMPANY PUT ONE IN CENTRE SQUARE.

Much indignation caused by the spar at the Monument—Mayor Clark Promptly Orders Its Removal.

The Lancaster city street railway this morning placed a high wooden pole in Centre square to go in front of the soldiers' monument.

The men employed by the street railway company began work on this objectionable pole at an early hour this morning.

It is claimed by the company that a pole at the corner of Centre square is an absolute necessity for the proper operation of the electric cars.

Several members of council sent to-day were indignant at the action of the company in not consulting the proper authorities.

The pole was the principal topic of conversation this morning, and everybody condemned it.

The mayor told the railway people that he would give them until 12 o'clock to remove the pole.

The new train from Philadelphia to Lancaster, which leaves this city at 6:20 a. m., each Sunday, for Philadelphia, and returning arrives here at 6:40 p. m.

Children's Day was observed at Grace Evangelical Lutheran church on Sunday.

The features of the exercises were a musical offering, a prayer, and a collection were for missionary purposes.

Children's Day was observed at Grace Evangelical Lutheran church on Sunday.

Children's Day was observed at Grace Evangelical Lutheran church on Sunday.

LOST IN A QUICKSAND PIT.

The Awful Fate of James Parsell—He Met Death by Drowning.

James Parsell, of Woodside, N. J., met a frightful death at that place, on Saturday evening while making a well in a lot adjoining the Episcopal church.

Crowds of people looked on while the well was being dug, and the aid of others passed a rubber tube down to the imprisoned man.

When Rosetta went to work this morning she was met by the man who had been in the house before the load talking.

Samuel Crook, aged 73, one of the proprietors of a restaurant on Park Place, N. Y., fatally shot himself this morning.

Gen. Geo. S. Brown, of the banking firm of Alex. Brown & Sons, Baltimore, Md., was mortally wounded by a bullet from a revolver.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

DEFENDED HER HONOR.

A WOMAN PLUNGES A DAGGER THROUGH THE HEART OF HER ASSAILANT.

The Victim, a Boarder With the Family, Attacks Her in Presence of Her Children and is Fatally Wounded.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Rosanna Ross, wife of an Italian dock laborer, stabbed the heart here this morning Glindice Gindice, who had been boarding at her home, in defense of her wifely honor.

When Rosetta went to work this morning she was met by the man who had been in the house before the load talking.

Samuel Crook, aged 73, one of the proprietors of a restaurant on Park Place, N. Y., fatally shot himself this morning.

Gen. Geo. S. Brown, of the banking firm of Alex. Brown & Sons, Baltimore, Md., was mortally wounded by a bullet from a revolver.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

ROASTED BY ITS CURRENT.

Death Described of the Most Dreadful Electrocution.

Basilio Ipolito, an Italian, was roasted to death on an electric light wire in New York on Saturday afternoon.

When Rosetta went to work this morning she was met by the man who had been in the house before the load talking.

Samuel Crook, aged 73, one of the proprietors of a restaurant on Park Place, N. Y., fatally shot himself this morning.

Gen. Geo. S. Brown, of the banking firm of Alex. Brown & Sons, Baltimore, Md., was mortally wounded by a bullet from a revolver.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.

Ed. Steers was married in Stamford, Conn., on Saturday afternoon.