Arrested On The Track.

Jacob Fite and William Parr are the men who have been locked up for hearings before Alderman Deen. It is very fortanate for Fite that he is living at all today. Had it not been for Constable Shubrooks he would no doubt have been killed last evening. Shortly before half part five o'clock the constable found him. He was lying across the north track of the Pennsylvania railroad below the Penn iron works. In a few minutes more Harrisburg accommodation, going west, would have been due, and had the engineer not seen him, which was just as likely as not, he would have been killed. He was taken to the station house and locked up while yet so drunk that he did not know where he was going. Arrested On The Track.

William Parr was found very drunk in the northern part of town by Shubrooks. This afternoon Fite got 5 days and Parr 3. White and Black Together.

White and Black Together.

A disgusting sight was witnessed in the Pennsylvania railroad station this morning. Emma Archey, a very low wench, who now makes her headquarters in Columbia, was traveling around with two men, one white and the other colored. Emseused to have a mash on the white man, whose hose she plainly was. When not bliring love to him she was cursing him, and she refused to allow him to get out of her sight. They all took a number of drinks in the neighborhood of the station and were well fixed when they left for Cotambia. A large crowd witnessed the actions of the disgusting trie, but the white man seemed to have no shame about him. The three were liberated from jail together this morning.

Eberman, of Brooklyn, secretary. The synod will be in session three days. In the evening a public service was held, at which a review of the general synod of 1888 was the subject of much discussion.

Mr. Carlisle Can.

From the Philadelphia Lodger.

The Kentucky Legislature resolved, in deploring Senator Beck's death, that it had "no one who could take his place." The alling of Senator Beck's shoes involved a large feat, but it is generally agreed that it has been well accomplished in the selection of John G. Carlisle.

A Birthday Party. Last evening Harry Long, a salesman in the New York store, celebrated his twenty-first birthday at his home on East King street. About fifty couples were present and they had a splendid time during the evening, including an elegant supper.

Pulled Out a Pillar. This afternoon a countryman was making the turn from Chestnut into Christian street, with a load of hay that he was taking to Brimmer's livery stable. The hay enaght one of the posts which support the balcony of the hotel kept by Franz Neucorf, pulling it completely out.

Although last season's prices on many popular lines have been maintained, they have at the same time been improved, either by having more put in them or by our buying a better shoe. In doing this we have relied upon the trade appreciating it more than a reduced price. There are cheaper grades of Oxfords than those we quote here, but the quality invariably deteriorates with the price. The chaspest we quote is the cheaperst any need want to buy and expect reasonable service.
