Whit-Monday a Holiday.
Whit-Monday as a holiday is fast losing hold and there are very few attractions for its celebration in this city. The people of this city seem to take but little interest in it and the country people do not come to town in anything like the numbers they did in former years. The Jolly Bachelors, social organization of this city, intend olding a picnic at Knapp's Villa, and the agers of the street car line have notied them that horse cars will be run down or far as the gate. Another attraction will be a game of ball at McGrann's park between the Lebanon and Lancaster clubs, which promises to be very interesting. Many of the industrial establishments of ty will close on Monday.

A Mad Dog at Sale Harbor. A mad dog created a great deal of ex-tement in the village of Safe Harbor on Priday afternoon. The animal belonged to Joseph Waller and he was bitten by another dog that had hydrophobia nine weeks ago. Yesterday the arimal became mad and started on a run through the village, biting every log and cat that came in his way. He bit

(Translation from the German.)

During my sojourn here I had frequent opportunities to make myself sequented with the Knabe planos, and from fullest conviction I declare them to be the best instruments of America. Should I return here for artistic purposes—which may be the case very soon—I shall most certainly use the planos of this celebrated make. I give this testimonial with pleasure, voluntarily, and entirely unsolicited pleasure, voluntarily, and entirely unsolleited for by the house of Knabe.
