THURSDAY'S MEETING.

Those Who Took Prominent Part In the

Those Who Took Prominent Part In the Missionary Convention.

Columnia, May 30.—The annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society, of the South Philadelphia district of the Methodist church, was held yesterday in the local church. Miss M. E. Cole, of Philadelphia, was made presiding officer, and Mrs. S. L. Sheaffer, of Philadelphia, was enosen secretary. The following general officers of the society were present: Mrs. Henry Wheeler, Phoenixville, grand corresponding secretary; Mrs. Bishop Foss, Philadelphia, conference treasurer; Mrs. Dr. Vernon, Lancaster, conference secretary; Miss M. E. Cole, district secretary, and Mrs. M. L. Sheaffer, who has general direction of the young women's work of the conference. There were present representatives from Philadelphia, Lancaster, Phoenixville, York, Wrightsville and other churches in the district. At the morning session Mrs. George Gaul welcomed the representatives and was responded to by Mrs. Dr. Vernon. The reports of the secretaries of auxiliaries and bands occupied the balance of the session. At noon luncheon was served in the church parlors. The afternoon session was devoted to the discussion of topics relating to foreign missions. The reports show the working of the society during the year to have been of a most encouraging nature. The evening session commenced at 7:30 o'clock with devotional exercises. Addresses were made by Miss Margaret Layton, of the Mathodist Deaconess' Home, New York; Mrs. Henry Wheeler and Mrs. M. L. Sheaffer. The latter jwas illustrated with music, thus making a very entertaining programme. The meeting was interesting and profitable to all who were present. The meeting was interesting

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. F. Nowien have been called to Turbetville, by the death of Mrs. Steiner, mother of Mrs. Nowien. Miss Sarah Strawn and Mrs. Rebecca Moore, of Pedrickstown, N. J., are guests of Mrs. John Shenberger.

OUR MORTGAGES.

The Government Investigating Thou and Their Causes.

Under an act of Congress, passed in February, the census bureau is making a separate investigation of mortgages, and I. C. Arnold, eac., is charged with this branch of the work in Lancaster county. He is to First. The mount of mortgage debt existing on January 1, 1890, upon agricultural land and village and city real estate.

Second. The rates of interest paid upon debts secured by real estate, and the total interest charged, together with the average annual rates of interest in each county.

Third. The growth of building and loan estate in the second county.

Fourth. The average duration of mort-gage debt, the rate of payment and the pro-portion paid.

Fifth. The cause and purposes of mort-gage indebtedness. This will reveal to what extent it is an evidence of misfortune or enterprise.

The resulting summary will be an interesting exhibit of the county's indebtedness.

From Presbyterian to Reformed.

At a special meeting of the presbytery of Philadelphia on Thursday in the Fourth United Presbyterian church, the Rev. J. M. Farrar requested a dissolution of the past previations between junged, and the Fourth Carach. Commissions om the church appeared and stated that the congregation had refluctantly agreed. Resolutions of regret and commendation were adopted and Mr. Farrar was dismissed to the South classis of Long Island of the the South classis of Long Island of the Reformed (Dutch) church. He has accepted a call to the First Reformed (Dutch) church, Brooklyn, at a salary of $5,000, and will commence his labors there June 8. This church is said to be one of the oldest and most influential in that city. The congregation is now engaged in the erection of a new edifice to cost $250,000.

Death of An Agod Lady. Miss Sarah Henderson, an inma e of the Bishop Bowman church home, died this morning at the advanced age of 91 years. Deceased was a native of Harrisburg and lived there until eight years ago, when she came to Lancaster to enter the above named institution. She has been blind for several years. Her general health was good until recently. Her funeral will take place on Monday morning, with services at St. James' church. Interment at Lancaster

Sued For False Protense. Sued For False Pretense.

W. J. Patterson, a horse dealer, of York, was arrested on Thursday afternoon as he was about leaving for home, charged with false pretense. He traded horses with John W. Keller, and the one received by Mr. Keller was not as represented. When a demand was made by Mr. Keller for a cancellation of the trade and the return of his horse, Patterson refused to do so. Bail was entered for a hearing before Alderman A. F. Donnelly.

Going to Be Married. The Blue Ball correspondent of the Lancaster Inquirer writes: Miss. Hannie Kersey, who taught our primary school for the past three years, will teach no more. She is going to Tacoma, where she will become the wife of D. J. Griffith, formerly of this county, now a rising lawyer of that young metropolis of the Northwest.

Another Pigeon Fly.

Another Pigeon Fly.

At a meeting of the Lancaster Homing club, held at Hotel Lancaster, it was decided to have a fly on Sunday, June 15, from a point in Virginia to this city, a distance air line of 300 miles. Messrs. Humphreyville, Shane, Groff and Paulsen have already decided to enter birds, and the fly will be open to all who choose to enter. The prize will be a fine allver cup.

Overcome by the Heat. A daughter of Henry Smith, colored, was overcome by the heat in Shreiner's cometery this morning, while the services were held at the grave of Thaddeus Stevens, has was removed to her home, on North street, in a cab.

BREAKING TARGETS.

A shooting Match Between Columbia and Marietta Clubs Last Evening.

Last evening a friendly content took place between the Columbia and she alsestita gun clubs on the grounds of the laner club. Again the Columbias were victorious, and the vanquished took their defeat as gracefully as only gentleman cas.

The features of the contest were the brillast quick about a contest were the brillast quick about a columbia, and the straight score of twenty of Broome. The latter is a very steady shooter, and takes no risks. He does not do quick work, but his reliable Parker branks them at great the process and the straight process. no risks. He does not do quick work, but his reliable Parker breaks them at great divariest, and he get there in good shape. The Marietta boys showed a good opposition, and with a few better guns to replace some that are inferior they would do better. The men are also in need of more practice.

The visitors were entertained very handsomely until train time, when they left for home. Arrangements have been made for a reason match in two weeks.

The score follows, and it will be seen that Charles Franciscus, formerly of this city, also did well:

Claimants for Martin Rudy's Goods. In chambers, before Judge Patterson, on Thursday afternoon a petition was pre-sented for an interpleader. The petitioners sented for an interpleader. The petitioners are those who claim all the goods in the bicycle school of Martin Rudy, seized for debts of Rudy on executions issued. The petitioners who claim goods are Martha Rudy, Charlotta Rudy, John H. Tragresser, A. J. Musser, S. C. Johnson, Jacob S. Mullen, Henry D. Smith, John G. Zook and John L. Sutton. When court meets on Monday an issue will be framed to determine the ownership of the goods levied upon in which the above will be made plaintiffs and the execution creditors defendants.

The Mayor Lost His Norve. Capt. H. W. Phelps, a veteran Union soldier and wealthy farmer near Wester-ville, Ohio, challenged M. D. Waters, mayor of that town, to a fist fight, they having quarrelled over a business settlement.

The fight was arranged to take place on Wednesday at the fair grounds. The two went there, as did many toughs and friends of both men. At the appointed place Mr. Waters suddenly lost his pugilistic spirit, and fearing that he might seriously injure his opponent he compassionately advised Mr. Phelps not to fight. This inglorious retreat greatly disappointed the crowd that had taken the trouble to travel so far to see the combat.

He Became Unconscious. He Became Unconscious.
Jacob M. Herchelroth, of No. 317 South
Queen street, collector for J. A. Sprenger, had the curiosity this morning to go into a 150 gallon cask which had just been re-varnished to see what it looked like. He remained in it too long, was overcome by the fumes and became unconscious. Fortunstely the brewers discovered him and at once took him from the cask. He was taken to his home, and, while still very sick, will soon be able to be about.

Death of Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Annie Smith died this morning at 4 o'clock at the residence of her father, Adam Stark, No. 321 East Chestnut street. She was the wife of John Smith, of Columbia, who died several years ago. She was 34 years of age and leaves three children.

A New Social Club. The Young Men's League, a new social organization of this city, has rented a large room over Frey's shoe store, No. 3 East King street, and they will hold their first regular meeting to-morrow evening.

Knights of St. John Bazaar A bassar for the benefit of the Knights of St. John will be opened to-morrow, Saturday even-ing, at Shroad's West King street hall. Extenaive arrangements have been made and the bazoar will be a financial success.

Services preparatory to the communion will be held in the chapel of the Presbylerian church this evening at 75% o'clock.

Men's $1.50 Shoes.

New Spring Styles for Men's Wear, the nobblest looking cheap shoe imaginable; clean, smooth, sleek, strong wearing sorts. As near right in every way as good shoemakers can make them for so little money. We know of no makes elsewhere to equal ours at the figures. We find a great many Lancastrians no wiser. That accounts for the many inquiries here lately for the best made $1.50 shoes. Have you been here to see them? If not, why not? To see them is to like them. To wear them is to bring you here again for the same sort. We have many different lines in the going shapes. That makes it easy to choose the style that pleases the fancy.

Here is an excellent make of shoes to tell of—Congress or Bals, with plain toes or tips; a superior grade of stock in uppers and bottoms—seamiless vamps, hair stitched soles; fils the average foot snugly and neatly. They will wear strongly—the grade of the material in them is a guarantee of this. And the shoemaking—well, there's nothing "Bum" about it; it's all right.

You Think Your Eyes Are Good!

MARTIN BROS.

You know there are good hapes and bad shapes in every article of manufacture. In hats, in shoes, in DIFFERENCE. furniture, in houses, etc. There is a difference in our clothing, and most ready-made clothing. One difference is in the shaping, another in the style, and backing all this are our economical prices. In reference to the fit and finish of our clothing. A gentleman told us this of a suit he bought for $15 last week; on showing it at home to his wife she said : " Why, when were you measured for a suit? I didn't know you were measured." Men's Suits, $5 to $25, a handsome choice. Very popular lines, $10, $12, $15, $18. Boys' Suits (Long Tronsers), $3 to $15.

See the $7, $8 and $10 lines. you would like, $3, $3.50 and $4 for all-wool. In the Custom Tailoring Department suits to measure just as they should be and promptly.

Underwear and Negligee Shirts are active in the Furnishing Department. Pushing prices, taking kinds, everybody's size, 25c, 50c, $1 and
