He Is to Be Given & Hearing On the Charge Of Contributing Money and Pirranuao, June 4.- A warrant charging Sayor James G. Wyman, of Allegheny Riy, with perjury, in swearing that he had son legally elected mayor of Allegheny Riy, was issued by Alderman Reilly last The information charges him with conbuting and promising to contribute mey and other valuables to secure his ion and election.

Mayor Wyman gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for a hearing on Saturday. He takes the matter coolly and claims the charge was made at the instance of

THE YOUNG DEMOCRATS. Officers Elected for the Ensuing Year A Picule to Be Held.

A Plenic to Be Held.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Democratic society for election of officers was held on Tuesday evening, with a large attendance. There was no contest for any of the offices except second vice president and the executive committee, and for these positions there was a good-natured rivalry.

The polls were opened at 8:30 and closed at 9 o'clock, by which time 15s votes had been cast. Edward R. Garvin, Jacob B. Lichty and Luther Willig were the election officers.

James B. Best was elected second vice president by a majority of three. For the eighth member of the executive committee there was a tie vote between Adam J. Rieker and Charles Zecher, and this posi-tion will be contested for at the next meet-ing of the seciety.

Following were the officers chosen: President, William R. Brinton; first vice president, William R. Brinton; first vice president, James B. Best; third vice president, John A. Coyle; secretary, J. Alton Kolb; corresponding secretary, G. Ross Eshleman; treasurer, H. L. Raub; executive committee James Prangley ir, Chas. E. corresponding secretary, G. Ross Eshleman; treasurer, H. L. Raub; executive committee, James Prangley, jr., Chas. E. Beitzel, W. W. Amos, S. Chas. Houghton, J. H. Gerhart, Chas. E. Downey, Godfried Rhoads; musical director, F. W. Haas.

At the May meeting, at which candidates were placed in nomination, George N. Reynolds, who was the president for two years, was re-nominated for a third term in opposition to Wm. R. Brinton. A few days after the nomination Mr. Reynolds withdrew his name, as he did not care to go into a contest for the office, which promised to be an exciting one and might cause great ill feeling in the organization. Some of Mr. Reynolds' friends insisted upon his running and although his name was not printed on the regular ticket, there were tickets printed with his name on for president and distributed and he received so of the votes cast on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Brinton's friends held that he was entitled to the office, Mr. Reynolds having had it for two terms, and the principles of the party were opposed to a third term.

There was nothing in the election (although the Press endeavored to make it so sppear) that has any bearing on the coming election for delegates to the state convention. They will be elected without the interference of the Young Men's Democratic society.

At the business meeting of the society, held prior to the election, nine members were elected and seven proposed for membership.

were elected and seven proposed for mem-bership.

It was decided to hold a picnic in the near future and the president was author-ized to appoint a committee of twelve to make the necessary arrangements.

A Narrow Escape.

Henry Howell, a little son of H.
N. Howell, of North Queen street, made a narrow escape from being killed by a heavy wagon. He had been over in the marble yard of his grandfather, Major C. M. Howell, on the east side of Christian street, near Marion,
and wanted to return to the other yard.
Just as hewas crossing on the asphalt blocks
a large two horse freight wagon of C. W.
Bitner came along. The boy thought he could cross before the horses reached him,
but they were on a trot and knocked him
fown. He fell under the horses' feet, but their hoofs did not touch him.
Just at the time Major Howell came into Christian street and saw the little fellow knocked down. He thought sure that he would be killed and yelled at the top of his voice. The driver heard him and stopped the team just in the top of his voice. The driver heard him and stopped the team just in time to mave the boy's life, as the wheel was against him and it left the marks upon his leg and arm.

A PEDDLER LOSES $30. He Attends the Circus and Patronizes

Thimbio-Rigger-Small Crowds
At The Show.

Columbia, June 4.—The appearance of McClellan's circus in this place yesterday attracted a number of hard-looking customers. The usual number of fakirs accompanied the circus, erecting their booths at the grounds and attempting to "rope in" the unwary. The circus failed to draw a large audience at either the afternoon or evening performance. The show was up to the average. A thimbie-rig was in operation and several persons lost money trying to beat the game. A peddler lost $15 at one trial and when he saw a stool pigeon win $10, he tried it the second time. He lost $15 once more and left, vowing to have the man arrested. In the evening officer Wittick went to the grounds and mad e the man stop his work. No complaints were made before any squire by the persons losing money.

The Raymond & Whiteomb Excursions to the Yellowstone Park.
It goes without saying that a Raymond & Whitcomb excursion embodies the best arrangements that can be made for sight-seeing in any region. The public learned long ago that the tours managed by this firm differ cssentially from ordinary excursions, where cheapness is made the sole consideration. The Yellowstone National Park trips have from the first been conspicuous examples of the fact that Messrs. Raymond & Whitcomb always "get the best." For the coming season five different tours through the park have been arranged, these being in addition to the Alaska excursion, which includes the Yellowstone region returning the context of the park have been region returning the context of the region returning the context of the region returning, the outward journey being over the pleturesque Canadian Pacific Rallway. The dates of departure from Philadelphia are July 17 and 31, August 14 and 28, and September 11. In overy instance an entire week will be passed within the park. It should be noted that the price of the tour has been lessened from previous years. Besides these trips and the Alaska excursion, Messrs. Raymond & Whitcomb an-nounce " Eighteen Summer Tours " to leading Eastern resorts. Descriptive circulars will b mailed free on application to the office of the firm, 111 South Ninth street, under the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia.
