A FINE CONCERT.

Given by Prof. Thorbahn's Orchestral School and Young Ladies. Last evening the orchestral school of Prof. Carl Thorbahn, the well known teacher of music, gave a concert in the chapel of Trinity church. The affair was given underthe auspices of the Junior Mis-sionary society of the church, and the attendance was quite large. In addition to the number of the school, the following young ladies assisted at the concert: Miss M. Mac Byerly, of Milleraville, and Misses Levinis D. Ksufman, Henrietta M. Mitchell, Marion Hamaker and Effie G. Bowman, of this city.

Every number of the programme was well given, reflecting great credit upon the performers as well as Prof. Thorbahn, and the spplause by the andience was very liberal. The programme in full was as follows:

Suit on Gorrecht's Allmony Bond.

Suit was brought this afternoon by J.
W. Johnson, esq., for the Lancaster county poor directors, against
W. H. Gorrecht, principal, and A. A. Myers, Isaac D. Lutz, and John F. Brimmer, sureties, to recover on a $500 bond given by Gorrecht when he tool out his appeal to the supreme court from the order of our court, ordering him to pa to his wife Henrietta Gorrecht, $50 pe month alimony out of the trust estate i his hands. Mr. Gorrecht considere this amount excessive and made no payment since last December expecting to have the supreme court di minish the amount. His appeal, however was not prossed, and the bond was conse quently forfeited, resulting in the presen

The alimony from July to December 1889, was recovered by an attachment su after the court had made an order for it payment. Mrs. Gorrecht has been mair tained for some time past at the alm house.

The Other Side.

A statement appeared in the columns last evening's papers to the effect the Robert Little, the brakeman who was in jured at Graeff's Landing on Monday, was in destitute circumstances. A representa-tive of Superintendent Wilson was in town to-day, and he stated that there was no necessity for the man being an object of charity if they avail themselves of the privileges offered. The rules of the company require all new men to become mem bers of the Relief department. Little be came a member early in May and paid in but $2.80. For that he will receive one dollar per week for fifty-two weeks if it is shown that he is incapacitated for work. In addition to this the man has 839 coming to him from the company for wages. Thi statement is but fair to the railroad com

Almost Struck By a Train. This morning a countryman, who wa driving a horse hitched to a coveredwagon stopped on Water street below Millin. He get out of the wagen to attend to some business and left his wife sitting in the wagon here at 7:40 came up the track. The horse frightened and despite the efforts of hi owner to stop him he jumped upon th track almost in front of the engine. Jet Groff, the engineer, is a careful man and when he saw the danger he quickly re versed his engine and brought it to a stand still within a couple of feet of the team The woman was so frightened by the acci dent that she jumped from the wagon an fainted. She was carried into a neighbor ing house, where she was unconscious for

Bad Boys, There are numerous gauge of bad boys in this city who should be dispersed. There is one lot that gather at Duke and German streets, and amuse themselves by breaking window glasses in the school building Another lot make themselves a nuisance by playing ball on Ann street, between Orange and Chestnut. One of the largest and worst crowds is the one that meets at Mulberry and James street. Last night there was half a hundred or more there playing in the middle of the street, cursing, swearing and insulting people. Another bad lot make their dquarters at the corner of College and Marietta avenues.

Runaway Of a Lumber Team. The team of W. G. Mellinger & Bro. ran off this morning on the Willow Street turnpike, a few miles south of this city. The team was loaded with lumber and was n charge of a son of one of the Mellingers. In going down a hill a board slipped and struck one of the horses. This started him running and the boy fell from the wagon. The wheels passed over one leg and crushed it. After running some distance the team was stopped. Another Suit Against the County. E. M. Gilbert, late solicitor for the prison inspectors, to-day brought a suit against the county to recover $116.74, which he claims to be due him for commissions on moneys collected for goods sold from the prison. The inspectors admit owing him $16, but say that it is no more than that
