AFTER FORTY. ter forty, locks grow thinner, We grow stouter—" there's the rub !" nger longer o'er our dinner, Shirk the matutinal tub! After forty we get lazy, To the lads the girls resign

Aches and pains distinctly new e grow graver day by day !

o fear now of stolen kis

On our pred Yer a stile we crawl with caulton, We, once agile as a roe ! for life's autumn is our portion.

Id "Jim Crow," too, scrawls with pleasure After forty on our phiz ! "ime, who picks our locks at leisure,

What's the moral of the matter? et us take, with resignation

ing to set it right. Not all the nauscous sughts and boluses ever invented can do half much to remedy its disorders as a few wine-as'ulls—say, three a day of Hostetter's much Bitters, which will afford it speedy resing. An immediate abandonment of such adom and ill advised experiments should be stence for Dyspepsia, Indigestion or Billious-ss. It is a certain cure, and affords immedi-relief, in cases of Kidney and Liver Comoraplexion builds up the weak system and res where other remedies fail. Ask your uggist for it and get well. Valuable book Things Worth Knowing," also, sample book int, Nervous Debility and Consumption at free ; all charges prepaid. Address, Prof.

overed a root that when combined with er herbs, makes an easy and certain cure fo It is in the form of dry roots and stipati ves, and is known as Lane's Family Medi be. It will cure sick-headache in one night or the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clear g up the complexion it does wonders. Drugts sell it at 50 cents a package.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve

CARTER'S

