mest-fourths of an acre of land in Man-im township, with a two story brick dwelling house, frame stable and tobacco shed, as the property of Stephen H. Weller, to David L. Hess, for $50. Death of Mrs. Eddle Franks.

Mrs. Olivia Franke, widow of the late Eddie Franke and daughter of the late Edwin Clark, died at noon to-day at her residence, corner of Duke and Chestnut streets. Mrs. Franke was attending to business in the early part of the week, when she was obliged to go home, though her illness was not considered dangerous. Yesterday she took a turn for the worse and from that time she gradually sank until called away. Mrs. Franke was in business for a number of years at No. 132 North Queen street and had built up a large trade. Mrs. Franke was a native of Lancaster, lived here all her life and has many friends and acquaintances who will regret to hear of her sudden death. She leaves to survive her one daughter. Mrs. L. B. Herr is a sister of deceased. IIIs 25th Anniversary. Father Geo. Borneman, of Reading, will celebrate the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, in St. Paul's church, of that city, on Monday. A large number of clergymen will take part in the ceremonies and amongst them are Father Kaul, of St. Anthony's and Father Schmidt, of St. Joseph's churches. The Catholic societies of Reading will participate in the Sold Ills Goods.

The personal effects of Henry Lossner were sold by the sheriff this morning and a trifle over $18 was realized. Henry attended the sale under the influence of liquor, and because the articles did not sell for what he considered a fair price he ame so disorderly that he was arrested and locked up.

The Lancaster Fencibles. The Lancaster Fencibles met on Friday evening and elected eight members, which makes the membership within a few of the quota allowed. Arrangements were made to attend the encampment as visitors. The company has the assurance of being mustered into the National Guard after the encampment. Appointed to a Clerkship.

Horace H. Roberts has received an appointment in the census department at Washington and will report for duty on Monday. He passed the civil service exanation with an average of 95, being almost at the head of the class. Mr. Roberts is an excellent penman and will make an efficient clerk.

Mrs. S. B. Hartman, of Columbus, Ohio, formerly of this city, is here on a visit. and is staying at the Stevens house. Lecture in Bethel M. E. Church.

Here On a Visit.

Rev. Merritt Hubbard, D. D., pastor of Spring Garden M. E. church, will lecture on "Darby and Joan "In the Bethel M. E. church, near Fulton, on Thurs'ay evening, July 3, instead of June 26, as first announced.

Be still, sad hearts, and cease repining.
Behind the clouds the sun's still shining;
Thy fate's the common tate of all,
For on each one some clouds must fail—
Some days must be dark and dreary.
And morials of times sick and weary;
But to the Christian death is life.
Th' eternal end of pain and strife.

The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from her late residence, No. 442 East Orange street, on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to proceed at 2:00 o'clock to St. John's Episcopal church West Chestnut street. Interment at Lancaste
