Abducted His Child.

Mrs. Alice Warner, daughter of Henry Bush, of Owl Hill, Warwick township, was buried on Thursday. IShe had been separated from her husband for some time and when she went to her father's home, she took her child, not two years old, with her. Before her death she requested her father to keep and raise the ohild, and he intended doing so. On Sunday Jacob Warnor, the father of the child, called at Mr. Bush's house and asked to see the child. It was shown to him, and when he had it in his arms, he burriedly ran to the outside of the house, where his horse was standing, and drove away with it. As he is the legal guardian of the child he was entitled to it, but the neighbors censure the father for obtaining possession of the John B. The loan exhibition of the Young Republicans closed on Saturday evening. The crowd was not as large as expected. The affair throughout was highly creditable to the society, but for some reason it was not a financial success, and if money has not feen lost in the venture it is certain that very little has been made. On Tuesday evening a complimentary hop to the ladies who assisted at the loan will be given in the opera house. The articles that have been on exhibition have all been removed, but the floor over the parquette has been left for dancing. Rupture for Eleven Years. Mrs. Abraham H.
