

Our distribution of these stuffs has been immense. Millions of yards have passed over our retail counters, and you'd think that the demand was already satisfied. And yet our confidence in the consuming ability of this market and in the readiness of the people to appreciate real bargains is such that we offer this morning great fresh lots by which we expect to double the sales in dollars, and therefore triple the yards. To do this the space occupied is doubled. The motive power is the cheapness. Cost is ignored, value forgotten in making prices.

Never in the history of dry goods selling have quantities so vast been brought to the retail purchaser. It will pay you to come, if only to see the great bulk. The printing of the Cheap Cottons is a wonderful triumph. Examine the goods at 3, 4 and 6 cents a yard and you will not find the slightest imperfection in color or register.

Laws at three cents. White ground, strong, fast colors. Challis at four and six cents. White and cream grounds, a large variety of patterns and colors. Gingham at seven cents from ten. Sileband Gingham at ten cents from twelve-and-a-half. Real Scotch Gingham at eight cents from twenty-five. French Satens at fifteen cents from the best makers in Mulhouse—new patterns, expected to retail at double. Flannellets at eight cents from ten cents, fifty odd varieties and plenty of each to select from. Towrist's Cloth at eight cents from twelve-and-a-half. Twenty-five varieties. Outing Cloths at ten cents from twelve-and-a-half. Fifty varieties. Washable Flannels at twenty cents from twenty-five. Twenty-five varieties. Scotch Llama Flannels at Thirty-seven-and-a-half cents from fifty, all wool filling, very fine and delicate. Fifteen varieties. Ceylon Flannels at thirty-seven-and-a-half-cents from fifty. Thirty varieties. All this array of special bargains does not disturb our great stock of elegant Gingham, Cheviots and other Summer stuffs which make up the Dress Goods business of the season. The greatest stock is always here.

Either an Oil Stove or a Gas Stove. Try one and you'll wonder why any woman who needn't sizzles over the Summer range. No dust, no smoke, no "roasting alive." Heat when you want it and where you want it, and when you're done turn the stop and there's the end. Little cost to start with and absurdly little expense to run the thing. Oil Stoves $1.75 to $16. Gas Stoves 90c to $24. Fixings extra. Ovens to fit all sizes. Basement, northeast of centre.

Some Doubt the Bible. And the motives of its authors, but none who have used it doubt the efficacy of Burdock Blood Bitters. This splendid blood tonic is without a peer. Sold in Lancaster by W. T. Hoch, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

There is a Democratic faction in New York constantly striving to tear down the Tammany organization, seeing that they cannot control it. The most malignant and cunning of these men is William R. Grace, who has been twice mayor of New York, and wants his finger in the pie again. This man had as a confidential political agent one Irvin, whom he put into the fastest office in the city when he was mayor. It seems now that as soon as Croker sailed away these people went to Republican senators with tales of the things they could disclose before an investigating committee, that would damage Tammany Hall; and they got their committee.

They made a good deal of smoke and bagged some game; but when they went after Croker they made a mistake, as it is now clear. For it is evident that his conduct has been straight as a string. Their charges were based upon a very improbable tale at the best, and their refutation leaves them in bad state, since the malevolence of their action is made very plain.

THE red rose of Lancaster would blush in prouder beauty should one of her sons be named for the honorable post of lieutenant governor.—Lancaster Morning News.

THE red rose of Lancaster should blush with shame at association with the red nose of Quay.

MR. JOSHUA LYVE has published a neat little book called the "Travelers' Guide," which may be had for a stamp, and gives the summer time tables of all the railroads in the county, and the rates of postage.

OLD MOUNT SHASTA, the giant of the Pacific coast mountains, with its peak 14,000 feet above the sea level, is beginning to show signs of volcanic activity. Large volumes of smoke and vapor are rising from the east side of this long silent volcano, and some fear a renewal of its terrible activity.

It remains to be seen whether President Harrison can boom real estate at Cape May Point, as successfully as President Cleveland boomed the neighborhood of Oak View. It is charged and not denied that the Harrison cottage at Cape May Point was presented to him for advertising purposes by enterprising owners of sand lots at that languishing resort.

In 1874 the pension list amounted to a little over twenty-nine millions in 1888 the total for pensions was over eighty-seven and a half millions, or more than three times the pension list of 1874. This branch of government expenses was tripled in fifteen years. It is now reported that the pension bill just passed has been carefully figured over by the officials of the pension bureau and the probable expenditure under it placed at sixty millions, notwithstanding that its advocates in Senate and House estimated its cost at forty millions. It may be that the pension list for 1891 will reach the enormous sum of two hundred millions of dollars, even if there is no further legislation on the subject than the bill alluded to. That amount of money judiciously applied might accomplish wonders, but it would be better to lessen the taxation and leave most of it with the people from whom it must be collected.

THE colored brother gratefully accepted a position at the rear of the procession for Harrisburg this morning, and will abjectly vote as ordered by his Republican friends, who have no offices to spare for him. It is an outrage that the colored man should not hold office in the South, but it is all right in the North. Republican should find no offices for him in the North. Sympathy at long range is cheap.

MARTIN has lots of red Lancaster roses, but Colonel Schoonmaker has a very substantial barrel.

REV. MORAN's letter protesting against the absurd proposal of the customs authorities to tax the material of a twenty-five cent phonographic cylinder is worth attention. The phonograph is steadily coming into general use, although its cylinders have not yet appeared as a familiar article of mail in this part of the country. It is not at all creditable to either department of the government to find so much official anxiety to strain red tape and law so as to hamper postal communication on the absurd theory that protective laws demand the taxation of the material of which a letter is composed because it happens not to be paper bearing written characters but a metallic cylinder bearing sounds.

GREASING THE JOINTS. In times when you must wait your turn And pause seem outrageous, A smile may move the man ahead, A frown may give him feet of lead, For humor is contagious.

Throw Away $3.00. "Troubled with asthma for eight years. Not quite two bottles of Thomas' Electric Oil cured me completely, after spending $50 without the slightest benefit." This is what August Trubner, of Tyrone, Pa., says. Sold in Lancaster by W. T. Hoch, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

A General Tie-Up. Of all the means of public conveyance in a large city, even for a few hours, during a strike of the employees, means a general paralysis of the industry or the time being, and is attended with an enormous aggregate loss to the community. How much more serious to the individual is the general tie-up of his system, known as constipation, and due to the strike of the most important organs for more prudent treatment and better care. If too long neglected, a torpid or sluggish liver will produce serious forms of kidney and liver diseases, neuralgia, rheumatism, and dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets are a preventive and cure of these disorders. They are prompt, sure and effective, pleasant to take and positively harmless.

Some Doubt the Bible. There is a slight interest that is very favorable to the Sumatra wrapper; but it should be plain to everyone that the interest of the grower and worker in Sumatra tobacco is otherwise. And we be-
