Cancer of the Nose.

In 1875 a sore appeared on my nose, and grew rapidly. As my father had cancer, and my husband died of it, I became alarmed and consulted my physician. His treatment did no good, and the sore grew larger and worse in every way, until I was persuaded to take S. S. S. and a few bottles cured me. This was after all the doctors and other medicines had failed. I have had no return of the cancer.

and agricultural land in Mexico, and at the same time dispatches from the capital and the Mexican border states announce omin ous signs of a revolution to meet the ex dent Diaz. These disturbing rumors are officially denied from the City of Mexico with great emphasis, but as nothing is said about the dictatorship, they probably have some foundation. The English company interested in Lower California appears to be in real danger of losing its land by con-concerned in a plot to declare independence from Mexico and demand British protec-under these discouraging conditions is in-wherever John Bull bazards cash there is a fair chance that he will interfere by force a call for a gentle application of the Monroe doctrine to Anglo-Mexican tangles.

Senate Amendments Rejected.

In the House on Wednesday the conference report on the naval appropriation bill was adopted. The silver bill came up in order, and the debate, on motion of Mr. Conger, was continued until 3 o'clock, when the previous question was ordered. At Mr. Springer's request a separate vote was taken on each of the Senate amendments. The first amendment, the free coinage substitute for the first section of the bill, was defeated, the yeas being 135, the nays 152. Mr. Springer then withdrew his request for separate votes on the other amendments, and they were rejected in mass—a standing vote resulting yeas, 85:

diplomatic appropriation bill was agreed to. Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, from the com-mittee on rules, reported a resolution for the immediate consideration of the federal election bill, the previous question to be considered ordered on the bill and any pending amendments on July 2, at 2 o'clock. After an exciting debate the reso-lution was careful not fit for him to trade in. Personally

Mr. Martin is to be congratulated upon his defeat. It is no reflection upon him, since he was borne to the front on the broad shoulders of his great county.

The injury is to it. There is nothing but benefit to its candidate in being injury that he has encountered has been in his seeking to be made part of that ticket. He has been saved, not by his

For certainly it was madness of the worst mid-summer kind to put this ticket in the field in the face of the sentiment that has been already stirred up, in advance of its making, to a degree that warrants a confident belief in its rejec tion. As matters stand to-day Delamater cannot be elected. They may change; and it is in this belief that Quay has persisted in his nomination. He remembers how he has before won battles against adverse public sentiment.

He remembers how he was chosen, when he bore an uncleaner reputation than sistence, in the present conditions, confirms our opinion that Quay's obstiendowed with a high degree of intellilow order of the politician, which has no savor in it of statesmanship nor any conception of the public feeling, outside

This is just what has been done: a candidate has been nominated against was offered for whom the public cried.

We consider it open to no question at all that General Hastings had the public sympathy and confidence and would have been elected governor with ease; though he may be, in fact, no better a man than Delamater, and no less a servant of Quay, if he had been given the chance to be such; and who is certainly not the superior nor even the equal of Delamater in general intelligence and ability. But he has the public confidence and would have commanded the governorship at the people's hands. The Republican machine has chosen to saddle itself with a great labor and a great risk for no other purpose that to seek to save the leadership of its leader; and the question to each Republican mind must be : Is it and Now the Democracy.

Now that the Republican ticket has been made to suit the Democratic party, the decks are cleared for the work of that party at Scranton. There is so bright a prospect of success opened to the party, by the act of its foes, as to make it imperative upon the convention to deliberate and decide with all its wits about it and all personal feelings laid aside, in the aim to nominate the strongest and best candidate for govercandidates eager for their selection; but

THE FINEST AND VERY FASHIONABLE

Men's Hand Sewed Shoes,

Made by celebrated American makers. Fine grades of Kangaroo leather are used in their manufacture which suggests repetition of the story of its virtues for excellence of wear—its superiority over all other fine leathers that enter into the making of strictly fine dress shoes. Kangaroo leather is very light and thin and is specially adapted for summer time wear. It has the strongest fibre of any known leather of equal weight. Calfskin equally as light and thin in no respect bears comparison with it. Morcover, kangaroo leather does not stretch and lose its shape as do all soft leathers. It resembles lustreless kid; has a glove like finish and is easy to blacken when soiled.

The makes of Kangaroo Shoes here are recommended for durability and for neatness and attractiveness of shape. Are produced with special regard to the requirements of office and professional met. They also serve admirably as society shoes for all fine dress occasions. The more they're worn the stronger grows their iking.

Great care has been given to the selection of lasts over which these shoes have been shaped, the most popular of which are the Globe and Paris toes. They are fashioned upon scientific principles that are in strict secord with the anatomical structure of the foot, fitting comfortably every part of it and giving freedom of action to the muscles and joints.
