Columnia, July 28.—An alarm of fire was sounded last night at 11:30 o'clock, which aroused the town. The new Presbyterian church, at Fourth and Locust streets, was discovered to be on fire. An executional country of the second country of the contract of the contract of the contract of the country of the contract of t under the steps or floor of the pul-sit platform. The walnscoting shows very le fire marks outside, while the four boh studding, upon which it was nailed, a burned to the depth of three is burned to the depth of three into the masonry. A plug fram, was taken into the church, but when it was found that the fire was behind the plaster the hose was removed and buckets were used. Holes were cut above the plaster and water the behind the fire. red behind the fire. A lot of finished ak paneling was torn away, and the frescoing and mouldings badly smoked. It will require the renewal of the interior south end of the church at a cost of several handred dollars. The building is fully in-cured. This excellent judgment of the nen prevented a disastrous and the flooding of a hand-some church building. There are many heories as to the origin, but the most people believe that it was due to spon-taneous combustion. Some believe that it was of incendiary origin, but opposed to this theory is the absence of motive and the fact that the fire started at a point at which the stone well is separated only by the wainscoting. It is generally thought that waste material was thrown under the floor when nailing it down and spontaneous combustion followed.

John Fisher, an employe of Kauffman's stone quarries, had his right foot badly bruised yesterday afternoon by a heavy stone falling on it.

William Liveley, a boy of 12 years, fell from a cherry tree on Groom's farm yester-day and was badly bruised. No bones were broken, elthough his injuries are quite painful.

Children's Day will be observed on Sunday morning in the Second street Lutheran

An English coin was found while cutting through the new extension at Second street It bears the date of 1724, and is in a good

Mrs. Samuel Warfel and Jno. D. Morton were arrested by Officer Wittick for being drunk and disorderly. The charge was preferred by Adam Warfel, a son of the former. They were discharged upon paying the costs.

Rev. S. H. Boyer, of Philadelphia, will preach in St. Paul's church on Sunday. The funeral of Joseph Smith took place this morning from Holy Trinity Catholic church. The stove works employes attended in a body.

A party was given by Geo. F. Lutz last night, who moved from Cherry street and Laucaster avenue to Fourth and Union streets. A pleasant time was had by the large number of friends present. Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

THE COMING RACES

The Great Trotters on Their Way to Lancaster for Next Friday.

The track at McGrann's park will be put in order the coming week for the races on the Fourth. No pains will be spared to have the course in such a condition that the great flyers can make the best time that has yet been made over it. The horse will be here the first of the week, and visitors to the park will have an opportunity to inspect the steeds which have become famous through their perfor-mances on the great trotting tracks of the

The horses of Mr. C. R. Hedden, of New Jersey, will come here direct from Syracuse, N. Y. They number six. Cleon, 2:22, the great trotter; Arbutus, 2:24, son of the world famous Electioneer; Theo, the fine colt which at two years old paced a quarter in 32 seconds or 2:08 to the mile; Cleanthe, sister to Cleon : Czarowich and Newton B, 2:17#, and Dick Organ, while Billy Button, 2:181, and Electra, 2:271, will come on from the Jerseys. Brook Ludwig will have Alex Stuart and will try conclu sions with Fiss & Doerr's Sherman Bashaw.

The following will contest in the 2:24 class for a purse of $400; J. O. Stearn, Elizabeth, N. J., b. m. Electra; Brooke Ludwig, Shillington, Pa., s.g. Alex Stnart; C. R. Hedden, East Orange, N. J., bik. g. Arbutns or b. s. Czarewich; T.G. Middagh, Patterson, Pa., br. g. Dick Organ; W. Fiss, Lancaster, b. g. Sherman Bashaw.

As has been announced, the grand special will be made up of Charley Gibson, 2:211: Cleon, 2:22; Billy Button, 2:181, and Newton B., 2:17?. The trotting will be limited to one day, as some of the classes did not fill well enough to warrant a two days

Weish Mountaineers Fight. Henry, better known as "Scabby," a Welsh Mountain character, drove to Lancaster this morning. He brought with; him Samuel Smith, a darkey, who lives near him, and wanted to come in for a pair of shoes. On the way to town the borse lost a shoe, and he was placed in the Leopard hotel stable when arriving here. Both men went to attend to their business, and Samuel, after getting full. went to the stable for the horse, which he insisted upon taking out to the neighborhood of Faegleysville to have a shoe on. "Scabby" returned as he was about leaving with the horse and objected. He said he could attend to his own business and would have the horse shod when and where he saw fit. Both men got into the wagon and a struggle for possession of the lines began. In the fight the darkey's head was run through the top of the wagon, the side of which was also broken out. "Scabby" received several blows on the head and he at once went to Barr's and made complaint against his dusky brother, charging him with assault and battery and malicious mischief. Samuel was arrested by Constable Price and locked up. Prosecuted For Perjury.

S. W. Eichenberg, merchant of Millway, was complained against to-day before Alderman Halbach, for forgery, by Henry Pfautz. According to Pfautz's statement, on April 1, 1889, he gave a common note to Eichenberg for $300. He thought nothing further of the matter until Friday, when to his surprise execution was issued on the note. He came to Lancaster, examined the note and found that Eichenberg had added a sentence to the paper, making it a judgment note. An ex amination of the note shows that this sentence is written in a different hand writing from the note itself. Detective Barnhold went to Miliway this afternoon to arrest Eichenberg.

Turners Went to the Seashore. The Turners of the Philadelphia district will hold a meeting at Atlantic City, com mencing to-day and continuing for several days next week. The following active members of the Lancaster Turners left for Atlantic City, this afternoon, to take part : John Wagner, jr., first instructor ; Fred. Reidel, second instructor; P. S. Eshleman, George Reidel, Chas. Hoover, Geo. J. Heim, Chas, Sauer, Jacob Reiker, Chas. Kiehl, A. Zimmerman, Fred. Greiner, Walter Viebahn E. Boetcher. A large number of passive members accompanied the boys.

A New Rabb! For Lancaster. The Hebrew congregation of Shairy Shomaim, of this city, has been without a rabbi for some time past. They have extended a call to Rev. Dr. Schweitzer, of New York city, who has accepted. The new minister now has a very large congregation in New York and he will come here

THE SWINDLING PAIR. They Were Pald the Money For th

Second Check at Fulton Bank. Nothing has been learned as yet of the two young men who collected money here on Wednesday that belonged to Edward Thomas, of Philadelphia. It was learned yesterday afternoon that the check which they received from H. F. Weber was presented by them at the Fulton National bank, where it was cashed. After receiving the money the men quickly left the bank. and on the same day got out of town. The man who gave his name as Thomas wrote the name on the back of the check at the bank and received the money. When the other check was presented at the Northern bank the clerk who paid it noticed that there was a "J" in the name of Mr. Thomas on the face of the check. The man who wrote the name on the back failed to put in the middle letter, and the clerk called his attention to it. He at once inserted the letter and received the money.

A FAMILY NEARLY RILLED.

Their Carriage Caught Within the Safety Their Carriage Caught Within the Safety
Gates in Reading.

The family of George F. Baer made a narrow escape from being killed on the Reading railroad at the Franklin street station, in Reading on Friday evening.
Mrs. Baer and daughters were returning from a drive, and when their carriage neared the crossing the watchman signaled the driver to come on. The latter whipped up his horses, but just the watchman noticed the fast freight approaching athigh speed and lowered the safety gates.
By this time the team was on the railroad and the horses began rearing. and the horses began rearing.

The driver pulled the animals back with

The driver pulled the animals back with such suddenness as to cause them to fall close to the tracks as the engine shot by. As soon as the horses fell the driver jumped over the dasher and held them down by their heads until the train had passed, thus preventing them from regaining their feet and running away. The ladies jumped from the carriage and escaped uninjured. One of the horses was hurt and the carriage was damaged.

Death of Two Ladies. Mrs. Maria Walker, widow of the late David Walker, died on Friday at her home in Oxford. Deceased was a sister of George W. Hensel, Quarryville, N. N. Hensel, Fairfield and W. W. Hensel, Little Britain. She was well known in the lower end of the county, where she lived for many

The wife of Daniel Helm, who resides near New Providence, died on Friday. The funeral will take place on Monday with interiment at the Reformed church.

Approved Bills For Street Damages. The finance committee of city councils eld a meeting last evening and approved the bills for damages caused by the opening of Filbert street, and the widening of Strawberry, to the amount of about $13,000. There is a fund of but $9,000 available for this purpose.

Returned From Columbus. The Knights of St. John, who attended the annual session of the national commandery at Columbus the past week, have returned home. They report having had a pleasant trip.

The race between yale and Harvard University crows at New London Conn., on Friday was won by Yale by about four lengths. This makes Yale the victor for the fifth time in five years. The event was celebrated at New Haven with fireworks
