ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

ONE LITTLE BOY SENDS A BULLET INTO THE BREAST OF ANOTHER.

A Pistol Discharges in Some Manner and Produces a Painful Wound to Samuel Balmer—One of His Ribs Split.

On Saturday evening a shooting accident occurred in Florin which came very near resulting fatally. Frank Eaby, a boy aged 10 or 12 years, and a son of Samuel Balmer, about the same age, were playing together. Young Eaby had a 22 calibre four shot revolver, which his grandmother gave him as a present, and he handled it rather carelessly. Finally the weapon was discharged when the muzzle was turned towards Balmer. The ball struck the boy on the right side, and at first it was believed that he had been fatally injured. He was quickly taken to his home, and Dr. Sherry, of Mount Joy, was summoned. He found that one of the ribs had been split by the ball, which is still in the boy's body, although the physicians endeavored to find it. The boy's injuries are not believed to be serious.

OBSERVED CHILDREN'S DAY.

An Entertaining Programme Rendered by the Second Street Lutheran Church.

COLUMBIA, June 30.—Children's Day was observed on Sunday morning in the Second street Lutheran church, when the main room was well filled with the Sunday school teachers, scholars and friends. The church was trimmed in a very pretty manner with potted plants, ferns and flowers in the vicinity of the pulpit. The programme included responsive readings, recitations, singing and addresses by the pastor and superintendent. An interesting feature was the presentation of Bibles to children of the church who had arrived at the age of ten years during the year. The following received a copy of the Bible: Mary Spotten Charles Westerman, Ross Shank, Daniel Lutz, Charles Minich, Stella Wilson, Irene Erisman, Maud Markel, Harry Gerfin, John Strebig, Walter Swartz, Milton Westerman. The offerings for the benefit of orphans and education amounted to $36.85.

The Cookman Chapel Mite society will meet this evening at the home of John S. Snyder. A literary and musical programme will be given and refreshments will be served.

The Methodist Mite society will meet on Thursday evening at the home of Henry Cramer.

A sociable was held on Saturday evening by the United Brethren Christian Endeavor society at the parsonage. It was largely attended and a financial success.

An infant son of James Lockard, of this place, died on Sunday afternoon at Harrisburg, where the mother was visiting. The funeral will be held on Tuesday at 2 p. m., from the parents' home.

A slight fire occurred on Saturday night at the home of a family named Thomas, on Perry street. The chimney was on fire but was soon put out with a few buckets of water. The damage was very slight.

Squire Solly committed Carson Devan, colored, to jail this morning, for fifteen days for disorderly conduct.

Emma Archey, colored, was sent to jail on Saturday by Squire Evans, for ninety days, for being drunk and disorderly. Emma spends more of her time in jail than is good to her.

Guy Ferguson is now a reporter for the Daily News.

Allen C. Hippey, the new superintendent of the Norfolk & Western railroad, was in town during Sunday.

The Columbia Gun club will hold a two-days sweepstakes match on Big Island, on July 17th and 18th. Contestants will be present from Lancaster, York and Harrisburg.

Rev. Benj. J. Douglas, a former rector of St. Paul's P. E. church, preached in that church on Sunday.

Cheap Excursions.

The Pennsylvania railroad will sell excursion tickets from Lancaster to St. Paul and return for persons attending the National Educational association convention from July 1st to 5th good to 17th, for $31.33. For the Knights of Pythias convention at Milwaukee tickets will be sold from July 5th to 6th good to 15th, for $20.38.

The Philadelphia & Reading railroad will issue excursion tickets on the 3d and 4th of July 8. The Reading is offering special rates and privileges to its patrons. The Pennsylvania railroad will also sell excursion tickets on the Fourth.

A Sermon to Graduates.

Rev. C. L. Fry preached eloquently in Trinity Lutheran church on Sunday evening, his theme being the importance of studying the Bible. He predicted that this or the coming generation would determine whether the Bible will continue to be the counsellor of the people of the United States. The Bible's foes, he said, are now forcing a crisis.

Among the large congregation were many of the class just graduated from the high school. The discourse was admirable throughout; every sentence was lucid and contained the clearest of argumentative points.

Odd Fellows at Mt. Gretna.

The Patriarchs Militant of the I. O. O. F. will run their excursion to Mount Gretna on Monday, August 4, arrangements having been made with the P. R. R. to carry them on that day. As the rate has been fixed at 75 cents for the round trip, it will certainly be a large picnic. The committee have made arrangements for all possible amusements, etc., and have secured the Metropolitan Band and Taylor's Orchestra for the day. 1t

LOCATED at the corner of Arkansas and Pacific avenues, Atlantic City, N. J., is the Osborne, one of the most elaborately equipped and elegantly appointed houses in that section of the city. Mrs. H. Osborne, the owner and proprietress, is a lady of years of experience in the hotel line, and as a popular hostess, has few, if any, superiors.

This hotel is supplied with all of the modern improvements and conveniences, and as a comfort-affording and homelike hostelrie, it is almost entirely unsurpassed by any on the coast.

The table and service are excellent, while the terms are decidedly reasonable.
