A GRAND CONCERT.

dience On Wednesday Evening.

The concert in Fulton opera house on inseday evening was a feature of the willes now progressing which will we a lawing impression upon the large fience assembled to hear it.

The scene upon the stage was one to in-present an andience. Back of the orchestra, imposed of thirty artists from Reading and Lancaster, were seated 250 members of he local and visiting societies. Such a neumoth chorus was never before gath-tred upon the stage, and much was ex-sected from it, but it is certain that expec-tions were more than realized. Following was the programme ren-tered :

Fost-Dirigent-Prof. Carl Matz. "Juba Onverture" (C. M. Von Weber.) Demarcasechen Strassburg (Jul. Otto), Mas-schor mit Orchesterbegleitung. "In Die See" (F. Mochring), "Schiffer's Ab-hrit" (J. B. Schmoelzer), Liederkranz, Phila-birthe

The solos of Miss Adele Matz, daughter of Prof. Carl Matz, were faultless. All the graces of the successful singer were dis-played; and her voice is well controlled in scaling the difficult notes in the composi-A pretty floral basket was presented her. The concert from beginning to end was of high character, and the Lancaster participants showed results of as careful train-ing as the individual choruses by visiting societies. Prof. Matz gave direction to the programme in his usual enthusiastic man-ner, and it was largely due to his efforts that the concert was so successful, as he worked hard.

After the concert the singers were taken to the hall of the Mannerchor, where they were handsomely entertained. There was were handsomely entertained. There was plenty of singing and several speeches with music by the Germania, Iroquois and Washington Grays bands. All present eff loyed themselves until a very late hour. To-day the visiting singers were taken on a trip through the county. They went out in carriages, visiting Lititz and other places. To-morrow the big pienie will take place and if the weather is favorable it will be the largest affair of its kind ever held at Tells Hain.

Headed by W. U. Hensel.

COLUMBIA, July 3.—The news of the nomination of Pattison appears to give general satisfaction in the town, but does not appear to have inspired the confidence which would have followed the nomination of Bensel. That gentleman's candidacy had been worked into a genuine house had been worked into a genuine boom in Columbia by the Herald and Independent, and there was an earnest desire here that he might be favored at Scranton as the which there are not a few in the town, will no doubt go to the nominee. The Columbia Canoe club has wisely decided that the centennial prize cups should not be taken from Columbia permanently without a contest. Entries will be madejin the single, double and fouroared races, Officer Wittick was in Lebanon to-day ns a witness in the Glassmyer horse steal-ing case. The horse thief was remanded for trial. The club house of the Columbia Canoe club has had a shower bath added conveniences. Thieves forced an entrance to the show window of Simon Weaver's fruit store and carried off a bushel of peanuts. Mr. E. Crowley invited a number of his friends to the Keystone club rooms, where he cut the prize cake won at the Shawnee

The Kinds of Fan That Will Be on Tap in Town and County. There will be many different kinds of amusement for the people to-morrow. They are varied enough to please every-body and most of them will receive plenty of attention. At Tells Hain the big plenic of the Liederkranz will be held and there is every evidence that the crowd will be very large. To accommodate them the car company will provide extra cars. Another great attraction will be the races at the park, which promise to be very fine, as a number of noted horses will be here. At Penryn park there will be a very large burg will also get her share to attend the Junior Mechanics parade. One of the best annexements of the whole holiday will be the fine display of fireworks to be given at the City hole to-morrow evening. It will surpass any private dis-play ever given in the city and will be well worth going to see. North Queen street in that vicinity will scarcely hold the people who will assemble to see it. At Quary ville to-morrow evening there will be a grand display by the secret soci-cities of that place, New Providence and Rawlinswille. The Quarryville and other bands will furnish the music. There will be a display of fireworks in the evening.

THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Last Amusement Until the Show Season Opens - Improvements Being Made.

The concert of the Germans in Fulton The concert of the Germans in Fulton opera house last evening was the last entertainment that will be given there until the regular show season comes in the latter part of August. Not season, as has been stated, Mr. Yecker will manage the opera house himself and his partners will be his son Charles and "Bert" Rinehart. Charles will have charge of the box office and Mr. Rinehar: will look after the stage, as he has se well done for many years. Mr. B. • weil done for many years. Mr. B. Yecker will supervise everything about the house and book attractions.

This morning a force of men were put to work tearing out the old seats in the parquette einde, which have been sold to John B. Feople, who will put them in the new boat on the Conestoga. The folding chairs in the parquette will take the place of those removed from the girle and in of those removed from the circle, and in the parquette new chairs of an entirely new design will be put. Other improvements will also be made.

The list of attractions already booked by Mr. Yecker is the best that the books of the opera house have ever held. It includes the leading stars and combinations of the country and the season will no doubt be a vast improvement upon what it has been.

THE LIVELY HORSE.

He Will Not Stand the Breaking of a Trace. This morning William Etter, a boy, was driving a horse belonging to Mettfett Brothers, and hitched to a covered wagon, down East King street. One of the trace became loose at the corner of Duke street, and as it struck the horse upon the legs he frightened and started to run. The boy could no longer hold the animal, and be thought it best to try and save his own life. He jumped from the wagon and landed on the believen blocks, where he was turned the belgian blocks, where he was turned around several times. He received a slight ent on the head, but he did not mind that, as he is hard to hurt.

The borse ran through Centre Square and down West King street over the belgian blocks. He passed closely to a number of wagons of different kinds, which were standing on the streets, but did not strike any of them. At Water street he turned down and one of the hind wheels was caught in the railroad track. Every spoke was broken from the hub. The horse became loose from the wagon in some way and ran down to the cotton factories where he was caught.

BRIEF LOCALS.

It was John Volen, instead of John Vogan, who was granted a pension. John Bender, of Harrisburg, has gone to White Hall, Ga., to superintend a cotton mill. He is a native of Lancaster, and for years worked in the cotton mills here. Misses Mame Etchell, Kate and Mollie Meister left to-day for a trip to Reading.

C. W. Fargley, into of the Reystone watch factory, of this city, but now of Trenton, N. J., is home on a visit. Mrs. John Luther Fargley and son, of Latrobe, are in town visiting John Farg-ley, of North Queen street.

Change in Funeral Arrangements

On account of no more burials being al-lowed in the Strasburg cemetery the ar-rangements for the funeral of Lydia A. Rowe have to be changed. It will take place at 2 o'clock to-morrow affermoon, from the residence of Elim G. Snyder, with interment at Lancaster cometery.

Eyrand Confesses. Michael Eyraud, who is charged with having murdered Notary Gouffe in Paris on July 20, 1859, and who was arrested in Havana and brought to Paris, confessed on Wednesday that he committed the crime.

Demurrer Filed.

Counsol for Henry Martin, brick machine maker, in the equity suit filed by Lambert B. Britten, to-day filed a demurrer to the bill. The question of jurisdiction in this court is raised, as a similar bill for damages is pending in the United States District court at Philadelphia. Other legal points are also raised. are also raised.

The House Of a Family Found Open-A

The House of a Family Found Open-A Good Suggestion From Chief Borger. Some time ago Miss Potts, who lives at No. 126 East Chesinut street, on the corner of Cherry alley, went to the seashore. When she started she locked the house up, or at least it is supposed that she did. Yesterday some ladles, who live next door, noticed that one of the pair of back shutters was open. They notified John Albright, another neighbor and he called upon Chief of Police Borger at the mayor's office, tell-ing him about it, as it was feared that thieves might have broken in. The chief and ing him about it, as it was feared that thieves might have broken in. The chief and Officer Seiber went to the house between 8 and 9 o'clock last evening and the latter scaled the rear fence, which is, very high and has a lattice work upon the top, in order to Spen the gate which was locked on the inside. The shutters were found to be open and through the window Officer Sleber crawled. He struck a match and found a tallow candle upon a table which he lighted. In the meantime the chief of he lighted. In the meantime the chief of police had made the discovery that the din-ing room door was ajar. The officers then Ing room door was ajar. The officers then went through the house from cellar to garrot while Mr. Albright watched at the front usor, but did not find anyone nor did the things look as if they had been disturbed in the least. The shutter had one mark upon it which looked as though it might have been pried open, but the key of the dining room door was in the lock in the inside, and the door showed no sign of prying. There are people in the city who have keys to the house to look after it, and they may have left it open, but after it, and they may have left it open, but Chief Borger could not find them last night. This house was broken into and robbe i a

This house was broken into and robbe i a few years ago. The open shutter and door looked rather suspicious. The chief of police made a good sugges-tion this morning while talking over bargharies to a reporter of the iNTELLIOEN-cma. He said that all persons who go out of town to spend anytime during the sum-mer, and leave their houses unoccupied, should leave word at the station house. If this was done the police would make it their business to keep an eye on the house at all times. at all times.

Deaths of Two In One Family.

R. B. Booth, who recently moved to this eity from the country and lives at No. 348 East Fullon street, has met with a sad affliction. Monday a child eight years of age died of scarlet fever and yesterday another, aged 11 years, passed away. It is a sad blow to Mr. Booth, who has been out of employment since he came to town, and is poor. is poor.

The First To Go Up.

The First To Go Up. Harry Watson, who keeps a grocery store at James and Prince streets, had a long stand covered with fireworks, which he was selling in front of his store this morn-ing. A lot of boys were plaving around and one of them named Herne either accidentally or intentionally set fire to the stand. Rockets, pinwheels, firecrackers and everything else went off together, and over $10 worth was exploded in a very short time. Leh. Nav. Hestony short time.

To-morrow a Legal Holiday. As to-morrow will be a legal holiday Sunday hours will be observed at the post-office, and all the banks in the city will be closed.

A Pleasant Party.

Isaac Stoner and wife, of 353 North Queen street, gave a party last evening to their daughter, Miss Gertie. There was quite a number of young folks present, and they had a splendid time during the evening.
