day Evening. day Evening. Columna, July 16.—A large crowd of people left town last evening on a special rain for Harrisburg to see the "Last Days of Pompeil." The crowd from here was increased by large delegations from Wrightsville, Mountville, Marietta and other places. The train arrived at Harris-ture of 2 colorb and the courd surred ourg at 7 o'clock and the crowd surges ds Island park to see the exhibition. The weather was so threatening that the nanagement were compelled to cut the performance. The eruption of ventuus and the fine display of fireworks were crowded into about twenty minutes and before it was concluded the rain fell in torrents. There was a wild rush for the station, and the scene will rush for the station by those who were upnce. The eruption of Venuvius sever be forgotten by those who were unfortunate enough to be present. The crowd was a good-natured one, and very few complaints were heard. By the time the crowd reached the railroad station every person was soaked, and here and there could be seen some fellow pouring the water out of his pockets and shoes. At 10:15 the train left for Columbia, and in about an hour and a half the train arrived in town. When the people see each other this morning there is some good-natured fun between them.

Albert Tshudy, an infant son of Albert Tshudy, living on Bethel street, died this morning after a brief illness. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon and interment at Herr's burial ground, in Manor town-hip.

A drunken man made an exhibition of himself at the P. R. R. station this morning. He attempted to board a west-bound freight train and was almost thrown under the cars. He was not hurt, but gave every person a good scare.

Engine No. 459 ran into engine 878 on the Port road yesterday, badly damaging the pilot of the former.

Company C will receive the new rifles, knapsacks, etc., at the armory this even-ing at 8 o'clock. The company will leave for the encampment on Saturday. The Columbia Gunclub will hold a big shoot on Big island on Thursday and Friday. Contestants will be present from surrounding towns, and a big affair is expected.

A special meeting of the Vigilant fire company was held last evening, when the ont, Geo. R. Bennett, had his goldheaded cane with him. This cane was presented to Mr. Bennett by members of the company early in the seventies, and a number of the members had never seen the

Many Anti - Prohibition Republicans

Supporting the Democratic Ticket.

The great mass convention of Maine men who believe that the present prohibitory law is a failure and its enforcement a farce was called to assemble in Bangor, on Tues-day, but did not materialize. The call was issued directly following the first Demo-cratic state convention, which refused to place a license plank in its platform, but since the second convention, which took a stand for local option and high license, the backers of the independent the backers of the independent movement have quietly ceased operations. The principal orginators of the license movement are all Republicans and one of them said to day that while they did not consider the Democratic arrangement of the predidition law softiciently arrange in the prohibitory law sufficiently strong it would not be feasible to nominate a sepa-would not be feasible to nominate a sepa-rate license ticket. "We believe," he said, "that William P. Thompson, the Democratic candidate, combines every needful qualification to make the state of Maine a successful chief magistrate, and furthermore that he can be depended upon to devote his efforts to changing the existing conditions of the liquor traffic. We shall vote for him and cannot see how any Republican can fail to do otherwise.

do otherwise. These sentiments are being expressed all over the state, and a number of Republican papers are exhibiting license views. The Republican party managers are thoroughly alarmed at the turn affairs have taken, and are making arrangements for a vigorous campaign and for whipping the backsliders into line. Congressman Boutelle has been making his second week's visit at home formulating campaign plans, and the state builte. Strange to relate, the liquor dealers in the city are solidly arrayed with the Republicans fighting for prohibition, and this tells a striking story in favor of high

THE DEARTH OF GOOD COOKS.

THE DEARTH OF GOOD COOKS. Mrs. Ewing Thinks People Eat More Than They Need In Trying to Find Something They Lite. There was a lively and smusing scene at Chautauqua, N. Y., at the close of a lecture on "Dietetics" on Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Emma P. Ewing, the lecturer, on "Dietetics" on Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Emma P. Ewing, the lecturer, was subjected to a protracted "quiz" by her audience, and delivered off hand some orconomy. "The world moves," she told them in her address, "but good cookery continues the exception rather than the rule. A family of eight persons, in most parts of the country, can for $1.75 each a week. At the Iowa agri-cultural college and at Purdue university I have fed a family of four adults for several weeks at that rate and other people can do the same. The average housekeeper is a wretched caterer and cook, and the sverage matron or steward is generally worse. Domestic economy should be made a branch of study in our schools. We have iteast $,000,000 kitchems to prepare the food for #0,000,000 people; but of the 000, oob barrels of flour that are daily mani-tin to bread and pastry, how much is it for food. tured into bread and pastry, how much is back seats. "No, ma'am, you might chew a piece of salt-rising bread to all eterdity and it wouldn't be digestible. It isn't the chew-ing of a thing that matters so much as the condition of the article chewed." "Do you advocate oatmeal?" "Yes, I advocate the widest possible range in eating, but very little variety at one meal."

000 parrels of nour this are daily manufactored into bread and pastry, how much is fit for food. "It seems an easy matter to cook potatoes; but how many are cooked as they should be? Lord Besconsfield was right when he said that a cup of coffee was the most delicious but the rarest beverage in the world, and I really believe that not one person in ten thousand can make tosst properly. Cooks, as a rule, don't know what food to select or how to handle it, and until they learn the effect of hot and cold water in making coffee, the regulation of temperature, the making of dough, and so on, dyspepsia will continue a fashionable disease, and the kitchen will make invalids instead of healthy persons." "Do you think poor bread is wholesome if chewed well?" piped a woman in the back seats.

"What about genuine orange marma Inde

lade ?"
" All genuine things are good. But most of the jams and jellies we buy are not made of fruit at all. They are made of gelatine and coloring and flavoring matter, and that's why they're cheap."
" Is pie digestible ?"
" It may be made so, if properly made and cooked. In my own household, however, we find that good bread and butter remove a taste for much dessert."
" Why would you do if you had a 6

"How would you do if you had a " "clock dinner?"

o'clock dinner?" "I might have cake for luncheon, if somebody craved for it. But my own ex-perience is that people, as a rule, cat much more than they require in the more effort to find something that they like. Good cookery, by making everything palatable, prevents waste. The expense of most households lies in the food not caten."

Discontented With Harrison.

Discontented With Harrison. "Marion county, which has the honor to claim Benjamin Harrison as a resident, bids fair to occupy a very conspicuous position in the political eye when the Re-publican county convention meets in In-dianapolis next week," remarked William Cunhaw, a well-known Indianapolitan, at the Palmer hones Chicago on Tanaday

Cunhaw, a well-known Indianapolitan, at the Palmer house, Chicago, on Tuesday. "The act that will make the convention conspicuous," he continued. "will be its refusal to indorse the administration of the president. A resolution indorsing the administration will, of course, be offered, but if present plans and calculations come out all right the resolution will be voted down. When that is done perhaps those who have poolpoohed the idea of there being any foundation for the rumor that discontent exists among Indiana Republi-cans will acknowledge themselves in the wrong. The result of this will naturally cause a split, and that means that a county which, when Harrison was elected, went Democratic for the first time in a number of years, will go the same way next fail by of years, will go the same way next fall by even a larger majority. "I am a Republican myself, but I am compelled to say that the president has not made happy appointments so far as our state is concerned, and the fact that discontent reigns among the Republicans should be taken quite as a matter of course." THE SCHUETZEN-VEREIN.

The Second Shoot for the Shamrock Badge-Oth

The members of the Lancaster Schuetzen-Verein had their second shoot for Jimmy badge at their nev range at Graeff's Landing, yesterday, George Kircher, who won the badge at the first shoot, turned it over to the society esterday, in accordance with the rules. A SCHOOL TREASURER APPEALS. The Township Auditors Surcharge film For Taking Too Much Salary.

B. B. Brandt, treasurer of the Rapid township school board, has appealed from the finding of the auditors of the township surcharging him with one-fourth of one per cent. of the money he received as ireas-urer, retained by him as part of his salary. Under the school law the compensation of treasurers of school boards shall not exceed 2 per cent, of the receipts. When Mr. Brandt was elected the board fixed his compensation at one and a fourth per cent., and for that sum he agreed to serve. He filed his account in due form and at the proper time and claimed as a credit one and a fourth per cent., to which he was entitled for his labor, in accordance with the agreement made at the time of the election When the auditors went over the acounts they concluded one per cent. was sufficient compensation and they surcharged him with the one-fourth of one per cent. of the receipts. He believes this surcharge to be unjust and promptly ap-pealed. The appeal was entered in the prothonotary's office, this afternoon. Judge Patterson allowed the appeal and approved the bond of Mr. Brandt, that being requi-site before the appeal could be entered.

A Boy's Leg Broken. This afternoon, Philip Rintz, who resides at No. 475 St. Joseph street, and is aged about 15 years, was standing around the P. R. R. freight station, and it is said that he was anxious to get employment. A driver called to him to bring a light truck. The boy placed the truck under a box of goods weighing 600 pounds, and then pulled. The right leg was caught between the platform and the truck, and it was broken. The ambulance was sent for and the boy was taken home. His father is John Rintz.

In proof of the anxiety of the Republican state committee it is understood that the strongest pressure is being brought to bear upon Scretary Blaine, who is resting at Bar Harbor, to take the stump and aid in pulling out a victory. It is said that he is refluctant to undertake so much hard work, but the committee is anomaline to him a reluctant to undertake so much hard work, but the committee is appealing to him as the only one who can successfully stem the license tide. The Democrats are raising no fund whatever for their campaign, but are confident that probibition will receive a great sot-back at the September election.

Miss Sellers Butchered in the Presence of Her Affanced. North Carolina has a Jack the Ripper, and the people of Robison county are bunting every nook and corner of that section for him. Unlike the famous Ripper of London the name of this fiend is known and descriptions of him are posted at many places. He is Simon Ward, a man of notorious reputation, whose record is stained with crime. Last Sanday he mur-dered Mary Sellers near Maxion. She was engaged to be married to a young man named Crawford, but Ward is thought to have shad a secret passion for he. Sunday morning Crawford and the girl arted to walk to church. They had gone only a short distance when Ward came out from some bushes near the roadiside and only a short distance when Ward came out from some bushes near the roadside and ordered Crawford to leave the girl. Craw-ford hesitated, but was finally driven away. He did not go far, but secreted himself in the bushes near by. From his hiding-place Crawford could see and hear all that passed between Ward and Miss Sellers. Ward wanted the girl to go to the church with him, and when she determined not to do so, Ward, be-coming enraged, swore he would drag her there. She turned and started to run away from there. She turned and started to run away from him. Ward, now fully enruged, drew a maor from his pocket and made a lunge at her, sending the sharp blade deep into her throat. Miss Sellers toll to the ground. Ward pounced upon her and began to sever the head from her body. This ghastly work he accomplished, and picking up the head with the blood dripping from it he viewed it with a fiendish look of delight ; then tossing it aside he walked leisurely away. away.

Crawford, being unarmed, was afraid to make his presence known and stood and new the woman be expected soon to make his wife, butchered like a dog. He rushed off and gave the alarm and soon a mob was couring the woods and swamps for the nurderer. So far he has succeeded in wrading capture. He will be lynched as non as he is caught.

Shot By a Posse.

Twenty-five negro laborers on the plan-tions of A. Heffner, in Moorehouse par-b, Louisiana, whose passage he had paid fom North Carolina, secretly left last Sunnh, L from North Carolina, secretly left hast Sun-day night for the purpose of going to Ar-kansas. A pursuing posse found the fugi-lives yesterday morning in a thicket and notified them to return. Then, according to the account, "the negroes, led by one bold trouble maker, opened fire on the posse, and for one minute did some wild shooting. The posse returned the fire, and the result was that five negroes were killed."

The Directory Finished. The Lancester county directory has been completed and will be distributed about the middle of next week. It is said to be one of most complete directories everpublishe i in this county. Jno. H. Barnes was the compiler, and he is an old hand at the busi-ness. J. E. Williams, of Binghamton, N. Y., the publisher, is in this city attending to the delivery of the books.

Parson Fritch's Successor. Jonathan B. George, of Reamstown, this county, has been elected pastor of the Reformed congregation of the Allegheny church, in Berks county. This is the church of which Rev. Fritch, arrested for larceny, was the pastor. Rev. George was chosen by a majority of two and his election was a great surprise. Rev. A. P. Horne, of Summit Hill, Carbon county, expected to be chosen without opposition. Rev. George, who is now supplying the Reamstown charge, is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall college and of the theological seminary, and is an excellent speaker. The action may probably result in the breaking up of the Allegheny charge, and the other three churches in it will now elect pastors until all are supplied. The Gouglersville church will elect a pastor next Sunday, when Rev. S. S. Sweitzer, who is the choice of the congregation, will be elected.

Burled in a Strange Land.

James D. Ward, the Englishman killed on the railroad Sunday morning, was buried this morning. The funeral took place at ten o'clock from C. S. Herr's undertaking establishment, on North Queen street. The body was enclosed in a very neat cloth covered casket and it looked well. Sergeant Broome, who manifested a great interest in the man from the time that he was first brought to the city after the accident, managed the funeral. The pall-bearers were four policemen and the services were conducted by Rev. John Swenk, the prison chaplain. The interment was made in Lancaster cemetery.

A Doctor Bets on Races and Dies. A Doctor Bets on Baces and Dies. Dr. John Edwin Ensell on Tuesday in-flicted fatal wounds upon himself with suicidal intent at his home, in Brooklyn. The doctor has of late taken to betting on the races, and has lost heavily. He had become despondent over his financial troubles, which he had brought upon himself by his folly in betting at the race track.
